Sidhpur and Its Dawoodi Bohra Houses Zoyab A. Kadi, 2000 Sidhpur A Small Town On The Banks Of The Mystical Saraswati In Gujarat Contains A Rich Cultural Heritage Of The Bohra Style Of Architecture This Pictorial Book Takes The Reader To The Almost Forgotten Splendour Of Bygone Days The Birth and Death of a Style Zoyab A Kadi, 2019-12-02 The heritage houses of the Dawoodi Bohra Community at Najampura in Sidhpur Gujarat have been a subject of many scholarly studies and documentations over the last several decades It is clearly evident from the design of at least half a dozen structures that their builders were familiar with the contemporary European architectural trends at the beginning of the twentieth century What is delightful about this development is that it occurred in a shy remote place like Sidhpur far away from any global exposure and with no history of being a hub of trade or commerce What is to be commemorated are not these fountainhead European style buildings but their contribution in launching an absolutely unique vernacular language The local craftsmen to their supreme credit took inspiration from these models but never really imitated them Outlook Traveller ,2008-03 Creating Medieval Cairo Paula Sanders, 2008 In many areas it breaks new ground asks new questions and gives a far more sophisticated nuanced presentation of preservation and conservation issues for Egypt than I have seen elsewhere C overs familiar territory in a totally new manner Jere Bacharach University of Washington This book argues that the historic city we know as Medieval Cairo was created in the nineteenth century by both Egyptians and Europeans against a background of four overlapping political and cultural contexts namely the local Egyptian Anglo Egyptian Anglo Indian and Ottoman imperial milieux Addressing the interrelated topics of empire local history religion and transnational heritage historian Paula Sanders shows how Cairo s architectural heritage became canonized in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The book also explains why and how the city assumed its characteristically Mamluk appearance and situates the activities of the European dominated architectural preservation committee known as the Comit within the history of religious life in nineteenth century Cairo Sanders explores such varied topics as the British experience in India the Egyptian debate over religious reform and the influence of The Thousand and One Nights on European notions of the medieval Arab city Offering fresh perspectives and keen historical analysis this volume examines the unacknowledged colonial legacy that continues to inform the practice of and debates over preservation in Cairo Conservation of Architectural Heritage (CAH) Antonella Versaci, Claudia Cennamo, Natsuko Akagawa, 2022-04-27 This book discusses the fundamentals and practical applications of heritage conservation as an important tool of a city s development It presents case studies that demonstrate how to achieve a balance between the promotion of tourism industry and the generation of income while also seeking optimum sustainable methods for Conserving the City s Tradition and Identity The book in hand offers useful insights to a wide array of audience aware of the need to preserve the architectural beauty of cities such as architects policymakers investors and even the wide public who is interested in ways of conserving and protecting cultural sites 4th Edition of
