They learn to condemn.

When children live with hostility,
They learn to fight.

When children live with ridicule,
They learn to be shy.

When children live with tolerance,
They learn to be patient.

When children live with encouragement,
They learn confidence.

When Children live with praise,
They learn to appreciate.

When children live with generosity,
They learn to share.

When children live with honesty and fairness,
They learn truth and justice.

When Children live with security,
They learn to have faith.

When children live with approval,
They learn to like themselves.

When children live with friendship,
They learn to find love in the world.
