

Examenvragen Architectuur- en techniekgeschiedenis: 19^e en 20^e eeuw

1. Was art nouveau het begin van de avant garde of het einde van de 19^e eeuw?

De art nouveau kan op beide manieren geïnterpreteerd worden.

Enerzijds als de 'fin de siècle' van de zogenaamde 'belle époque'. De bourgeoisie beleefde hier haar laatste bloei, wat cultuurhistorisch samenvalt met de burgerlijke cultuur die in ontbinding trad na in het neoclassicisme zowat alle stijlen geconsumeerd te hebben en dus een eigen soort rococo koesterde. Hier wordt de art nouveau gezien als de laatste uitspatting van een neergaande cultuur. (Marxistische historici)

Anderzijds wordt de art nouveau erkend als de eerste avant garde beweging, als het optimistische begin van de 20^e eeuw. De art nouveau werd namelijk gedragen door progressieve bourgeoisie die overtuigd waren dat de huidige tradities op instorten stonden. Ze zetten zich af van de eclectische stijltraditie, die volgens hen een uitdrukking was van het cultureel verval. De aanvang van de 20^e eeuw zou het begin markeren van een nieuwe samenleving gegrond op gelijkwaardigheid, vrijheid en een nieuwe dynamische harmonie. De nieuwe kunst moest dit afbeelden waardoor men koos om zich te inspireren op de natuur. (kubisme van Cézanne)

2. Waarom zijn begrippen als 'neoclassicisme', 'neogotiek', 'modernisme' en 'postmodernisme' zowel een handig hulpmiddel om architectuurhistorische evoluties te bespreken als problematisch?

Deze termen zijn handig om gebouwen met een bepaalde stijl aan elkaar te linken en deze ook te linken aan de periode waarin deze gebouwd zijn. Dit is natuurlijk op zich ook problematisch doordat men geneigd is om elk gebouw één van deze termen toe te kennen, wat soms niet echt mogelijk is. Sommige woningen kunnen kenmerken van 2 verschillende periodes dragen en zijn zo dus moeilijk te 'labelen' (VB???) Het situeren van een bepaalde architectuurvorm in de tijd brengt ook als problematiek mee dat de meest dominante vorm de minder gebruikte vormen gaat overschaduwen. Hierdoor krijgt men een erg vertekend beeld van de architectuurgeschiedenis waarbij het lijkt dat elke periode kan gelinkt worden met één architectuurvorm wanneer er eigenlijk verschillende stijlen naast elkaar bestonden. (VB???)

3. Neorenaissance en neogotiek staan lijnrecht tegenover elkaar. Verklaar.

Ze zijn enerzijds gelijkaardig omdat ze beide stromingen zijn die teruggrijpen naar oude vormen, maar de ideologie achter de keuze van de vormen staat lijnrecht tegenover elkaar:

Neorenaissance: (staat in hetzelfde kamp als neoclassicisme)

- Kwam iets vroeger tot stand dan de neogotiek
- Grijpt terug naar de vormen uit de renaissance bouwkunst, die op haar beurt teruggrijpt naar de bouwkunst van de Klassieke Oudheid (bouwkunst oude Grieken en Romeinen)
- Ideologie: verwijzing naar de ideale maatschappij van de Klassieke Oudheid (meerdere goden) en het architecturaal vocabularium is een uniforme taal (internationaal)
- Heeft eerder liberalistische aanhangers

Coping with Crisis: The Resilience and Vulnerability of Pre-Industrial Settlements Daniel R. Curtis, 2016-05-13 Why in the pre industrial period were some settlements resilient and stable over the long term while other settlements were vulnerable to crisis Indeed what made certain human habitations more prone to decline or even total collapse than others All pre industrial societies had to face certain challenges exogenous environmental hazards such as earthquakes or plagues economic or political hazards from outside such as warfare or expropriation of property or hazards of their own making such as soil erosion or subsistence crises How then can we explain why some societies were able to overcome or negate these problems while other societies proved susceptible to failure as settlements contracted stagnated were abandoned or even disappeared entirely This book has been stimulated by the questions and hypotheses put forward by a recent disaster studies literature in particular by placing the intrinsic arrangement of societies at the forefront of the explanatory framework Essentially it is suggested that the resilience or vulnerability of habitation has less to do with exogenous crises themselves but on endogenous societal responses which dictate a the extent of destruction caused by crises and the capacity for society to protect itself and b the capacity to create a sufficient recovery By empirically testing the explanatory framework on a number of societies between the Middle Ages and the nineteenth century in England the Low Countries and Italy it is ultimately argued in this book that rather than the protective functions of the state or the market or the implementation of technological innovation or capital investment the most resilient human habitations in the pre industrial period were those than displayed an equitable distribution of property and a well balanced distribution of power between social interest groups Equitable distributions of power and property were the underlying conditions in pre industrial societies that all

