The Textual Condition Jerome J. McGann, 2020-09-01 Over the past decade literary critic and editor Jerome McGann has developed a theory of textuality based in writing and production rather than in reading and interpretation These new essays extend his investigations of the instability of the physical text McGann shows how every text enters the world under socio historical conditions that set the stage for a ceaseless process of textual development and mutation Arguing that textuality is a matter of inscription and articulation he explores texts as material and social phenomena as particular kinds of acts McGann links his study to contextual and institutional studies of literary works as they are generated over time by authors editors typographers book designers marketing planners and other publishing agents This enables him to examine issues of textual stability and instability in the arenas of textual production and reproduction Drawing on literary examples from the past two centuries including works by Byron Blake Morris Yeats Joyce and especially Pound McGann applies his theory to key problems facing anyone who studies

Queer/Early/Modern Carla Freccero, 2006-01-16 In Queer Early Modern Carla Freccero a leading scholar of early modern European studies argues for a reading practice that accounts for the queerness of temporality for the way past present and future time appear out of sequence and in dialogue in our thinking about history and texts Freccero takes issue with New Historicist accounts of sexual identity that claim to respect historical proprieties and to derive identity categories from the past She urges us to see how the indeterminacies of subjectivity found in literary texts challenge identitarian constructions and she encourages us to read differently the relation between history and literature Contending that the term queer in its indeterminacy points the way toward alternative ethical reading practices that do justice to the aftereffects of the past as they live on in the present Freccero proposes a model of fantasmatic historiography that brings together history and fantasy past and present event and affect Combining feminist theory queer theory psychoanalysis deconstruction and literary criticism Freccero takes up a series of theoretical and historical issues related to debates in queer theory feminist theory the history of sexuality and early modern studies She juxtaposes readings of early and late modern texts discussing the lyric poetry of Petrarch Louise Labé and Melissa Ethridge David Halperin's take on Michel Foucault via Apuleius's The Golden Ass and Boccaccio's Decameron and France's domestic partner legislation in connection with Marguerite de Navarre's Heptameron Turning to French cleric Jean de Lery's account published in 1578 of having witnessed cannibalism and religious rituals in Brazil some twenty years earlier and to the twentieth century Brandon Teena case Freccero draws on Jacques Derrida's concept of spectrality to propose both an ethics and a mode of interpretation that acknowledges and is inspired by the haunting of the present by the past A History of the Meynell Hounds and Country - 1780 to 1901 J.
