Chicorel Index to Film Literature Marietta Chicorel, 1975 An Aerospace Bibliography Air University (U.S.). Aerospace Studies Institute. Documentary Research Division, 1965 The Threshold of the Visible World Kaja Silverman, 2013-11-19 In The Threshold of the Visible World Kaja Silverman advances a revolutionary new political aesthetic exploring the possibilities for looking beyond the restrictive mandates of the self and the normative aspects of the cultural image repertoire She provides a detailed account of the social and psychic forces which constrain us to look and identify in normative ways and the violence which that normativity implies Quill & Quire ,1963 Glenn Ford Peter Ford, 2011-05-12 Glenn Ford star of such now classic films as Gilda Blackboard Jungle The Big Heat 3 10 to Yuma and The Rounders had rugged good looks a long and successful career and a glamorous Hollywood life Yet the man who could be accessible and charming on screen retreated to a deeply private world he created behind closed doors Glenn Ford A Life chronicles the volatile life relationships and career of the renowned actor beginning with his move from Canada to California and his initial discovery of theater It follows Ford s career in diverse media from film to television to radio and shows how Ford shifted effortlessly between genres playing major roles in dramas noir westerns and romances This biography by Glenn Ford s son Peter Ford offers an intimate view of a star s private and public life Included are exclusive interviews with family friends and professional associates and snippets from the Ford family collection of diaries letters audiotapes unpublished interviews and rare candid photos This biography tells a cautionary tale of Glenn Ford s relentless infidelities and long slow fade out but it also embraces his talent driven career The result is an authentic Hollywood story that isn t afraid to reveal the truth Best Books for General Audiences selected by the American Association of School Librarians Best Books for General Audiences selected by the Public Library Reviewers Liquid Crystal Display Drivers David J.R. Cristaldi, Salvatore Pennisi, Francesco Pulvirenti, 2009-03-25 Liquid Crystal Display Drivers deals with Liquid Crystal Displays from the electronic engineering point of view and is the first expressively focused on their driving circuits After introducing the physical chemical properties of the LC substances their evolution and application to LCDs the book converges to the examination and in depth explanation of those reliable techniques architectures and design solutions amenable to efficiently design drivers for passive matrix and active matrix LCDs both for small size and large size panels Practical approaches regularly adopted for mass production but also emerging ones are discussed The topics treated have in many cases general validity and found application also in alternative display technologies OLEDs Electrophoretic Displays etc Recent Advances in Display Media United States. National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Scientific and Technical Information Division, 1968 The symposium on Advanced Display Media was the eighth in a series of technical meetings sponsored by the Electronics

Research Center NASA It was the first NASA symposium held on display media The attendance of more than 350 engineers and scientists from universities industrial organizations and government agencies reflects the increasing interest in improving displays in aeronautical and space vehicles and the continuing university industry government relationship in aerospace technology Many of the techniques in display media discussed at the symposium and documented herein have been made possible by the tremendous advances in electronic technology in recent years The application of digital computers to drive new displays has opened new vistas for engineers and scientists to improve the information available for astronauts and pilots to make decisions A unique feature of this seminar was the combination of theoretical papers and demonstrations of experimental or breadboard display devices by 31 aerospace research organizations The Advanced Display Media Symposium was one of a continuing program of conferences and seminars planned by the Electronics Research Center NASA to expedite interchange of electronics research and technology Foreword Recent Advances in Display Media ,1968

