The Siddur Companion Paul H. Vishny, 2005 There is an architecture to the Siddur which is truly a work of splendor It was not created by one hand nor at one time or in one place The Siddur records the Jewish People's joyous searching for God but it also records their longing for redemption even as the text frequently marks suffering and hostile surroundings This work is intended to form the background for a meaningful devotion to prayer during the week and on the major festivals It will help guide the novice through the different prayers and make these prayers more understandable and fulfilling It will also give the daily davener a sense of where these prayers came from how the rabbis developed them and even their deeper purpose and meaning

The Anointed ONE Mark Brand, 2024-09-17 Here Am I reflects the attitude of our Anointed One The words were spoken initially in Isaiah 6:8 when the Lord was looking for a messenger and Isaiah was saying Here am I Send me Those words also reflect the heart and mission of our Messiah Many of the prophets spoke about Him and He brought a message of hope for the sinner a message of mercy and forgiveness originating from our loving Heavenly Father We find our promise of the coming Anointed One from the garden of Eden through the covenants In the temple and the holidays we see things that also point us toward our Messiah He's in too many places to list here We find Him throughout the Old Testament in the stories in the text in the prophecies saying Here Am I the one foretold about It's incredible how many places in God's Word our Messiah the Anointed One shows up My prayer for you is that you are blessed through the reading May the Lord bless you and keep you Amen
