Lost Futures:

The Science of Lost Futures Ryan Habermeyer, 2018-05-08 The Science of Lost Futures is a prize winning collection full of quirky humor and intelligent absurdity Ryan Habermeyer is a yarn spinner of the first order Drawing on urban legends internet hoaxes and ancient medical folklore these stories go beyond science fiction and magical realism to create a captivating collection of fabulist stories that revel in the alien and the absurd Lost Futures Stan Grossfeld, 1997 Depict the plight of children around the world including victims of war disease and abuse In Search of Lost Futures

Magdalena Kazubowski-Houston, Mark Auslander, 2021-02-16 In Search of Lost Futures asks how imaginations might be activated through practices of autoethnography multimodality and deep interdisciplinarity each of which has the power to break down methodological silos cultivate novel research sensibilities and inspire researchers to question what is known about ethnographic process representation reflexivity audience and intervention within and beyond the academy By blurring the boundaries between the past present and future between absence and presence between the possible and the impossible and between fantasy and reality In Search of Lost Futures pushes the boundaries of ethnographic engagement It reveals how researchers on the cutting edge of the discipline are studying absence and grief and employing street performance museum exhibit anticipation or simulated reality to research and intervene in the possible the impossible and the uncertain us the future is not set in stone Instead it is constantly being shaped and redefined by the everyday decisions of individuals and organizations In light of this uncertainty The Future Starts Now looks toward the various innovations and technologies that may shape our future Authors Theo Priestley and Bronwyn Williams have brought together the world s leading futurists to articulate and clarify the current trajectories in technology economics politics and business This is a comprehensive history of tomorrow with guidance insight and predictions that are fascinating for those curious about what the future may hold as well as business professionals looking to steer their career or their organization with foresight and confidence

Nature Futures 1 Henry Gee,2025-10-16 This book brings together 97 short stories that seek to answer the question what will the future look like First published in the leading science journal Nature these 900 word tales come from scientists journalists and many of the most famous SF writers in the world Initially published in book form as Futures from Nature this is the first time this collection has been available as an eBook A unique blend of satires vignettes fictional book reviews science articles and journalism Nature Futures offers an eclectic mix of ideas and attitudes about the future With contributions from Arthur C Clarke Bruce Sterling Charles Stross Cory Doctorow Greg Bear Gregory Benford Oliver Morton Ian Macleod Rudy Rucker Greg Egan Stephan Baxter Frederik Pohl Vernor Vinge Nancy Kress Michael Moorcock Vonda N McIntyre Kim Stanley Robinson John M Ford and 79 more Lost Futures Lisa Tuttle,1992 When her brother dies tragically Clare suddenly finds herself living several different lives in a mental ward in one doomed to a failed relationship in another and with her dead brother in a third Original Bloodstained Narratives Matthew Edwards,Fernando Gabriel Pagnoni Berns,2023-03-24 Contributions by Donald L Anderson Brian Brems Eric Brinkman Matthew Edwards Brenda S Gardenour Walter Andrew Grossman Lisa Haegle Gavin F Hurley Mikel J Koven Sharon Jane Mee Fernando Gabriel Pagnoni Berns milie von Garan Connor John Warden and Sean Woodard The giallo yellow film cycle characterized by its bloody murders and blending of high art and cinematic sleaze rose to prominence in Italy in the 1960s and 1970s Beginning with Mario Bava s The Girl Who Knew Too Much 1963 and Dario Argento s The Bird with the Crystal Plumage 1970 giallo films influenced the American slasher films of the 1980s and attracted an increasingly large fandom In Bloodstained Narratives The Giallo Film in Italy and Abroad contributors explore understudied aspects of gialli The chapters introduce readers to a wide range of films including masterpieces from Argento and overlooked gems all of them examined in close detail Rather than understanding giallo as focalized exclusively in Italy in the 1970s this collection explores the extension of gialli narratives abroad through different geographies and times This book examines Italian gialli of the 1970s as well as American neo gialli French productions Canadian horror films of the 1980s and Asian rewritings of this yellow cycle of crime horror films Bloodstained Narratives also features interviews with two giallo film directors including cult favorite Antonio Bido Rather than fading from the cinematic stage gialli serves as a precursor and steady accomplice to horror thriller films through the twenty first century

