Loss A Novella Two Stories:

Too Many Losing Heroines! (Light Novel) Vol. 2 Takibi Amamori, Imigimuru, 2024-10-17 Yakishio Lemon hasn't given up on love just yet. Even though her crush can't seem to take his eyes off the winning heroine Asagumo Chihaya, there's still time for Lemon to catch up from behind. But even if she does manage to catch the object of her affection, alone can she really muster up the courage to confess? Are we about to see a Losing Heroine stand atop the podium, having finally snatched victory from the jaws of defeat?

No Love Lost: A Small-Town Second Chance Romantic Suspense Novel Jemi Fraser, 2024-08-20 He didn't even know what he'd lost. Heath Wilcox followed the family footsteps into the military and then into a financial career. Unlike his family, his goal isn't just to make money; it's to find someone to make a life and a home with. But the woman he wanted didn't want him back. Then he arrives in a town named Phail to find that absolutely nothing he believed is true. Now he has to do everything to protect the family he never knew he had. No Love Lost is the fourth book in Jemi Fraser's No Fail Heroes romantic suspense series. Each of these small-town romances can be read as a stand-alone, although they are best enjoyed in order. The book contains some strong language and sexy times. Enjoy the read.

All Stories Are True Tracie Church Guzzio, 2011-05-17 In All Stories Are True, Tracie Church Guzzio provides the first full-length study of John Edgar Wideman's entire oeuvre to date. Specifically, Guzzio examines the ways in which Wideman, by 1941, engages with three crucial themes: history, myth, and trauma throughout his career, showing how they intertwine. Guzzio argues that for four decades the influential African American writer has endeavored to create a version of the African American experience that runs counter to mainstream interpretations, using history and myth to confront and then heal the trauma caused by slavery and racism. Wideman's work intentionally blurs boundaries between fiction and autobiography, myth and history, particularly as that history relates to African American experience in his hometown of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The fusion of fiction, national history, and Wideman's personal life is characteristic of his style, which, due to its complexity and smudging of genre distinctions, has presented analytic difficulties for literary scholars. Despite winning the PEN Faulkner award twice for Sent for You Yesterday (1984) and Philadelphia Fire (1990), Wideman remains understudied. Of particular value is Guzzio's analysis of the many ways in which Wideman alludes to his previous works. This intertextuality allows Wideman to engage his books in direct intentional dialogue with each other through repeated characters, images, folktales, and songs. In Wideman's challenging of a monolithic view of history and presenting alternative perspectives to it, and his allowing past, present, and future time to remain fluid in the narratives, Guzzio finds an author firm in his notion that all stories and all perspectives have merit.

The Chilean Dictatorship Novel Helene Carol Weldt-Basson, 2025-11-04 A survey of classic literature from Chile, born of the repressive Pinochet dictatorship in the seventies. Though the civil rights abuses by the Pinochet dictatorship in Chile (1973-1990) were later recognized by reparations and truth commissions, the difficult emotions suffered by the victims and their families were often pushed into the background or out of the national conversation.

entirely In response novelists began writing the feelings experienced during the dictatorship into their books In The Chilean Dictatorship Novel Weldt Basson examines fifteen novels and one testimony written on the topic of dictatorship to illustrate how these Chilean narratives center on affect and emotions Each chapter focuses on a different emotion feelings of loss because of a father s abandonment and spatial injustice caused by the neoliberal urbanization of Santiago despair articulated through tragic romances and affective landscapes left wing nostalgia and melancholia communicated through allegory feelings of abjection caused by torture and betrayal and the creation of affect through violent events aggressive child play and sexual torture Through a close look at the work of Jos Donoso Ariel Dorfman Diamela Eltit Carlos Franz and Nona Fern ndez among others Weldt Basson effectively argues that by inspiring emotion and creating empathy within readers the authors of these books instill a drive in the readers for ongoing social justice advocacy thereby transforming the process of reading into a platform for future action Weldt Basson s landmark study will serve as a basis for the future study of Latin American literature for decades to come

