The Short Story Valerie Shaw, 2014-07-21 Throughout this text Valerie Shaw addresses two key questions What are the special satisfactions afforded by reading short stories and How are these satisfactions derived from each story's literary techniques and narrative strategies She then attempts to answer these questions by drawing on stories from different periods and countries by authors who were also great novelists like Henry James Flaubert Kafka and D H Lawrence by authors who specifically dedicated themselves to the art of the short story like Kipling Chekhov and Katherine Mansfield by contemporary practitioners like Angela Carter and Jorge Luis Borges and by unfairly neglected writers like Sarah Orne Jewett and Joel Chandler Harris

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short

Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany
