Minerals Yearbook ,2002 Minerals Yearbook, 2004, V. 3, Area Reports, International, Africa and the Middle East ,2006 Transitional Justice, Peace and Accountability Jessica Lincoln,2011-03-18 The book looks at the outreach and communication strategies employed by internationalised courts to try to understand the wider impact of international justice This book critically examines the role of outreach within international justice focusing specifically on the role of outreach at the Special Court for Sierra Leone SCSL It contributes to understanding of the relationship between international courts and the affected populations an area currently underexplored and little understood The assumption that justice brings peace underpins much of the thinking and indeed action of international justice yet little is known if this is actually the case Significant questions surrounding the link between peace and justice remain do trials deter would be war criminals is justice possible for the most heinous crimes can international justice replace local justice This book explores these questions in relation to recent developments in international justice that have both informed and shaped the creation of the hybrid tribunal in Sierra Leone Through empirical analysis Transitional Justice Peace and Accountability answers these questions and provides an insight into individual and community perceptions of international justice This book will be of much interest to students of transitional justice war crimes peace and conflict studies human rights international law and IR in general

Children, Education and Empire in Early Sierra Leone Katrina Keefer,2018-06-27 Nineteenth century Sierra Leone presented a unique situation historically as the focal point of early abolitionist efforts settlement within West Africa by westernized Africans and a rapid demographic increase through the judicial emancipation of Liberated Africans Within this complex and often volatile environment the voices and experiences of children have been difficult to trace and to follow Enslaved children historically are a challenging narrative to highlight due to their comparative vulnerability This book offers newly transcribed data and fills in a lacuna in the scholarship of early Sierra Leone and the Atlantic world It presents a narrative of children as they experienced a set of circumstances which were unique and important to abolitionist historiography and demonstrates how each element of that situation arose by analyzing the rich documentary evidence By presenting the data as well as the individuals whose lives were affected by the mission schools both as teacher or pupil this study has sought to be as complete as possible Underlying the more academic tone is a recognition of the individual humanity of both teachers and students whose lives together shaped this early phase in the history of Sierra Leone The missionaries who created the documents from which this study arises all died in Sierra Leone after having profound impacts on the lives of many hundreds of pupils Their students went on to become important historical figures both locally and throughout West Africa Not all rose to prominence and the book reconstructs the lives of pupils who became local tradespeople in addition to those who had a greater social stature This book attempts to offer analysis without forgetting the fundamental human trajectories which this material encompasses Publications List ,1993 Depersonalization Mauricio

Sierra,2009-08-13 Depersonalization is a dissociative disorder causing alteration in the perception or experience of the self and a detachment from reality This is a fascinating and clinically relevant phenomenon neglected within psychiatry Far from being a rare condition it can be as prevalent as schizophrenia or bipolar disorder and frequently occurs in association with other neuropsychiatric conditions This book is a review of depersonalization dealing with the subject from a wide range of perspectives and covering historical conceptual clinical trans cultural pharmacological and neurobiological factors It discusses recent neuroimaging studies providing fresh insights into the condition and opening up new opportunities to manage the symptoms with pharmacologic and psychotherapeutic interventions It will be relevant to psychiatrists and clinical psychologists as well as primary care practitioners neurologists and psychiatric nurses Promoting Sustainable

Hybrid and Internationalised Criminal Tribunals Sarah Williams,2012-04-02 In recent years a number of criminal tribunals have been established to investigate prosecute and try individuals accused of serious violations of international humanitarian law and international human rights law These tribunals have been described as hybrid or internationalised tribunals as their structure and applicable law consist of both international and national elements Six such tribunals are currently in operation the Special Court for Sierra Leone the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia the International Judges and Prosecutors Programme in Kosovo the War Crimes Chamber for Bosnia and Herzegovina the Iraqi High Tribunal and the

Special Tribunal for Lebanon The Special Panels for Serious Crimes in East Timor suspended operation in May 2005 although there continues to be some international involvement in investigation and prosecution of serious crimes Suggestions have also been made that this model of tribunal would be appropriate for the prosecution of atrocities committed in among others Burundi the Sudan the Democratic Republic of Congo Kenya and Liberia as well as for a wider range of international crimes most recently piracy The key aims of this book are to place the model of hybrid and internationalised tribunals in the context of other mechanisms to try international crimes to examine the increasing demand for the establishment of hybrid and internationalised judicial institutions and the factors driving such demand to define the category of hybrid and internationalised tribunals by examining the key features of the existing and proposed hybrid or internationalised tribunals as well as the features of those institutions with international elements that are generally excluded from this category to determine the legal and jurisdictional bases of existing hybrid and internationalised tribunals to analyse how the legal and jurisdictional basis of a tribunal affects other issues such as the applicable law the application of amnesties and immunities and the relationship of the tribunal with the host state third states national courts and other international criminal tribunals The book concentrates on the definitional legal and jurisdictional aspects of hybrid and internationalised criminal tribunals as this has been the subject of some confusion in arguments before the tribunals and in the judgments of the tribunals In its concluding section the book examines the future role of internationalised and hybrid criminal tribunals particularly in light of the establishment of the ICC and the potential use of such tribunals in other contexts It also assesses how hybrid and internationalised tribunals fit into a multi layered framework of international criminal law and transitional justice

