A History of Maritime Trade in Northern Vietnam, 12th to 18th

Centuries Yuriiko Kikuchi, 2021-10-21 This book analyzes the role of i Vi t Vietnam in the maritime Asian trading network of the thirteenth through the eighteenth centuries as it systematically integrates the results of archaeological investigations The first half of the book consolidates reports from excavations conducted at V n n and Ph Hi n trading ports of i Vi t incorporating sophisticated archaeological techniques distinctive of Japan in the presentations of the data These are accompanied by precise scale drawings detailed classifications and quantitative analyses of unearthed artifacts The latter half of the book discusses the materials discovered in archaeological investigations specifically ceramics and coins in terms of the relations among sites and networks of production distribution and consumption from a broader Asian geohistorical perspective To this end the diplomatic policies and trading activities of each era in Vietnam are discussed integrating the results of archaeological investigations with studies of historical documents Expanding beyond Vietnam results of the archaeological investigations in other maritime Asian countries such as Japan Indonesia Laos and the Philippines are introduced to inform a comparative study that combines all such data from both archaeology and history in a single volume as materials for broader discussion This book is expected to contribute to international academic discourse on the history of maritime Asia and help open a new phase of scholarly endeavor in this field A View from the Highlands Mai Lin

Tjoa-Bonatz, 2019-11-07 This book analyses the rise of the settlement system in the heartland of the Minangkabau region in the highlands of West Sumatra Indonesia It explores the regional settlement pattern arising from Adityavarman s highland interregnum c 1347 75 and provides the first attempt to place the archaeological remains and the landscape of Tanah Datar a fertile plain in the highlands of West Sumatra in a cultural historic synthesis The core of this research consisted of excavations at Bukit Gombak and Bukit Kincir Bukit Gombak was a central place in Adityavarman s kingdom and provides evidence of the organization and material development of this political entity Surveys uncovered other settlements that could be examined in relation to each other and to sites from earlier and later periods and used to sketch out the settlement history of Tanah Datar from prehistoric times to the colonial period The book consists of detailed studies of metal ceramics and glass finds by laboratory based specialists as well as careful descriptions of stone clay and other finds Transformative Jars

Anna Grasskamp, Anne Gerritsen, 2022-12-01 The term jar refers to any man made shape with the capacity to enclose something Few objects are as universal and multi functional as a jar regardless of whether they contain food or drink matter or a void life giving medicine or the ashes of the deceased As ubiquitous as they may seem such containers storage vessels and urns are as this book demonstrates highly significant cultural and historical artefacts that mediate between content and environment exterior worlds and interior enclosures local and global this worldly and otherworldly realms The contributors to this volume understand jars not only as household utensils or evidence of human civilizations but also as artefacts in their own right Asian jars are culturally and aesthetically defined crafted goods and as objects charged with spiritual meanings and ritual significance Transformative Jars situates Asian jars in a global context and focuses on relationships between the filling emptying and re filling of jars with a variety of contents and meanings through time and throughout space Transformative Jars brings together an interdisciplinary team of scholars with backgrounds in curating art history and anthropology to offer perspectives that go beyond archaeological approaches with detailed analyses of a broad range of objects By looking at jars as things in the hands of makers users and collectors this book presents these objects as agents of change in cultures of craftsmanship and consumption

Imagining Asia(s) Andrea Acri, Kashshaf Ghani, Murari K Jha, Sraman Mukherjee, 2019-10-23 As a continent lying to the east of Europe Asia has been malleable to different spatial and temporal imaginations and politics Recent scholarship has highlighted how the seemingly self contained regional configurations of West and Central Asia South and Southeast Asia and East Asia carved by the Area Studies paradigm reflect changing geo political and economic interests than historical or cultural roots This volume advances the question as to what Asia is and as to whether there existed one or many Asia s It seeks to explore Asian societies as interconnected formations through trajectories networks of circulation of people ideas and objects in the longue dur e Moving beyond the divides of Area Studies scholarship and the arbitrary borders set by late colonial empires and the rise of post colonial nation states this volume maps critically the configuration of contact zones in which mobile bodies minds and cultures interact to foster new images identities and imaginations of Asia
