Sierra Triumph:

Sierra Triumph Dana Fuller Ross, 1992 Heading west after a fight with his folks seventeen year old Frank Blake the great grandson of frontiersman Whip Holt finds adventure and danger while back in the city his cousin Tim Holt meddles with a feisty suffragette Westerns Livestock Catalog, 1968 The Guarijos of the Sierra Madre David Yetman, 2002 David Yetman's first foray into Mexico occurred in 1961 where he developed a lifelong fascination of and appreciation for the countryside and the people who lived in it In southern Sonora the author explored the environs surrounding the town of Alamos located in a tropical deciduous forest Thirty years after that first journey and after the author's continued explorations of Mexico Yetman launched a mini expedition of sorts back to Alamos searching for the Guarijos as a reclusive people in a reclusive land thought to be extinct until 1930 Yetman takes the reader on an engaging journey into Guarijo territory incorporating interviews and his own observations into the story he unveils about their history their struggle for land during the latter decades of the twentieth century and the ways in which they live A strong undercurrent of natural history infuses the writing as the author skillfully weaves his own interest in ethnobotany into the shared interests of his hosts developing a picture of their lifeways through their uses of plants that might otherwise go unnoticed and also through the natural environment in which they have survived for generations The Guarijos of the Sierra Madre is an enduring work that seeks to understand human relationships to land to larger dominant societies and to each other through the eyes of a people who have maintained their cultural identity in the face of immense change Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Rebel Lands of Cuba Joanna Swanger,2015-05-06 The book is a comparative history of twentieth century Cuban campesinos in two regions in Cuba marked by extreme differences in race gender and land tenure Oriente and Escambray It explores the ways these differences articulated with state formation from the pre revolutionary period of 1934 1959 and then 1959 1974 and seeks to explain why campesinos in Escambray having been active in the insurrection against Batista later turned to stage a massive counter revolution against the government headed by Fidel Castro Although campesinos in both regions had been equally ignored by pre 1959 governments for different reasons they developed two distinct understandings of what the role of the state should be in response to political neglect Rich archival sources many of which have not been accessed previously document the unique shape of land struggles in each region in the 1930s through the 1950s The author argues that because of the way race and gender and a collectivist land tenure tradition in Oriente mapped nicely onto the goals of the 1959 Revolution Oriente became a kind of revolutionary showcase In Escambray on the other hand a construct of white masculinity tied to private property ownership directly contravened the goals of the Revolution which fueled the counter revolution and also led to brutal state repression in the area      Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke,2002-01-01
