Library,1889 My Thoughts Be Bloody Nora Titone,2010-10-19 Historian Nora Titone takes a fresh look at the strange and startling history of the Booth brothers answering the question of why one became the nineteenth century s brightest most beloved star and the other became the most notorious assassin in American history The scene of John Wilkes Booth shooting Abraham Lincoln in Ford s Theatre is among the most vivid and indelible images in American history The literal story of what happened on April 14 1865 is familiar Lincoln was killed by John Wilkes Booth a lunatic enraged by the Union victory and the prospect of black citizenship Yet who Booth really was besides a killer is less well known The magnitude of his crime has obscured for generations a startling personal story that was integral to his motivation My Thoughts Be Bloody a sweeping family saga revives an extraordinary figure whose name has been missing until now from the story of President Lincoln s death Edwin Booth John Wilkes s older brother by four years was in his day the biggest star of the American stage Without an account of Edwin Booth author Nora Titone argues the real story of Lincoln s assassin has never been told Using an array of private letters diaries and reminiscences of the Booth family Titone has uncovered a hidden history that reveals the reasons why John Wilkes Booth became this country s most notorious assassin The details of the conspiracy to kill Lincoln have been well documented elsewhere My Thoughts Be Bloody tells a new story one that explains for the first time why Lincoln s assassin decided to conspire against the president in the first place and sets that decision in the context of a bitterly divided family and nation By the end of this riveting journey readers will see Abraham Lincoln s death less as the result of the war between the North and South and more as the climax of a dark struggle between two brothers who never wore the uniform of soldiers except on stage

The Memory of Blood Christopher Fowler,2013-09-03 Christopher Fowler s acclaimed Peculiar Crimes Unit novels crackle with sly wit lively suspense and twists as chilling as London s fog Now the indomitable duo of Arthur Bryant and John May along with the rest of their quirky team return to solve a confounding case with dark ties to the British theater and a killer who may mean curtains for all involved For the crew of the New Strand Theatre the play The Two Murderers seems less performance than prophecy when a cast party ends in the shocking death of the theater owner's son. The crime scene is most unusual even for Bryant and May. In a locked bedroom without any trace of fingerprints or blood, the only sign of disturbance is a gruesome life-size puppet of Mr. Punch laying on the floor. Everyone at the party is a suspect, including the corrupt producer, the rakish male lead, the dour set designer, and the assistant stage manager who is the wild daughter of a prominent government official. It's this last fact that threatens the Peculiar Crimes Unit's investigation as the government's Home Office, wary of the team's eccentric methods, seeks to throw them off the case. But the nimble minds of Bryant and May are not so easily deterred. Delving into the history of the London theater and the disturbing origins of Punch and Judy, the detectives race to find the maniacal killer before he reaches his even deadlier final act. Whip-smart and endlessly entertaining, The Memory of Blood is an ingeniously intricate mystery from the deliciously inventive Christopher Fowler. Praise for The Memory of Blood: The Memory of Blood breathes new life into the locked room mystery. Spiced with a little screwball comedy, dialogue, and a touch of the occult. The Washington Post. Great fun. The Seattle Times. Jewish Soldiers in the Collective Memory of Central Europe Gerald Lamprecht, Eleonore Lappin-Eppel, Ulrich Wyrwa, 2019-04-15 World War I marks a huge break in Central European Jewish history. Not only had the violent wartime events destroyed Jewish life and especially the living space of Eastern European Jews, but the impacts of war, the geopolitical change, and a radicalization of anti-Semitism also led to a crisis of Jewish identity. Furthermore, during the process of national self-discovery and the establishing of new states, the societal position of the Jews and their relationship to the state had to be redefined. These partially violent processes, which were always accompanied by anti-Semitism, evoked Jewish and Gentile debates in which questions about Jewish loyalty to the old and/or new states, as well as concepts of Jewish identity under the new political circumstances, were negotiated. This volume collects articles dealing with these Jewish and Gentile debates about military service and war memory in Central Europe. A Study of the Local Literature of the Upper Ohio Valley Mary Meek Atkeson, Perley Isaac Reed, Robert Spangler Newdick, 1918 Trajectories of Memory Beth Griech-Polelle, Christina Guenther, 2021-01-20 This volume, which grew out of a conference of the same name held at Bowling Green State University in March 2006, represents new scholarly perspectives on the way in which the Holocaust is remembered in history, literary studies, and theatre. It is a response to changing representations of the Holocaust across generations, disciplines, and in various cultural and national contexts. The contributions address the following questions: How do historians, artists, scholars, and teachers negotiate the language of the Holocaust as survivors die, leaving future generations to respond to the dictum "Never again"? How do children and grandchildren of survivors, perpetrators, bystanders transmit the difficult legacy of the Holocaust in American, Israeli, French, German, Swiss, and Austrian contexts while navigating feelings of transgenerational guilt or victimhood? How can we do justice to survivor testimony when the survivors can no longer speak directly or mediate the testimony to us? How does transferred and multiply mediated knowledge translate into meaningful artifacts for the next generations? The collection features an interview about interdisciplinarity within Holocaust studies conducted at the conference with keynote speakers Marianne Hirsch and Leo Spitzer The articles in the first section explore the complex relationship between memory oral history and historiography in cross cultural contexts The second section includes articles on texts by Cynthia Ozick Thane Rosenbaum Daniel Handler W G Sebald Monika Maron Stephan Wackwitz Jonathan Foer Art Spiegelman Georges Arthur Goldstein Benjamin Wilkomirski Elfriede Jelinek Thomas Bernhard Tim Blake Nelson and Diane Samuel