critical analysis of desistance from crime particularly through the lens of women's experiences. It develops desistance theory by interrogating the concept of normalcy, highlighting how normative societal expectations cause harms on desistance journeys. Through this lens, the book uncovers tensions between desistance as a journey towards societal reintegration and the resistance desisters experience when encountering state institutions and social norms. Being no longer part of the old life and not yet part of the new, desisters face both familiar and unfamiliar harms. A key conceptual contribution is the book's critique of normalcy as both an aspirational and oppressive goal. The work illustrates how the pursuit of mainstream inclusion can expose desisters to both new and continuous harms. These include surveillance and stigma, social and literal death, gendered violence, and economic precarity. By engaging with feminist and temporal criminological theories, the book sheds light on how desisters' experiences reveal the dark side of normalcy, calling into question whether its pursuit is wholly desirable. With its focus on the intersections of gender stigma and social control, this work advances academic debates on desistance, proposing a rethinking of how criminal justice systems and support frameworks engage with those transitioning out of criminalized lifestyles. It will appeal to students and scholars of criminology, desistance, gender studies, recovery from addiction, and to practitioners and policy makers in these fields. Historical Criminology David Churchill, Henry

Yeomans, Iain Channing, 2021-11-29. This book sets an agenda for the development of historical approaches to criminology. It defines historical criminology, explores its characteristic strengths and limitations, and considers its potential to enhance, revise, and fundamentally challenge dominant modes of thinking about crime and social responses to crime. It considers the following questions: What is historical criminology? What does thinking historically about crime and justice entail? How is historical criminology currently practised? What are the advantages and disadvantages of different approaches to historical criminology? How can historical criminology reshape understandings of crime and social responses to crime? How does thinking historically bear upon major theoretical, conceptual, and methodological questions in criminological research? What does thinking historically have to offer criminological scholarship more broadly, and the uses of criminology in the public realm? In this book, Churchill, Yeomans, and Channing situate historical thinking at the heart of historical criminology, reveal the value of historical research to criminology, and argue that criminologists across the field have much to gain from engaging in historical thinking in a more regular and sustained way. This book is essential reading for all criminologists as well as students taking courses on theories, concepts, and methods in criminology. In the Long Run Jonathan