Serials and Series Buck Rainey,2015-06-08 While many fans remember The Lone Ranger Ace Drummond and others fewer focus on the facts that serials had their roots in silent film and that many foreign studios also produced serials though few made it to the United States The 471 serials and 100 series continuing productions without the cliffhanger endings from the United States and 136 serials and 37 series from other countries are included in this comprehensive reference work Each entry includes title country of origin year studio number of episodes running time or number of reels episode titles cast production credits and a plot synopsis AB Bookman's Weekly ,1988-07 American History/American Film John E. O'Connor,Martin A. Jackson,2016-10-06 In this pioneering work sixteen historians analyse individual films for deeper insight into US institutions values and lifestyles Linking all of the essays is the belief that film holds much of value for the historian seeking to understand and interpret American history and culture This title will be equally valuable for students and scholars in history using film for analysis as well as film students and scholars exploring the way social and historical circumstances are reflected and represented in film The United States Department of Commerce Publications, Catalog and Index Supplement United States. Department of Commerce,1965 A Research Primer for the Social and Behavioral Sciences Miriam Schapiro Grosop,Hyman Sardy,2014-05-10 A Research Primer for the Social and Behavioral Sciences provides an introductory but comprehensive overview of the research process that primarily concerns human subjects This book discusses the methods of acquiring knowledge importance of a well chosen problem review of the literature and relationship between theory building and hypothesis testing The common sources of invalidity in practice non experimental research types Stevens classification of scales and estimation based on probabilistic sampling are also elaborated This text likewise covers the role of computer in research techniques for analysis of data univariate and bivariate statistics and assumptions underlying analysis of variance Other topics include the canonical correlation analysis non parametric analysis of variance deterministic problem analysis techniques and common errors in presentation of findings This publication is intended for novice investigators in the broad category of social and behavioral sciences Screens Dominique Chateau, José Moure, 2025-10-01 We live in an era of screens No longer just the place where we view movies or watch TV at night screens are now ubiquitous the source of the majority of information we consume daily and a crucial component of our basic interactions with colleagues friends and family This transformation has happened almost without us realizing it and certainly without the full theoretical and intellectual analysis it deserves Screens brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines to analyse the growing presence and place of screens in our lives today They tackle such topics as the archaeology of screens film and media theories about our interactions with them their use in contemporary art and the new avenues they open up for showing films and other media in non traditional venues The Theoretical Foundations of Criminology Jayne Mooney, 2019-12-06 To confront the challenges criminologists face today and to satisfactorily critique the theories on which criminology is founded we need to learn from the past To do this we must give context to both theorist and theory Written from a critical perspective this book brings criminological theory to life It presents the core theories of criminology as historical and cultural products and theorists as producers of culture located in particular places writing in specific historical periods and situated in precise intellectual networks and philosophical controversies This book illustrates that theory does not arise out of the blue and highlights the importance of understanding how and why ideas emerge at certain points in time why they gained currency and the influence that they have had It follows the trajectory of criminology from pre Enlightenment society through to the present day and the proliferation of criminological thinking It explores Setting the Stage for the Emergence of Criminology Classicist Criminology The Search for Justice Equality and the Rational Man The Positivist Revolution Physiognomy Phrenology and the Science of Othering Chicago School of Sociology An Explosion of Ideas Developing a Sociological Criminology Durkheim Du Bois Merton and Tannenbaum Feminism Redressing the Gender Imbalance Confronting the Establishment The Emergence of Critical Criminology From Theoretical Innovations to Political Engagement The Theoretical Foundations of Criminology provides an invaluable contribution to the growing conversation about criminology s origin story and the level that this is grounded in the idiosyncrasies of the North Atlantic world and its historical development This book will be invaluable reading to students and academics engaged in studies of criminology and criminal justice Japan on Display Morris Low, 2006-09-27 Sixty years on from the end of the Pacific War Japan on Display examines representations of the Meiji emperor Mutsuhito 1852 1912 and his grandson the Showa emperor Hirohito who was regarded as a symbol of the nation in both war and peacetime Much of this representation was aided by the phenomenon of photography The introduction and development of photography in the nineteenth century coincided with the need to make Hirohito s grandfather the young Meiji Emperor more visible Photo books and albums became a popular format for presenting seemingly objective images of the monarch reminding the Japanese of their proximity to the Emperor and the imperial family In the twentieth century these national albums provided a visual record of wars fought in the name of the Emperor while also documenting the reconstruction of Tokyo scientific expeditions and imperial tours Drawing on archival documents photographs and sources in both Japanese and English this book throws new light on the history of twentieth century Japan and the central role of Hirohito With Japan s defeat in the Pacific War the Emperor was transformed from wartime leader to peace loving scientist Japan on Display seeks to understand this reinvention of a more human Emperor and the role that photography played in the process Chinese Revolutionary Cinema Jessica Ka Yee Chan,2019-01-24

Engaging with fiction films devoted to heroic tales from the decade and a half between 1949 and 1966 this book reconceives state propaganda as aesthetic experiments that not only radically transformed acting cinematography and screenwriting in socialist China but also articulated a new socialist film theory and criticism Rooted in the interwar avant garde and commercial cinema Chinese revolutionary cinema as a state cinema for the newly established People s Republic adapted Chinese literature for the screen incorporated Hollywood narration appropriated Soviet montage theory and orchestrated a new glamorous socialist star culture In the wake of decolonisation Chinese film journals were quick to project and disseminate the country s redefined self image to Asia Africa and Latin America as they helped to create an alternative vision of modernity and internationalism Revealing the historical contingency of the term propaganda Chan uncovers the visual aural kinaesthetic sexual and ideological dynamics that gave rise to a new aesthetic of revolutionary heroism in world cinema Based on extensive archival research this book s focus on the distinctive rhetoric of post war socialist China will be of value to East Asian Cinema scholars Chinese Studies academics and those interested in the history of twentieth century socialist culture Educational Film/video Locator of the Consortium of University Film Centers and R.R.
