SHOW ME THE WAY

READINGS FOR EACH DAY OF LENT

"Why O Lord, is it so hard for me to keep my heart directed toward you? Why does my mind wander off in so many directions, and why does my heart desire the things that lead me astray? Let me sense your presence in the midst of my turmoil. Take my tired body, my confused mind, and my restless soul into your arms and give me rest, simple quiet rest."

Show Me The Way Readings For Each Day Of Lent:

Show Me the Way Henri J. M. Nouwen, 2005 The longing expressed in the Psalms by those seeking God is the same as the longing of those who are on the pilgrim's road of faith today The search for the way is a recurrent theme in Henri Nouwen's writing and his books serve as road signs pointing the way to decisive commitment to deep love of God and of each other This book allows us to follow the forty day path through Lent in the company of Henri Nouwen For every day of Lent from the solemn beginning of Ash Wednesday to the joyous climax of Easter it contains a carefully selected piece from the best of his writing In Henri Nouwen we will find a reliable guide for our Lenten journey of reflection and prayer He invites us to dare once more to choose the narrow but joyful path of Jesus The Living Church, 1977 Alleluia is the Song of the Desert Lawrence D. Hart, 2004-02-25 This is no simple how to book but rather a profound challenge to consider a totally different kind of life Lawrence Hart approaches these life changes from several different angles each leading to the deep kind of knowing that is God's gift to the true seeker from the Foreword by Jean Dalby Clift For thousands of years deserts have been geographical centers of spiritual formation and direct encounter with God In Christian spirituality men and women seeking the kind of purification that leads to wisdom of the heart have sought out the desert places But the desert is also a state of mind or consciousness a spiritual practice an inner place where we come to have a first hand experience of God Designed for use by small groups or individuals the Lenten meditations in this book lead us to this interior desert The forty days of Lent are a time of metanoia repentance of emptying our hearts so that they can be filled with that love and presence of Christ we celebrate at Easter Entering Lent then can be imagined as entering the silence of a vast and empty desert that leads to an experience of alleluia What is essential in the spiritual life is of course not that we find a dry and sand blown country far from any geographical city but rather a desert place of the heart where spiritual transformation can occur Lent with its emphasis on taking spiritual inventory repentance renunciation and preparation for Easter is just such a desert In fact we can appropriately think of the forty days from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday as a Lenten desert To the Table Lisa Graham McMinn, 2015-12-29 With the growing farm to table movement and popularity of local farmers markets we are becoming more conscious of where our food originates This spirituality of eating and food helps us reflect on current realities and understand how eating forms our souls inwardly upwardly and outwardly The author offers practical guidance on what it means to eat alone or in community with more intention compassion humility and gratitude She also tells the story of food as it transitions from seed to table Sidebars contain gardening and food tips recipes and food preservation guides End of chapter questions for individual and group use are included Finding God in the Verbs Jennie Isbell, J. Brent Bill, 2015-02-10 Do you long for deeper communion with God Join Jennie Isbell and Brent Bill on this prayer journey into the deep waters of the Spirit This book offers companionship and guidance as you begin to notice consider and deepen your prayer experiences with refreshing exercises sprinkled through every chapter to offer you a fresh language for prayer

Henri Nouwen and Soul Care Wil Hernandez, 2008 In examining Henri Nouwen's approach to the ministry of soul care and spiritual formation at close range we can conclude that his holistic and integrative style is essentially drawn from his sophisticated understanding of the coinherence of spirituality with psychology ministry and theology Henri Nouwen's ministry is characterized by a ministry of integration primarily because he first of all embodied a spirituality of integration His ministry was but an overflow of his spirituality Unquestionably Nouwen ministered out of who he was as a person a person of deep integrity The author contends that Henri Nouwen's work of soul care and spiritual formation is never about techniques Neither is it about programs and curricula important as they are in ministry More importantly it is definitely not about roles even though multiple roles have been attached to his person

Tug of War Wilmer G. Villacorta, 2017-07-14 A treatment of power vulnerability and suffering in the life and ministry of mid career leaders offers a reminder of the need to rethink power The push and pull of power dynamics unless acknowledged and surrendered can impact leaders spirituality relationships character and ultimately their faithfulness in ministry To supplement countless books on leadership models techniques and motivation this book offers a counter narrative of power informed by and embedded in the message of the cross it elaborates on a humble use of power and proposes a reframing of power as seen in Christ's downward ascent and cruciform strength This book is of critical importance in the field of ministry formation local and global because it probes to the very core of our human condition illuminating one of the chief perils in lives of position and leadership the misconstrual and misuse of power a reality that can be particularly destructive in spiritual and ministry contexts The larger Christian community will also find relevance in this message as leaders of every ilk share