White, 2024-02-01. Exhilarating Financial Times. Highly perceptive, engaging, and somewhat startling. Literary Review. A profound meditation on how and why democracy must keep its faith in the future, and the future must keep its faith in democracy. David Runciman. Democracy is future-oriented, and self-correcting: today's problems can be solved, we are told, in tomorrow's elections. But the biggest issues facing the modern world, from climate collapse and pandemics to recession and world war, each apparently bring us to the edge of the irreversible. What happens to democracy when the future seems no longer open In this eye opening history of ideas Jonathan White investigates how politics has long been directed by shifting visions of the future from the birth of ideologies in the nineteenth century to Cold War secrecy and the excesses of the neoliberal age As an inescapable sense of disaster defines our politics White argues that a political commitment to the long term may be the best way to safeguard democracy Wide in scope and sharply observed In the Long Run is a history of the future that urges us to make tomorrow new again The Rise and Fall of the Future Gordon Arnold,2020-08-04 Mid 20th century America envisioned a wondrous future of comfort convenience and technological advancement Popular culture including World s Fairs science fiction and advertising fed high hopes even when war and hardship threatened American ingenuity and consumer culture promised to deliver flying cars undersea cities household robots and space travel By the 1960s political assassinations the civil rights and women s movements the Vietnam War and the generation gap eroded that optimism refocusing attention on the issues of the present The nation s utopian dream was brief but revealing Based on a wide range of sources this book takes a fresh look at America s precipitous fall from futurism to disillusionment Going Nowhere, Slow Mikkel Krause Frantzen,2019-11-29 Using examples from art and literature Frantzen explores the social political and economic implications of both real and imagined depression Is feeling blue a symptom of the death of progress Was the suicide of David Foster Wallace a proverbial canary in a coal mine Margaret Thatcher once declared that there is no alternative to the social order that we now reside within Have we accepted her slogan as a fact and is that why so many are on Prozac and other anti depressants Frantzen examines the works of Michel Houellebecq Claire Fontaine and David Foster Wallace as he seeks out an answer and a way to formulate a new future oriented left movement Critical Perspectives on Max Porter David Rudrum,Paweł Wojtas,Wojciech Drąg,2024-02-27 Max Porter is amongst the most exciting British writers of the twenty first century His striking books straddle the divide between poetry and prose as deftly as they combine literary experimentation with mainstream success This book is the first study of his works to date which encompass Grief Is the Thing with Feathers 2015 Lanny 2019 The Death of Francis Bacon 2021 and Shy 2023 It features a broad interdisciplinary array of essays by poets novelists literary critics art historians and educationalists which collectively place Porter s works in their contexts shed light on his artistic vision and interpret his texts from a range of critical perspectives The volume s 12 chapters combine readings of the literary formal intertextual and experimental aspects of Porter s works with discussions of their relation to social political and ethical questions whilst placing them in dialogue with highly topical critical and cultural debates such as Englishness in the aftermath of Brexit ecocriticism affectivity and posthumanism The Streaming of Hill House Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr.,2020-04-28 Netflix s The Haunting of Hill House has received both critical acclaim and heaps of contempt for its reimaging of Shirley Jackson s seminal horror novel Some found Mike Flanagan s series inventive respectful and terrifying Others believed it denigrated and diminished its source material with some even calling it a betrayal of Jackson Though the novel has produced a great deal of scholarship this is the first critical collection to look at the television series Featuring all new essays from noted scholars and award winning horror authors this collection goes beyond comparing the novel and the Netflix adaptation to look at the series through the lenses of gender architecture education hauntology addiction and trauma studies including analysis of the show in the context of 9 11 and Me Too Specific essays compare the series with other texts from Flanagan s other films and other adaptations of Jackson s novel to the television series Supernatural Toni Morrison s Beloved and the 2018 film Hereditary Together this collection probes a terrifying television series about how scary reality can truly be usually because of what it says about our lives in America today The Routledge Companion to Folk Horror Robert Edgar, Wayne Johnson, 2023-10-09 The Routledge Companion to Folk Horror offers a comprehensive guide to this popular genre It explores its origins canonical texts and thinkers the crucial underlying themes of nostalgia and hauntology and identifies new trends in the field Divided into five parts the first focuses on the history of Folk Horror from medieval texts to the present day It considers the first wave of contemporary Folk Horror through the films of the unholy trinity as well as discussing the influence of ancient gods and early Folk Horror Part 2 looks at the spaces landscapes and cultural relics which form a central focus for Folk Horror In Part 3 the contributors examine the rich history of the use of folklore in children s fiction The next part discusses recent examples of Folk Horror infused music and image Chapters consider the relationship between different genres of music to Folk Horror such as folk music black metal and new wave sound and performance comic books and the Dark Web Often regarded as British in origin the final part analyses texts which break this link as the contributors reveal the larger realms of regional national international and transnational Folk Horror Featuring 40 contributions this authoritative collection brings together leading voices in the field It is an invaluable resource for students and scholars interested in this vibrant genre and its enduring influence on literature film music and culture Fundamentals of Investing Lawrence J Gitman, Michael D Joehnk, Scott Smart, Roger H Juchau, 2015-05-20 What are the best investments for me What about risk Do I need professional help with my investments and can I afford it Mastering the language concepts vehicles and strategies of investing can be challenging Fundamentals of Investing shows how to make informed investment decisions understand the risks inherent in investing and how to confidently shape a sound investment strategy Fundamentals of Investing 3rd edition is completely updated and introduces core concepts and tools used by Australian investors providing a firm understanding of the fundamental principles of investments Focusing on both individual securities and portfolios students learn how to develop implement and monitor investment goals after considering the risk and return of both markets and investment vehicles Fundamentals of Investing is suitable for introductory investments courses offered at university undergraduate or post graduate level as well as colleges professional certification programs and continuing education courses Visions of the Future in Roman Frontier Kingdoms 100 BCE-100 CE Richard Teverson, 2024-09-03 This is the first book length exploration of the ways art from the edges of the Roman Empire represented the future examining visual representations of time and the role of artwork in

