

A serene sunset scene over the ocean. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, casting a long, shimmering path of light across the water. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of orange, yellow, and blue. The foreground shows the gentle waves of the ocean meeting a sandy beach, with white foam visible. The text "GOD'S PRESENCE" is overlaid in the center of the image, with "GOD'S" in a larger, semi-transparent font and "PRESENCE" in a smaller, solid white font.

A. Franklin, 2021-09-21 This book considers the work of Charles Taylor from a theological perspective specifically relating to the topic of ecclesiology It argues that Taylor and related thinkers such as John Milbank and Rowan Williams point towards an Aesthetic Ecclesiology an ecclesiology that values highly and utilizes the aesthetic in its self understanding and practice Jamie Franklin argues that Taylor's work provides an account of the breakdown in Modernity of the conceptual relationship of the immanent and the transcendent and that the work of John Milbank and radical orthodoxy give a complementary account of the secular from a more metaphysical angle Franklin also incorporates the work of Rowan Williams which provides us a way of thinking about the Church that is rooted in a material and historical legacy The central argument is that the reconnection of the transcendent and the immanent coheres with an understanding of the Church that incorporates the material reality of the sacraments the importance of artistic beauty and craftsmanship and the Church's status as historical global and eschatological Secondly the aesthetic provides the Church with a powerful apologetic beauty cannot be reduced to the presuppositions of secular materialism and so must be accounted for by recourse to transcendent categories Good Fruit: The Evidence of True Discipleship Rev.