Peacebuilding Legacy Sukanya Podder, 2022-08-08 A fundamental challenge plagues the global peacebuilding community How can technocratic approaches to peacebuilding that are rooted in short term project based execution of activities further the longer term transformative outcomes like altering young people s attitudes and beliefs about peace and violence In response to this global challenge in Peacebuilding Legacy Sukanya Podder analyzes the long term effects of peacebuilding programmes involving children and young people Podder unpacks the concept of peacebuilding legacy through the lens of time transformation and intergenerational peace Podder also develops unique qualitative cues for measuring legacy in terms of the institutional normative and organizational logics If norms resonate strongly with the local context they are likely to encourage strong retention and meaningful adoption over time Successful institutionalization of project models through planned handover to successor national organizations or government departments holds the key to stronger local ownership Organizational learning and reflection can support this process through a more strategic approach to programming and through post exit studies Regarding attitude change Podder found that the media and peace education projects that targeted individuals ingrained beliefs and values but overlooked the role of group social norms had only limited persuasive effects To shift the values practices norms and beliefs of the younger generation the mindset of the older generation must also be targeted Changes in the legal political economic and other social institutions are critical for long term and meaningful transformation This requires adopting an ecological model of peace We the Young Fighters Marc Sommers,2023-10-01 We the Young Fighters is at once a history of a nation the story of a war and the saga of downtrodden young people and three pop culture superstars Reggae idol Bob Marley rap legend Tupac Shakur and the John Rambo movie character all portrayed an upside down world where those in the right are blamed while the powerful attack them Their collective example found fertile ground in the West African nation of Sierra Leone where youth were entrapped inequality was blatant and dissent was impossible When warfare spotlighting diamonds marijuana and extreme terror began in 1991 military leaders exploited the trio s transcendent power over their young fighters and captives Once the war expired youth again turned to Marley for inspiration and Tupac for friendship Thoroughly researched and accessibly written We the Young Fighters probes terror based warfare and how Tupac Rambo and especially Bob Marley wove their way into the fabric of alienation resistance and hope in Sierra Leone The tale of pop culture heroes radicalizing warfare and shaping peacetime underscores the need to engage with alienated youth and reform predatory governments The book ends with a framework for customizing the international response to these twin challenges Research and Development in Intelligent Systems XXIV Max Bramer,Frans Coenen,Miltos Petridis,2007-12-03 An agent in a multi agent system MAS has to generate plans for its individual goal but these plans may conflict with those that are already being scheduled or executed by other agents It must also be able to complete its planning and resolution of these conflicts within a reasonable time to have an acceptable quality plan Although we adopt hierarchical planning HP for example see 7 12 using the decision theoretic planning DTP approach 6 for efficient planning it is not trivial to apply HPO to MAS In HP appropriate abstract plans are selected level by level to maximize the utility U_p where p is the expected plan comprising a sequence of primitive actions However in the MAS context conflicts between agents affect the efficiency and quality of resulting plans When a conflict is found at lower levels an additional sophisticated process for avoiding it conflict resolution must be invoked and some extra actions such as waiting for synchronization and detouring may have to be added to the plan The conflict resolution process may become costly or fail Even a single conflict if it is difficult to resolve will result in a plan with considerably lower quality than it otherwise would have As a result in multi agent systems the second or third best plans may result in better overall performance Late Cenozoic Structure and Evolution of the Great Basin-Sierra Nevada Transition John S. Oldow,Patricia Hughes Cashman,2009 Post-War Regimes and State Reconstruction in Liberia and Sierra Leone Amadu Sesay,Charles Ukeje,2009 This original study by some of West Africa s leading scholars interrogates post war reconstruction processes in the twin West African countries of Liberia and Sierra Leone focusing on the effects of regime types on the nature scope success or failure of their post war reconstruction efforts Sierra National Forest (N.F.), Travel Management ,2010 The Oxford Handbook of Women and the Economy Susan Averett,Laura M. [VNV] Argys,Saul

D. Hoffman, 2018 This collection of essays reviews the key trends surveys the relevant economic theory and summarizes and critiques the empirical research literature By providing a view of what we know what we do not know and what the critical unanswered questions are this Handbook provides an examination of the many changes that have occurred in women's economic lives

Security, Reconstruction, and Reconciliation Muna Ndulo, 2007-01-24 This key text brings together a team of leading contributors to address the complex issues of security reconciliation and reconstruction in post conflict societies Security Reconstruction and Reconciliation is organized into four main sections the social political and economic dimensions of conflict the impact of conflict on women and children reconstruction and past human rights violations disarmament demobilization reintegration post war reconstruction and the building of a capable state and the role of the international community in the peace process The chapters offer a detailed and succinct exposition of the challenges facing post conflict societies by articulating the vision of a new society With a foreword by Francis Deng the UN Secretary General's Special Representative on Internally Displaced Persons the authors discuss the issues in the context of possible solutions and lessons learnt in the field This new book is a valuable resource for researchers policy makers and students in the fields of conflict resolution security studies law and development
