Textile Recorder ,1919 Textile Manufacturer ,1894 The Heretic of Cacheu Toby Green,2025-10-06 Tells the extraordinary story of seventeenth century West African slave trader Crispina Peres to explore the shifting sophisticated world in which she lived In 1665 Crispina Peres the most powerful trader in the West African slave trafficking port of Cacheu was arrested by the Portuguese Inquisition Her enemies had conspired to denounce her for taking treatments prescribed by Senegambian healers the djabak s But who was Peres And why was the Inquisition so concerned with policing the faith of a West African woman in today s Guinea Bissau In The Heretic of Cacheu award winning historian Toby Green takes us to the heart of this conundrum immersing us in the atmosphere of an otherwise distant setting We learn how people in seventeenth century Cacheu built their houses styled their clothes healed themselves from illness and worshipped worked and played Green renders the haunting realities of the growing slave trade and the rise of European empires in shocking detail By the 1650s the relationships between Europe West Africa and the Americas were already old and tangled with slaving ports colonies and military bases having intermingled over many generations But Cacheu also profoundly troubled this dynamic It was globally connected to places ranging from China and India to Brazil and Colombia and women such as Crispina Peres ran the town and challenged the patriarchy of empire For the first time through surviving documents recording Peres s case The Heretic of Cacheu lets readers experience the reality of this unique place and time through a remarkable act of historical recovery

Textiles and Clothing Mohd Shabbir,2019-07-16 This timely and important book aims to help achieve a more sustainable textile industry researchers from both textile and environmental domains will benefit from reading it Since it is imperative to rehabilitate our damaged environmental ecosystems there is a pressing demand for more sustainable green processes in the textile and clothing industry As a consequence greater emphasis needs to be placed on research into eco friendly processes particularly suited for this industry With this goal in mind all environmental aspects relating to the textile and clothing industry are discussed in this book in four broad areas Highlights the negative impact on the environment by textile industries Discusses textiles finishing by natural or eco friendly means Promotes natural dyes as environment friendly alternatives to synthetics Reviews textile effluents remediation via chemical physical and bioremediation Included in the 11 informative chapters are topics covering the correlation between the environment and the processing and utilization of textiles and clothing The book opens with a discussion on the direct impact that the textile industry has on the environment The hazardous environmental consequences that synthetic dyes used to color textiles have on the environment are highlighted in the next chapter Greener alternatives to dyeing are discussed in detail in the next chapters followed by a discussion of eco friendly ways of finishing textiles The book concludes with a section of chapters providing solutions to address the environmental hazards associated with the textile industry

International Review of Cotton and Allied Textile Industries ,1925 A Woven Life Jenny Housego,Maya Mirchandani,2020-04-27 Richly layered and remarkably candid this is anything but an ordinary memoir Life writing at its truthful and unapologetic best here is a story of a textile historian entrepreneur and collector with an eventful and adventurous life story As a child in countryside England Jenny had thought she would grow up to be a spy but life had other plans Brought to the world of Asian textiles art and museums she has over the last five decades travelled across Asia with a passion to document traditional local and nomadic weaves and handcrafted textiles She lays bare her idyllic childhood in the aftermath of the Second World War her aspirations of being in the arts and then as a researcher at the Victoria and Albert museum in London the struggles of falling in and out of love and a broken marriage of parenting and her passion for Indian textiles having established herself as one of the most successful British entrepreneurs working in India who co founded the luxury brands shades of India and kashmir loom In-Between Textiles, 1400-1800 Beatriz Marín-Aguilera,Stefan Hanß,2025-10-01 In Between Textiles is a decentred study of how textiles shaped disrupted and transformed subjectivities in the age of the first globalisation The volume presents a radically cross disciplinary approach that brings together world leading anthropologists archaeologists art historians conservators curators historians scientists and weavers to reflect on the power of textiles to reshape increasingly contested identities on a global scale between 1400 and 1800 Contributors posit the concept of in between textiles building upon Homi Bhabha s notion of in betweenness as the actual material ground of the negotiation of cultural practices and meanings a site identified as the battleground over strategies of selfhood and the production of identity signs troubled by colonialism and consumerism across the world In Between Textiles establishes cutting edge conversations between textile studies critical cultural theory and material culture studies to examine how textiles created and challenged experiences of subjectivity relatedness and dis location that transformed social fabrics around the globe