Roman imperial systems This book focuses on four kingdoms from across the empire Cottius's Alpine kingdom in the north King Juba II's Mauretania in the south west Herodian Judea in the east and Kommagene to the north east Art from the imperial frontier is rarely considered through the lens of the aesthetics of time and Roman provincial art and the monuments of allied rulers are typically interpreted as evidence of the interaction between Roman and local identities In this interdisciplinary study which explores statues wall paintings coins monuments and inscriptions readers learn that these artworks served as something more they were created to represent the futures that allied rulers and their people foresaw The pressure of Roman imperialism drove patrons and artists on the empire's borders to imbue their creations with increasingly sophisticated ideas about the future as they wrestled with consequential decisions made under periods of intense political pressure Comprehensively illustrated and providing an important new approach to Roman material culture at the edge of empire Visions of the Future in Roman Frontier Kingdoms 100 BCE 100 CE is suitable for students and scholars working on Rome and its frontiers as well as Roman material culture more broadly and those studying the aesthetics of time in art and art history The Times and Temporalities of International Human Rights Law Kathryn McNeilly, Ben Warwick, 2022-02-24 This collection brings together a range of international contributors to stimulate discussions on time and international human rights law a topic that has been given little attention to date The book explores how time and its diverse forms can be understood to operate on and in this area of law how time manifests in the theory and practice of human rights law internationally and how specific areas of human rights can be understood via temporal analyses A range of temporal ideas and their connection to this area of law are investigated These include collective memory ideas of past present and future emergency time the times of environmental change linearity and non linearity multiplicitous time and the connections between time and space or materiality Rather than a purely abstract or theoretical endeavour this dedicated attention to the times and temporalities of international human rights law will assist in better understanding this law its development and its operation in the present What emerges from the collection is a future or more precisely futures for time as a vehicle of analysis for those working within human rights law internationally Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse in Eastern European and Balkan Cinema Zoran Samardzija, 2025-07-18 Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse in Eastern European and Balkan Cinema examines the theme of political collapse in select contemporary Eastern European and Balkan art cinema and documentaries from the late eighties to the present Engaging with debates in Marxism and contemporary film theory about political aesthetics the book centers around the question of whether we can imagine possible futures through negative aesthetics which are skeptical of cinema's ability to reproduce reality in a comprehensive and unmediated manner In particular it analyzes examples of ambiguous art cinema and related hybrid documentary modes in order to invite spectators to rethink how we understand and represent the unique experiences of living through the collapse of authoritarian communism and the transition to neoliberal capitalism Negative Aesthetics and Political Collapse ultimately argues that the skepticism about political change and representing history found in these films forms an original mode of utopian thinking In other words their negativity about their own artistic autonomy is the very thing that allows them to hint at possible futures that are unrepresentable because they exist outside of the frameworks of contemporary geopolitics and our dominant understandings of cinematic aesthetics Redefining how we understand the intersections between geopolitics art cinema aesthetics and film theory the book presents a unique synthesis of film and political theory that attempts a new understanding of cinematic aesthetics As such it will interest scholars of film theory global art cinema aesthetics regional studies of Eastern Europe and the Balkans and political science
