Loss and Bereavement in Childbearing Rosemary Mander, 2007-04-11 Written by an experienced midwife and researcher Assumes no professional experience of loss and bereavement Places emphasis on the mother and family Accessible and easy to read Revised edition will have new chapter on the death of the mother Bereavement Care for Childbearing Women and their Families Caroline Hollins Martin, Eleanor Forrest, 2013-07-24 For many bereaved parents the care provided by health professionals at birth from midwives to antenatal teachers has a crucial effect on their response to a loss or death This interactive workbook is clearly applied to practice and has been designed to help practitioners deliver effective bereavement care Providing care to grieving parents can be demanding difficult and stressful with many feeling ill equipped to provide appropriate help Equipping the reader with fundamental skills to support childbearing women partners and families who have experienced childbirth related bereavement this book outlines What bereavement is and the ways in which it can be experienced in relation to pregnancy and birth Sensitive and supportive ways of delivering bad news to childbearing women partners and families Models of grieving How to identify when a bereaved parent may require additional support from mental health experts Ongoing support available for bereaved women their partners and families The impact on practitioners and the support they may require How to assess and tailor care to accommodate a range of spiritual and religious beliefs about death Written by two highly educated experienced midwifery lecturers this practical and evidence based workbook is a valuable resource for all midwives neonatal nurses and support workers who work with women in the perinatal period This book is suitable as a text for BSc and MSc courses in Midwifery BScs courses in Paediatric Nursing and for neonatal and bereavement counselling courses Loss and Grief in the Childbearing Period Denise Côté-Arsenault, Margaret Comerford Freda, 2011-01-01 Loving You from Here SUSAN. CLARK, 2020-10 Loving You From Here explores the traumatic impact of losing a baby through stillbirth and neonatal death It features the moving stories of multiple families some affected recently some decades ago but still living with the loss The book is a practical guide for grieving parents in the grips of tragedy and those around them who want to be able to offer support This profound and insightful book will help everyone impacted by the loss of a baby Mourning Unlived Lives Judith A. Savage, 1989 Of course this book will be used as a survival manual for grieving parents but it is a remarkable kit for the biggest psychological project of our time ordinary people teaching themselves to work through even the saddest occasions in order to live with strong feeling Until our century the gifts of spirit and psychology such as finding meaning in grief were regarded as something for the few Now we all want whatever psychological insight we can lay hand to we all want the conviction that no matter how fierce our grief we are part of life not in rebellion against it Here is this book marvelous not just for its therapeutic wisdom and compassionate discussion but for its research on and reference to the great griefs of the past Judith Savage takes us along the great wise route connecting our private griefs to the general condition of us all Remembering

Our Angels Hannah Stone, 2007-03 No one knows the devastation and heartache of losing a baby more than a father or mother Grieving parents often do not know where to turn and what to do with their grief in the aftermath of a pregnancy loss In Remembering Our Angels Hannah Stone has collected essays and stories from pregnancy loss awareness activists doctors grief counselors and grieving parents in the hope of offering a resource to parents in mourning

Different Baby, Different Story Joann O'Leary, Lynnda Parker, Margaret M. Murphy, Jane Warland, 2020-12-15 Pregnancy after prenatal or infant loss can be a lonely and frightening time but through stories of both pain and healing the authors show how to navigate the exciting but choppy waters of a subsequent pregnancy The loss of a pregnancy or newborn infant changes the meaning of pregnancy birth and parenting forever Increased parental fear and anxiety and continuing grief for the deceased baby can impact subsequent pregnancies in unexpected ways Parents who are unsupported in pregnancy after loss are may be more at risk of experiencing anxiety depression Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and difficulty in attaching to a new baby Different Baby Different Story explores the range of emotions thoughts and physical experiences of parents who have gone on to subsequent pregnancies Including stories from mothers fathers other children and extended family members this poignant and moving work will help readers through their own feelings and give voice to those who may have felt unheard or unsupported in the past With practical advice on self advocacy the book helps expectant parents gain insights as to how others learned to work with health care professionals mental health professionals and their own families and friends and coworkers For expectant mothers their partners their families and their friends this work supports the range of experiences and encourages readers on a path to healing

Understanding Pregnancy Loss Christine Moulder, 1998-11-11 Stillbirth miscarriage and termination of pregnancy are emotionally laden experiences providing particular challenges for health professionals Based on original research this book provides insight into subjective experience and professional response It grows out of in depth interviews with women and with the full range of health professionals who were significant in their care These experiences are drawn upon to explore the dilemmas in providing good care and to suggest ways in which practice might be improved