Civic Duty Manon van der Heijden, 2011-11-15 This study offers a new view on public services in the early modern Low Countries and answers the following questions who provided public facilities in urban communities and in which ways did public amenities change in the period between 1500 and 1800 It throws light on the ways in which responsibilities were shared between city dwellers and the factors which influenced the allocation and reallocation of public services between the sixteenth and nineteenth centuries The present study looks at those who provided various services to their communities the ways in which they were rewarded and monitored and the gain they may have sought It focuses on the situation in the Low Countries but in many respects it also describes the development of the provision of public services in most towns in early modern Western Europe The complex mixture of central and local private and public ecclesiastical and secular individual and corporate initiatives characterized to a greater or lesser extent urban communities everywhere in Western Europe Above all early modern towns were civil societies in which community services such as health care poor relief and public security were largely shaped and formed by conceptions of citizenship and collective interest The Rise and Decline of Dutch Technological Leadership (2 Vols) Karel Davids, 2008-09-17 This book provides a wide ranging overview of Dutch technological leadership in the early modern Europe it explains whence this leadership came about and why it ended and it explores to what extent the Dutch case illuminates the evolution of technological leadership in general Landless Households in Rural Europe, 1600-1900 Christine Fertig, Richard

Paping, Henry French, 2022 First comparative study of landless households brings out their major role in European history and society The numbers of landless people those lacking formal rights to land or possessing only tiny smallholdings grew rapidly across post medieval Europe as rural population and economic growth divided landowners and farmers from increasingly landless rural workers But they have hitherto been relatively neglected a gap which this volume covering Scandinavia Germany Austria Netherlands Belgium Britain France and Spain from the sixteenth to the early twentieth centuries aims to fill making creative use of a diverse range of unexplored sources Instead of concentrating on the well documented cases of landholding peasants it explores the many different experiences of the numerous rural landless It explains how their households were formed often in the face of economic difficulties and official hostility how all the members of a family contributed to its survival how the landless related to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural society was changed by war politics agrarian and industrial development government policy and welfare systems Contributors Arnau Barquer i Cerd John Broad Dieter Bruneel Christine Fertig Henry French Margareth Lanzinger Jonas Lindstr m Riikka Miettinen Richard Paping Wouter Ronsijn Merja Uotila Nadine Vivierlated to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural society was changed by war politics agrarian and industrial development government policy and welfare systems Contributors Arnau Barquer i Cerd John Broad Dieter Bruneel Christine Fertig Henry French Margareth Lanzinger Jonas Lindstr m Riikka Miettinen Richard Paping Wouter Ronsijn Merja Uotila Nadine Vivierlated to other social groups and negotiated access to vital resources and how they adapted as rural society was

Boehm, 1999 The Rise of the Amsterdam Market and Information Exchange Clé Lesger, 2016-12-05 Most scholars agree that during the sixteenth century the centre of European international trade shifted from Antwerp to Amsterdam presaging the economic rise of the Dutch Republic in the following century Traditionally this shift has been accepted as the natural consequence of a dynamic and progressive city such as Amsterdam taking advantage of expanding commercial opportunities at the expense of a more conservative rival hampered by outmoded medieval practices Yet whilst this theory is widely accepted is it accurate In this groundbreaking study Clé Lesger argues that the shift of commercial power from Antwerp to Amsterdam was by no means inevitable and that the highly specialized economy of the Low Countries was more than capable of adapting to the changing needs of international trade It was only when the Dutch Revolt and military campaigns literally divided the Low Countries into separate states that the existing stable spatial economy and port system fell apart and a restructuring was needed Within this process of restructuring the port of Amsterdam acquired a function radically different to the one it had prior to the division of the Netherlands Before the Revolt it had served as the northern outpost in a gateway system centred on Antwerp but with access of that port now denied to the new republic Amsterdam developed as the main centre for Dutch shipping trade and crucially the exchange of information Drawing on a wide variety of neglected archival collections including those of the Bank of Amsterdam this study not only addresses specific historical questions concerning the commercial life of the Low Countries but through the case study of Amsterdam also explores wider issues of early modern European commercial trade and economic development Tijdschrift voor sociale geschiedenis, 1997
