Bowker Consortium of College and University Media Centers, 1990 Bibliography of Agriculture , 1960 Long Is the Way and Hard Kevern Verney, Lee Sartain, Adam Fairclough, 2009-11 Celebrating its one hundredth anniversary in February 2009 the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People NAACP has been the leading and best known African American civil rights organization in the United States It has played a major and at times decisive role in most of the important developments in the twentieth century civil rights struggle Drawing on original and previously unpublished scholarship from leading researchers in the United States Britain and Europe this important collection of sixteen original essays offers new and invaluable insights into the work and achievements of the association The first part of the book offers challenging reappraisals of two of the NAACP's best known national spokespersons Walter White and Roy Wilkins Other essays analyze the association's cultural initiatives and the key role played by its public relations campaigns in the mid 1950s to counter segregationist propaganda and win over the hearts and minds of American public opinion in the wake of the NAACP's landmark legal victory in Brown v Board of Education Others provide thought provoking accounts of the association's complex and difficult relationship with Martin Luther King the post World War II Civil Rights movement and Black Power radicals of the 1960s The second part of the collection focuses on the work of the NAACP at state city and local levels examining its grassroots organization throughout the nation from Chicago Cleveland and Detroit in the North to California in the West as well as states across the South including Virginia Arkansas Alabama Louisiana and Texas Providing detailed and fascinating information on hitherto little explored aspects of the association's work these studies complement the previous essays by demonstrating the impact national initiatives had on local activists and analyzing the often strained relations between the NAACP national office in New York and its regional branches

Films That Work Harder Vinzenz Hediger, Florian Hoof, Yvonne Zimmermann, Scott Anthony, 2025-10-01 What unleashed the forces of global capitalism which continue to shape the world that we live in Economists and economic historians variously point to innovations in logistics and trade the emergence of a new set of business friendly values and the emergence of new forms of applied knowledge in early modernity to solve this riddle This book focuses on the moving image as a factor of economic development In a series of in depth cases studies at the intersection of film and media studies science and technology studies and economic and social history Films That Work Harder: The Circulations of Industrial Film presents an in depth global perspective on the dynamic relationship between film industrial organization and economic development Bringing together new research from leading scholars from Europe Asia Australia and North America this book combines the state of the art in the field with an agenda for a future research Provides a in depth global perspective on the complex dynamic relationship of film visual and organizational rhetoric and economic development It brings together the leading scholars in a burgeoning new field of film studies with original work not previously presented elsewhere Contributes towards the further development of an exciting new interdisciplinary research paradigm at the intersection of film studies economic history science and technology studies and the social sciences hidden treasures diabolic scientific devices wild animals depraved men runaway trains and an endless procession of knock down drag out fights Who could resist This reference work highlights 446 serial performers who thrilled generations Each entry includes the performer s birth and death dates serial credits major films and details of life before and after the movies

Before Video Anthony Slide,1992-04-30 The video revolution in the 1980s affected all areas of the American entertainment industry its impact was most dramatic ultimately devastating to the non theatrical film field Non theatrical film is the term used to describe motion pictures which are not shown in movie theaters but are produced and or distributed to markets that include the educational community home and business and industry The author covers the early Hollywood produced features and short subjects in a format other than 35mm for homes hospitals and correctional institutions as well as industrial films This is also the history of two major non theatrical libraries Bell and Howell and Kodascope both of which were founded to service the needs of purchasers of the then newly introduced 16mm projectors The book documents how the advent of the 16mm projector made possible the introduction of audio visual aids in classrooms and offices A number of production companies were established primarily in Chicago to produce films for this new outlet In addition Hollywood saw a new market and began licensing distribution of the films Complete with appendices providing distributors from the 1920s 1940s and current names and addresses of non theatrical film sources this book length study of the history of this film genre is both important and much needed BASA 2019 Prasetyo Adi Wisnu Wibowo ,Suwardi Endraswara,Teguh
