Walter Sickert 1860-1942 was possibly the most important and influential early modern British artist. He belonged to the generation that absorbed the modernity of late nineteenth century French art into British painting and printmaking. His outstanding work as a printmaker has been largely overlooked and unexplored until now. This book and catalogue raisonné bring together for the first time the substantial body of 226 prints by Sickert along with their numerous different states, many in rare or unique impressions, and reveals the unorthodox and experimental techniques Sickert used frequently in dialogue with related paintings and drawings. Ruth Bromberg describes here the subject matter and techniques for each print in relation to Sickert's oeuvre. She also discusses the evolution of Sickert's career in printmaking, the influences on his work of Whistler and Degas, whom Sickert knew, his working procedures, and his innovative techniques and style in engraving, etching, aquatint, soft ground, etching, and lithography. She explores the varied settings of his prints, which include early London and Dieppe street scenes, seascapes in Holland, and famous views of Venice, as well as the
