Shropshire A Memoir Of The English Countryside:

Hollywood in the Holy Land Nickolas Haydock, E.L. Ridsden, 2014-01-10 This collection of essays analyzes film representations of the Crusades other medieval East West encounters and the modern inheritance of encounters between orientalist fantasy and apocalyptic conspiracy From studies of the filmic representations of popular figures such as El Cid Roland Richard I and Saladin to examinations of such topics as Templar romance and the role of set design location and landscape the essays make significant contributions to our understanding of orientalist medievalism in film Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Defining Neomedievalism(s) II Karl Fugelso, 2011 The focus on neomedievalism at the 2007 International Conference on Medievalism in ever more sessions at the annual International Congress on Medieval Studies and by many recent or forthcoming publications has left little doubt that this important new area of study is here to stay and that medievalism must come to terms with it In response to an essay in Studies in Medievalism XVIII defining medievalism in relationship to neomedievalism this volume therefore begins with seven essays defining neomedievalism in relationship to medievalism Civil Society in British History Jose Harris, 2005-07-14 This book explores the many different strands in the language of civil society from the sixteenth to the twentieth centuries Through a series of case studies it investigates the applicability of the term to a wide range of historical settings The contributors show how past understandings of the term were often very different from even in some respects the exact opposite of those held today Чужое имя.
