Sift In An Hourglass:

Soft Sift in an Hourglass Rosalie Shaw,2009 Rosalie Shaw grew up on a farm in rural Victoria Australia and was a teacher and then a nurse before she became a doctor Inspired by the work of Dame Cicely Saunders she decided to do palliative care and went on to set up one of the first palliative care units in Australia at Hollywood Hospital in Perth In 1992 she was invited to come to Singapore to help establish the home care service of the Hospice Care Association She originally intended to stay for just a year but to the great good fortune of Singapore and many thousands of patients and families she chose to stay This collection of stories tells of her experiences They are distilled from countless hours days and often nights spent caring for people and families who were living with dying Her words speak not just of pain loss and conflict but also of courage dignity love and hope Unflinching in their honesty they bear witness to the struggles and triumphs of those facing the end of life and allow the reader a rare glimpse into their lives through the eyes of a hospice pioneer Publisher description

Sift in an Hourglass Ralph Gustafson, 1966 Struggling for Wings Robert Kirschten, 1997 Struggling for Wings is a diverse collection of reviews interviews and essays on the controversial career of James Dickey a writer whose work has engendered commentary ranging from high praise to scathing personal attack Never before collected the materials in this volume record America's critical response to Dickey beginning in the early 1960s when he first began publishing poetry and continuing through the mid 1990s with comprehensive overviews of Dickey's entire canon A Queer Chivalry Julia F. Saville, 2000 Others decry his monasticism as the regrettably oppressive regimen from which he was able to escape only occasionally through his sensuous sometimes overtly homoerotic verse Julia F Saville uses Lacanian theories of sublimation and courtly love to reconfigure this long standing rift in the field of Hopkins criticism BOOK JACKET The Contemplative Poetry of Gerard Manley Hopkins Maria R. Lichtmann, 2014-07-14 In 1989 the centenary of his death Gerard Manley Hopkins continues to provoke fundamental questions among scholars what major poetic strategy informs his work and how did his reflections on the nature of poetry affect his writing While form meant a great deal to Hopkins it was never mere form Maria Lichtmann demonstrates that the poet a student of Scripture all his life adopted Scripture's predominant form parallelism as his own major poetic strategy Hopkins saw that parallelism struck deep into the heart and soul tapping into unconscious rhythms and bringing about a healing response that he identified as contemplation Parallelism was to him the perfect statement of the integrity of outward form and inner meaning Other critics have seen the parallelism in Hopkins s poems only on the auditory level of alliterations and assonances Lichtmann however builds on the views held by Hopkins himself who spoke of a parallelism of words and of thought engendered by the parallelism of sound She distinguishes the integrating Parmenidean parallelisms of resemblance from the disintegrating Heraclitean parallelisms of antithesis The tension between Parmenidean unity and Heraclitean variety is resolved only in the wordless communion of contemplation This emphasis on contemplation offers a corrective to the overly emphasized Ignatian interpretation of Hopkins's poetry as meditative poetry. The book also makes clear that Hopkins's preference for contemplation sharply differentiates him from his Romantic predecessors as well as from the structuralists who now claim him Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its Eco-Anxiety Heather White, 2024-10-22 The climate crisis and its resulting eco anxiety is the biggest challenge of our time The anxiety that comes with worrying about how environmental harm will impact our and our children s lives can be overwhelming Learn how to balance practicing daily sustainability actions while caring for your own eco anxiety in this revolutionary book from noted environmentalist Heather White In Eco Anxiety White shows you how to contribute to the climate movement through self discovery and self care Utilizing the Service Superpower Profile Assessment included in the text you ll discover how your personality interests and strengths can be of service to others and the planet This book will serve as your guide to Begin a 21 Day Kickstarter Plan that shares specific sustainable actions you can take Track your progress with journal prompts and exercises that ll help you measure mental health benefits Listen and talk with loved ones about their climate anxiety Commit to being an eco aware individual and inspire your family friends and community to work toward a regenerative sustainable world Setting the intention each day to take a small step to care for the planet can help ease your eco anxiety push the culture toward climate solutions and create a sense of joy One Green Thing Victorian Literature Victor Shea, William Whitla, 2014-12-31 Victorian Literature is a comprehensive and fully annotated anthology with a flexible design that allows teachers and students to pursue traditional or innovative lines of inquiry from the canon to its extensions and its contexts Represents the period s major writers of prose poetry drama and more including Tennyson Arnold the Brownings Carlyle Ruskin the Rossettis Wilde Eliot and the Bront s Promotes an ideologically and culturally varied view of Victorian society with the inclusion of women working class colonial and gay and lesbian writers Incorporates recent scholarship with 5 contextual sections and innovative sub sections on topics like environmentalism and animal rights mass literacy and mass media sex and sexuality melodrama and comedy the Irish question ruling India and the Indian Mutiny and innovations in print culture Emphasizes the interdisciplinary nature of the field with a focus on social cultural artistic and historical factors Includes a fully annotated companion website for teachers and students offering expanded context sections additional readings from key writers appendices and an extensive bibliography Neurobehavior of Language and Cognition Martin L. Albert, Lisa Tabor Connor, Loraine K. Poetry and the Thought of Song in Nineteenth-Century Britain Elizabeth K. Helsinger, 2015-09-09 In arguing for the crucial importance of song for poets in the long nineteenth century Elizabeth Helsinger focuses on both the effects of song on lyric forms and the mythopoetics through which poets explored the affinities of poetry with song Looking in particular at individual poets and poems Helsinger puts extensive close readings into productive conversation with nineteenth century German philosophic and British scientific aesthetics While she considers poets long described as musical Alfred Lord Tennyson Gerard Manly Hopkins Emily Bront and Algernon Charles Swinburne Helsinger also examines the more surprising importance of song for those poets who rethought poetry through the medium of visual art Dante Gabriel Rossetti William Morris and Christina Rossetti In imitating song s forms and sound textures through lyric s rhythm rhyme and repetition these poets were pursuing song s thought in a double sense They not only asked readers to think of particular kinds of song as musical sound in social performance ballads national airs political songs plainchant but also invited readers to think like song to listen to the sounds of a poem as it moves minds in a different way from philosophy or science By attending to the formal practices of these poets the music to which the poets were listening and the stories and myths out of which each forged a poetics that aspired to the condition of music Helsinger suggests new ways to think about the nature and form of the lyric in the nineteenth century Gerard Manley Hopkins Leo Martin van Noppen, 1980 Hopkins and Heidegger Brian Willems, 2011-10-27 Hopkins and Heidegger is a new exploration of Gerard Manley Hopkins poetics through the work of Martin Heidegger More radically Brian Willems argues that the work of Hopkins does no less than propose solutions to a number of hitherto unresolved questions regarding Heidegger's later writings vitalizing the concepts of both writers beyond their local contexts Willems examines a number of cross sections between the poetry and thought of Hopkins and the philosophy of Heidegger While neither writer ever directly addressed the other's work Hopkins died the year Heidegger was born 1899 and Heidegger never turns his thoughts on poetry to the Victorians a number of similarities between the two have been noted but never fleshed out Willems readings of these cross sections are centred on Hopkins concepts of inscape and instress and around Heidegger's reading of both appropriation Ereignis and the fourfold das Geviert This study will be of interest to scholars and postgraduates in both Victorian literature and Continental philosophy

