Touch of Phenomenon Avis Dillon, 2011-02-08 The stories for Touch Of Phenomenon were written over many years although most of them were produced over a six month period The Little Green Pony for instance was written some 55 years ago when the author was just a teenager and although she has read and reread it many time it has never been changed The Waiting was a short story assignment while taking a two day writing seminar with William Kennedy back in the 70s That story too has not been altered The rest started with an idea of a subject and then took on a life of their own and Avis says she could hardly wait to see what happened next Each one seems to have a unique twist on an old genre The table of contents gives a brief synopsis of each story Printer Magic by the way was awarded Honorable Mention in a Writers Digest contest two years ago competing with over 2000 short stories