Two Wrongs Never Make It Right! William N. Rappa, Jr., 2013-11 Two Wrongs Never Make It Right Is the second novel of William N Rappa Jr The story continues the saga of the Russell family of Lynn Massachusetts which was the focus of this author s first novel Doing It Wrong JT Russell now the patriarch of the Russell family continues his odyssey through life living and learning the meaning difficulty and importance of relationships to the human animal Russell s goals appear simplistic as he endeavors to utilize his past mistakes to prevent their future occurrences However the nature of relationships in every aspect of one s life illustrates the difficulty in successfully negotiating this basic function of human interaction Within the pages of this novel JT Russell finds himself intimately involved in the murders of a vicious serial killer he suffers through the losses of his once ideal marriage his twin children friends who are seem irreplaceable and family situations that lead him dangerously close to an emotional collapse Russell completely accepts the proposition that the success or failure of any individual lies within him or herself Russell believes that his decisions choices actions beliefs and practices are the dominion of him and him alone Never learning from past mistakes not altering a losing game not admitting and accepting ownership of one s actions is a certain way to repeat the errors of the past Two Wrongs Never Make It Right is the second novel of the Doing It Wrong series

Catalogue of Books in English, French and German Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County, 1876 Doing Family in Second-Generation British Migration Literature Corinna Assmann, 2018-09-24 Due to the large scale global transformations of the 20th century migration literature has become a vibrant genre over the last decades In these novels issues of transcultural identity and belonging naturally feature prominently This study takes a closer look at the ways in which the idea of family informs processes of identity construction It explores changing roles and meanings of the diasporic family as well as intergenerational family relations in a migration setting in order to identify the specific challenges problems and possibilities that arise in this context This book builds on insights from different fields of family research e g sociology psychology communication studies memory studies to provide a conceptual framework for the investigation of synchronic and diachronic family constellations and connections The approach developed in this study not only sheds new light on contemporary British migration literature but can also prove fruitful for analyses of families in literature more generally By highlighting the relevance and multifaceted nature of doing family this study also offers new perspectives for transcultural memory studies H.G.Wells and the Modern Novel J. Politics Lynn A. Higgins, 1998-03-01 Until now writings on the celebrated movements in literature and film that emerged in France in the mid 1950s the New Novel and New Wave have concentrated on their formal innovations not on their engagement with history or politics New Novel New Wave New Politics overturns this traditional approach Lynn A Higgins argues that the New Novelists e g Alain Robbe Grillet Claude Simon Marguerite Duras and New Wave filmmakers e g Claude Chabrol Francois Truffaut Jean Luc Godard Alain Resnais engage in a kind of historiography They enact the conflicts the double binds of postwar history and representation Higgins claims that what art historian Serge Guilbaut has said of American Abstract Expressionism is equally true of the New Novel and New Wave that its aesthetic innovations provided a way for avant garde artists to preserve their sense of social commitment while eschewing the art of propaganda and illustration It was in a sense a political apoliticism Higgins shows how the New Novel and New Wave are related developments While their individual styles and themes remain distinctive she writes they share an ecriture that can be described as alternately or interconnectedly filmic and novelistic New Wave filmmakers borrowed novelistic devices and made frequent literary allusions while the vision of the novelists is distinctly cinematic A lively account that takes us to the crossroads where culture and politics meet New Novel New Wave New Politics dramatically revises our view of a whole generation of important influential artists Fitzgerald and the War Between the Sexes Scott Donaldson, 2022-11-01

