Show Us The Money The Politics And Proceh Of Alternative Budgets:

Show Us the Money! Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives, Choices (Association), 1998 We all know the state takes money from the workers and gives most of it to the rich Here is a model for creating alternative budgets useful as organizing tools to create visions and movements towards different social and economic arrangements Alternative Budgets John Loxley, Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives, 2003 Alternative budgets are presented as a method of political mobilization that advances fiscally responsible government allocation of resources in this treatise on the enlightened alternatives to the neoconservative agenda of slashing social services The basics of budgeting the technical and political contexts of budgeting and the relationship between budget legislation and fiscal constraints on governments are among the issues discussed to make the more esoteric aspects of budgeting understandable A budget that emphasizes the needs of poor people women and the environment is outlined with information on how to construct alternative budgets analyze the possibilities of government funding and mobilize political activists to propose clear affordable alternatives to neoliberal government cutbacks

Universities for Sale Neil Tudiver, Canadian Association of University Teachers, 1999 In the 1990s Canadian universities experienced an aggressive campaign of corporatization Universities for Sale offers suggestions on how to resist corporatization Neil Tudiver shows how scholarly independence has in recent years been eroded to a point of crisis Left unchecked corporations play a larger and larger role in deciding which fields of study survive and which will disappear He looks at how professors defend free inquiry against the pressures of economic expediency Universities for Sale is a penetrating analysis of the ongoing issue of corporate influence on Canada s universities Progress of the World's
