Alienation and Alterity Paul Cooke, Helen Vassallo, 2009 Discussions of French identity have frequently emphasised the importance of a highly centralised Republican model inherited from the Revolution In reality however France also has a rich heritage of diversity that has often found expression in contingent sub cultures marked by marginalisation and otherness whether social religious gendered sexual linguistic or ethnic This range of sub cultures and variety of ways of thinking the other underlines the fact that norms can only exist by the concomitant existence of difference s The essays in this collection which derive from the conference Alienation and Alterity Otherness in Modern and Contemporary Francophone Contexts held at the University of Exeter in September 2007 explore various aspects of this diversity in French and Francophone literature culture and cinema from the nineteenth to the twenty first century The contributions demonstrate that while alienation from a cultural norm and also from oneself can certainly be painful and problematic it is also a privileged position which allows the stranger to consider the world and his her relationship to it in an other way

Teaching Film Lucy Fischer, Patrice Petro, 2012-07-27 Film studies has been a part of higher education curricula in the United States almost since the development of the medium Although the study of film is dispersed across a range of academic departments programs and scholarly organizations film studies has come to be recognized as a field in its own right In an era when teaching and scholarship are increasingly interdisciplinary film studies continues to expand and thrive attracting new scholars and fresh ideas direction and research Given the dynamism of the field experienced and beginning instructors alike need resources for bringing the study of film into the classroom This volume will help instructors conceptualize contemporary film studies in pedagogical terms The first part of the volume features essays on theory and on representation including gender race and sexuality Contributors then examine the geographies of cinema and offer practical suggestions for structuring courses on national regional and transnational film Several essays focus on interdisciplinary approaches while others describe courses designed around genre film noir the musical mode animation documentary avant garde film or the formal elements of film such as sound music and mise en scene The volume closes with a section on film and media in the digital age in which contributors discuss the opportunities and challenges presented by access to resources media convergence and technological developments in the field Cinematernity Lucy Fischer, 2014-07-14 Noting that motherhood is a common metaphor for film production Lucy Fischer undertakes the first investigation of how the topic of motherhood presents itself throughout a wide range of film genres Until now discussions of maternity have focused mainly on melodramas which along with musicals and screwball comedies have traditionally been viewed as women s cinema Fischer defies gender based classifications to show how motherhood has played a fundamental role in the overall cinematic experience She argues that motherhood is often treated as a site of crisis for example the mother being blamed for the ills afflicting her offspring then shows the tendency of certain genres to specialize in representing a particular social or psychological dimension in the thematics of maternity Drawing on social history and various cultural theories Fischer first looks at Rosemary s Baby to show the prevalence of childbirth themes in horror films In crime films White Heat she sees the linkage of male deviance and mothering The Hand That Rocks the Cradle and The Guardian both occult thrillers uncover cultural anxieties about working mothers Her discussion covers burlesques of male mothering feminist documentaries on the mother daughter relationship trick films dealing with procreative metaphors and postmodern films like High Heels where fluid sexuality is the theme These films tend to treat motherhood as a locus of irredeemable conflict whereas History and Memory and High Tide propose a more sanguine dynamic and enabling view Originally published in 1996 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Films of Laura

British Genres Marcia Landy,2014-07-14 In this unprecedented survey of British cinema from the 1930s to the New Wave of the 1960s Marcia Landy explores how cinematic representation and social history converge Landy focuses on the genre film a product of British mass culture often dismissed by critics as unrealistic showing that in England such cinema subtly dramatized unresolved cultural conflicts and was in fact more popular than critics have claimed Her discussion covers hundreds of works including historical films films of empire war films melodrama comedy science fiction horror and social problem films and reveals their relation to changing attitudes toward class race national identity sexuality and gender Landy begins by describing the status and value of genre theory then provides a history of British film production that illuminates the politics and personalities connected with the major studios In vivid accounts of the films within each genre she analyzes styles codes and conventions to show how the films negotiate history fantasy and lived experience Throughout Landy creates a dynamic sense of genre and of how the genres shape not merely reflect cultural conflicts Originally published in 1991 The

In the Company of Women Karen Hollinger, The locus of Jim Dale Huot Vickery's life is a remote cabin in the northern wilderness of Minnesota's Boundary Waters region. More often than not it is winter here, a fierce beautiful season that dominates all living things with its relentless cold grip. This is the inspiration for Winter Sign, the profound story of fifteen years of surviving the seven month long odyssey of winter in the far north. We know parkas, mukluks, mittens, snowshoes, skis, and sled dogs. Huot Vickery writes, "Snow sparkles gold on cloudless winter mornings. There are shell pink sunsets. Stars glimmer among northern lights. For those of us who know this land, however, beauty is only part of the winter story. There are those long nights those we rarely speak about that surely and irrevocably shift the soul. Against this backdrop, Huot Vickery writes authoritatively on the ecology of the area and philosophically about winter's probing of the human spirit. He explores the world of nature and the constant struggle for survival, including his own interactions with white-tailed deer and wolves. Huot Vickery circles around paradoxes and themes that invade the land and his life: nature's beauty and bounty pitted against danger and death, the challenge of self-reliance and the depths of isolation, loss and restoration. And always there is the unrelenting winter filled with wonder and terror. At turns poignant and harrowing, Winter Sign explores the solitude of the dark night of the soul and the sustenance and inspiration winter's wild beauty provides. ISBN 0 8166 2969 2. Paper 15.95. 192 pages. 5 x 8. November. Translation inquiries: University of Minnesota Press.

Scotland David Martin-Jones, 2010-08-18. Scotland Global Cinema focuses on the explosion of filmmaking in Scotland in the 1990s and 2000s. It explores the various cinematic fantasies of Scotland created by contemporary filmmakers from all over the world who braved the weather to shoot in Scotland. Westerns Lee Clark Mitchell, 1998-05-08. Ranging from the novels of James Fenimore Cooper to Louis L. Amour and from classic films such as Stagecoach to spaghetti Westerns like A Fistful of Dollars, culture scholar Lee Clark Mitchell shows how Westerns as a genre helped assuage a series of crises in American culture by responding to fears and obsessions of its audience, particularly what it means to be a man. 30 photos, 5 line drawings. ReFocus: The Films of Amy Heckerling Frances Smith, 2016-02-19. ReFocus: The Films of Amy Heckerling is the first book-length study of the work of Amy Heckerling, the phenomenally popular director and screenwriter of Clueless and Fast Times at Ridgemont High.