Poetics of Place Dermot McCarthy, 1991 Ralph Gustafson's personal growth as a poet during a career which spans more than half a century in many ways reflects the development of modern Canadian poetry as a whole A Poetics of Place provides the only available examination of the career of this pre eminent Canadian poet as well as insightful new readings of almost all Neurobehavior of Language and Cognition Lisa Tabor Connor, Loraine K. Obler, 2007-05-08 This volume has been composed as an appreciation of Martin L Albert in the year of his 60th birthday At least one contributor to each paper in this volume has been touched by Marty in some way lie has mentored some been a fellow student with some and been a colleague to most These contributors as well as many others view Marty as a gifted scientist and a wonderful human being The breadth of his interests and intellectual pursuits is truly impressive this breadth is reflected only in part by the diversity of the papers in this volume His interests have ranged from psychopharmacology to cross cultural understanding of dementia through the aphasias to the history of the fields that touch on behavioral neurology especially neurology per se cognitive psychology speech language pathology and linguistics Throughout his scholarly work Martha Taylor Sarno notes Marty never loses the human perspective e g the powerfully disabling effect on the individual person with aphasia or other neurological disorder For those readers who only how a portion of his work we thought that we should describe him here Many of the people whom Marty has influenced have been able to contribute to this volume We have invited some others who were unable to contribute to express their appreciation for him as well Poems of Gerard Manley Hopkins Robert Bridges, 2020-07-17 Reproduction of the original Poems of Gerard Manley Hopkins by Robert Bridges Victorian Poetry: An Anthology Erik Gray, Veronica Alfano, 2025-04-23 The first new anthology of its kind in twenty years Victorian Poetry provides generous selections of poetry both by well known Victorian poets Alfred Tennyson Robert Browning Christina Rossetti and by writers who have received less critical attention Constance Naden Toru Dutt Grace Aquilar Detailed annotations substantial biographies and an introduction outlining major literary and historical trends of the Victorian period ensure that the anthology will be useful both for specialists and for students encountering these poems for the first time A companion website features additional poetry selections of critical prose and four appendices that group together poems related by genre geography or subject After Babel George Steiner, 2013-04-16 A brilliant work A dazzling meditation on the very nature of language itself from the world renowned scholar and author of The Poetry of Thought Kirkus Reviews In his classic work literary critic and scholar George Steiner tackles what he considers the Babel problem Why over the course of history have humans developed thousands of different languages when the social material and economic advantages of a single tongue are obvious Steiner argues that different cultures desires for privacy and exclusivity led to each developing its own language Translation he believes is at the very heart of human communication and thus at the heart of human nature From our everyday perception of the world around us to creativity and the uninhibited imagination to the often inexplicable poignancy of poetry we are constantly translating even from our native language Telling the Time in British Literature, 1675-1830 Marcus Tomalin, 2020-03-27 Although the broad topic of time and literature in the long eighteenth century has received focused attention from successive generations of literary critics this book adopts a radically new approach to the subject Taking inspiration from recent revisionist accounts of the horological practices of the age as well as current trends in ecocriticism historical prosody sensory history social history and new materialism it offers a pioneering investigation of themes that have never previously received sustained critical scrutiny Specifically it explores how the essayists poets playwrights and novelists of the period meditated deeply upon the physical form social functions and philosophical implications of particular time telling objects Consequently each chapter considers a different device mechanical watches pendulums sandglasses sundials flowers and bells and the literary responses of significant figures such as Alexander Pope Anne Steele William Wordsworth Samuel Taylor Coleridge Charlotte Smith and William Hazlitt are carefully examined Resources of Language & Imagery in the 'The Wreck of the Deutschland' Norman H.
