Shouting At The Mountain A Hong Kong Story Of Love And Commitment:

Shouting at the Mountain Elsie Tu, Andrew Tu, 2005-09-01 This is the story of a man and a woman born thousands of miles apart of different nationality culture and language who met in Hong Kong in the most unlikely of circumstances yet were destined for a life together Both had known hardship and sorrow in youth both had similar aspirations to study and dedicate their lives to the service of the underprivileged to struggle against injustice and to work for world peace The only barrier between was that one belonged to a nation of colonisers the other to the colonised Their task seemed formidable but together they succeeded in bringing about changes beyond their imagination Elsie Tu is one of Hong Kong's best known activists and writers Shouting at the Mountain completed after her husband Andrew's death in 2001 confirms her as an authentic Hong Kong voice Heartwarming HK Magazine Tu tells her story clearly and directly without recourse to ornate language or selfcongratulation South China Morning Post

A Death in Hong Kong: The MacLennan Case of 1980 and the Suppression of a Scandal (2nd Edition) Nigel Collett, 2020 In January 1980 a young police officer named John MacLennan committed suicide in his Ho Man Tin flat His death came mere hours before he was to be arrested for committing homosexual acts still at that point illegal in Hong Kong But this was more than the desperate act of a young man ashamed and afraid both his death and the subsequent investigation were a smokescreen for a scandal that went to the heart of the establishment MacLennan came to Hong Kong from Scotland during a tumultuous time in Hong Kong's history The governorship of Sir Murray MacLehose was to be a time of reform and progress but with that remit came the determination of many to suppress scandals and silence those who stirred up trouble Both the life and death of John MacLennan seemed to many of those in power to threaten the stability of one of Britain's last colonies The second edition includes a foreword by Christine Loh former undersecretary for the environment former legislator and founder of Civic Exchange as well as updated information from new interviews with key people involved in the case With endorsements from human rights researchers and the local community this book provides insight into Hong Kong during a time of social unrest and corruption scandals a time when homosexuality and paedophilia were often considered interchangeable and both offered easy targets for blackmail Collett's vivid account of the MacLennan case and its aftermath allows us to rediscover an episode that is important not only to Hong Kong gay history but to the history of law and criminal justice in a colonial context more broadly A fascinating read Dr Marco Wan Associate Professor of Law and Director of the Programme in Law and Literary Studies University of Hong Kong Nigel Collett has written a period masterpiece Christine Loh Former undersecretary for the environment former legislator and founder of Civic Exchange

Troubling American Women Stacilee Ford, 2011-03-01 American women have lived in Hong Kong and in neighboring Macao for nearly two centuries Many were changed by their encounter with Chinese life and British colonialism Their openness to new experiences set them apart while their pedagogical impulse gave them a reputation for outspokenness that troubled others Drawing on memoirs diaries newspapers films and other texts Stacilee

Ford tells the stories of several American women and explores how through dramatically changing times they communicated their notions of national identity and gender. Troubling American Women is a lively and provocative study of cross cultural encounters between the Hong Kong and the US and use of stereotypes of American womanhood in Hong Kong popular culture.
