Love's Transformation Emil Toth, 2015-07-15 Batu a young woman lives in a future developing society after an apocalypse She heroically opposes performing a barbaric self mutilation ritual the high priest concocts to gratify his sexual fantasy and infuriates him creating a lifelong enemy Being strong willed she hates men seeing women as inferior and declares the council is depriving women of their rights and justice She inflames the council telling them women should serve on the council She rejects her father's choice of husband and marries a man of her own choosing Can she continue her caustic opposition and not face retaliation A disfiguring condition decimates Batu's beauty triggering her transformation from a self centered bully to a loving caring woman The death of Batu's husband and baby causes her to lose worth as defined by law and the village council decrees she is to be expelled from the village and face certain death

The Origin of Persian Poetry James Darmesteter, 1888 Out Of Sequence Matt Wells, 2014-11-19 The debut poetry collection of Matt Wells Out Of Sequence is a feast of formal verse serving up single poems followed by a pair of Shakespearean sonnets to create an emotional whole that is greater than the sum of its lyrical parts Like the best of Richard Wilbur and W H Auden Wells writes lines that are studded with brilliant imagery in verse that is always more than clever rhymes and never less than heartfelt And those sonnets Effortlessly combining the colloquial with that strict fourteen line form Wells writes sonnets that flow smoothly from the playful to the piercing as they confront grief failure death and regret look them square in the face and somehow make them all feel as uplifting as love Out Of Sequence is a collection that will take the reader on a journey from joy to grief and back again with poems that will resonate long after they've been read