 Written by the preeminent Fitzgerald biographer and literary critic Scott Donaldson this book presents a fresh insightful exploration of the war between the sexes in F Scott Fitzgerald's fictional and autobiographical writings The volume opens with a close reading of Tender Is the Night in which Donaldson argues that the key theme of the novel is warfare the struggle between the sexes for dominance in a marriage or relationship Other essays expand on this theme examining Fitzgerald's assessment of love and the American dream in The Great Gatsby Zelda Fitzgerald's alleged affair with the French aviator Edouard Joazez the writer's relationship with his fellow author Dorothy Parker and Fitzgerald's autobiographical writings in which he recounts his fast extravagant life during the Jazz Age Engagingly written and based on a deep understanding of Fitzgerald's life and career Fitzgerald and the War Between the Sexes will inform and influence fans and students of Fitzgerald's work for many years to come The Black Mirror and Other Stories Franz Rottensteiner, 2008-12-31
 Handsomely equipped with a comprehensive introductory historical essay editor's notes and selected bibliography this distinguished anthology is a model of genre research These previously untranslated stories published from 1871 onward offer reading virtually unknown to most American and many German readers Some authors combine scientific and philosophical issues like Kurd Lasswitz in his witty tale To the Absolute Zero of Existence A Story from 2371 while others as in Erik Simon's 1983 title story pose psychological puzzles involving alien phenomena Though the earlier stories in particular demand painstaking reading all of them repay it with rewarding insights into German and Austrian culture and the many possible uses and misuses of science The Sequence Novel Elizabeth Margaret Kerr, 1927 The Novel After Theory Judith Ryan, 2014-01-01
 Novels began to incorporate literary theory in unexpected ways in the late twentieth century Through allusion parody or implicit critique theory formed an additional strand in fiction that raised questions about the nature of authorship and the practice of writing Studying this phenomenon provides fresh insight into the recent development of the novel and the persistence of modern theory beyond the period of its greatest success In this book Judith Ryan opens these questions to a range of readers drawing them into debates over the value of theory Ryan investigates what prompted fiction writers to incorporate and respond to theory nearly thirty years ago Designed for readers unfamiliar with the complexities of theory Ryan's book introduces the discipline's major trends and controversies and notes the salient ideas of a carefully selected set of individual thinkers Ryan follows novelists' adaptation to and engagement with arguments drawn from theory as they translate abstract ideas into language structure and fictional strategy At the core of her book is a fascinating microstudy of French poststructuralism in its dialogue with narrative fiction Investigating theories of textuality psychology and society in the work of Don DeLillo Thomas Pynchon J M Coetzee Margaret Atwood W G Sebald and Umberto Eco as well as Monika Maron Alain Robbe-Grillet Marguerite Duras Marilynne Robinson David Foster Wallace and Christa Wolf Ryan identifies subtle negotiations between author and theory and the richness this dynamic adds to texts Resetting the way we think and learn about literature her book reads current literary theory while uniquely tracing its shaping of a genre

Novels of William Boyd Dr. Rajesh Shashikant Latane, 2015-02-25 have great pleasure in writing this foreword to Dr Latane's book on the Novels of William Boyd The book is a significant contribution to Boyd criticism It has discussed the early the middle and the last phase of Boyd's novels In doing if the author has defined the totality of Boyd's vision Indeed every novel is a part of this totality and the totality is more than a mere sum of the novels The reciprocal relationship between the part and the whole is the crux of novel criticism and the book has given due justice to this aspect Another important feature of the book is the analysis of the postmodernist element in Boyd's novels This critical framework can be used to analysis the postmodernist element in the contemporary Indian novel in English Even going further it can be used to analyse the Postmodernist element in the contemporary Marathi novel A thesis is really acknowledged when it become a source material for the future researchers and comparatives Mr Latane's book has that potential I heartily wish a good reception to the book Dr Prakash Deshpande Kejkar Former Professor of English Shivaji University Kolhapur

Genres of Doubt Elizabeth M. Sanders, 2017-04-26 Nineteenth century Britain gave birth to the fantasy novel and the science fiction novel two of today's most popular genres During the same period the traditional Christian beliefs that had underpinned British society for centuries faced new challenges as geological discoveries the writings of Charles Darwin and exposure to other cultures gave rise to a Victorian crisis of faith These two shifts one literary one cultural were deeply intertwined The novel a literary form that was developed as a vehicle for realism when infused with unreal elements offered a space to ponder questions about the supernatural the difference between belief and knowledge and humanity's place in the world The author explores how questions of meaning identity and faith inspired the speculative fiction of today's novels films television shows and comics

Landscapes with Figures Robert L. Root, 2007-04-01 For some a sense of place is about travel about plunging oneself into new settings For others it is about being and knowing home This book is a collection of essays memoirs nature writing and travel narratives that document the impact this sense of place has on writing In locations as familiar as Cape Cod or Mesa Verde and as exotic as Krak w or Kyrgyzstan thirteen accomplished writers of contemporary creative nonfiction share some of their most memorable work disclosing how place alters our perception and influences our insight Taking readers to deserts and forests islands and mountains Landscapes with Figures is an encounter not only with places but also with writers themselves Each contribution is accompanied by an author's commentary that discusses the relationship to place in his or her writing The authors reveal the connections they feel to the places they write about the role that place plays in the choices they make in relating their experiences and the strategies and work habits that produce such writing This compilation is at once a wide ranging anthology of the nonfiction of place for the armchair traveler and a book about writing for those who aspire to understand and practice the craft carrying with it the invitation to reflect on one's own special places
