Bringing together an international range of scholars as well as filmmakers and curators this book explores the rich variety in form and content of the contemporary art documentary Since their emergence in the late 1940s as a distinct genre documentaries about the visual arts have made significant contributions to art education public television and documentary filmmaking yet they have received little scholarly attention from either art history or film studies Documenting the Visual Arts brings that attention to the fore Whether considering documentaries about painting sculpture photography performance art site specific installation or fashion the chapters of this book engage with the key question of intermediality how film can reframe other visual arts through its specific audio visual qualities in order to generate new ways of understanding those arts The essays illuminate furthermore how art documentaries raise some of the most critical issues of the contemporary global art world specifically the discourse of the artist the dynamics of documentation and the visibility of the museum Contributors discuss documentaries by filmmakers such as Frederick Wiseman Lynn Herschman Leeson Jia Zhangke and Trisha Ziff and about artists such as Michael Heizer Ai Weiwei Do Ho Suh and Marina Abramovi This collection of new international and interdisciplinary scholarship on visual art documentaries is ideal for students and scholars of visual arts and filmmaking as well as art history arts education and media studies

The Fetish Massimo Fusillo, 2017-09-21 Object fetishism is becoming a more and more pervasive phenomenon Focusing on literature and the visual arts including cinema this book suggests a parallelism between fetishism and artistic creativity based on a poetics of detail which has been brilliantly exemplified by Flaubert's style After exploring canonical accounts of fetishism Marx Freud Benjamin by combining a historicist approach with theoretical speculation Massimo Fusillo identifies a few interpretive patterns of object fetishism such as seduction from Apollonius of Rhodes to Max Ophüls memory activation from Goethe to Louise Bourgeois and Pamuk and the topos of the animation of the inanimate Whereas all these patterns are characterized by a projection of emotional values onto objects modernism highlights a more latent component of object fetishism the fascination with the alterity of matter variously inflected by Proust Woolf Joyce Barnes and Mann The last turning point in Fusillo's analysis is postmodernism and its obsession with mass media icons from DeLillo's maximalist frescos and Zadie Smith's reflections on autographs to Palahniuk's porn objects from pop art to commodity sculpture

Gender, Creation Myths and their Reception in Western Civilization Lisa Maurice, Tovi Bibring, 2022-01-13 This volume offers an instructive comparative perspective on the Judaic Christian Greek and Roman myths about the creation of humans in relation to each other as well as a broad overview of their enduring relevance in the modern Western world and its conceptions of gender and identity Taking the idea that the way in which a society regards humanity and especially the roots of humanity is crucial to an understanding of that society it presents the different models for the creation and nature of mankind and their changing receptions over a range of periods and places It thereby demonstrates that the myths reflect fundamental continuities evolutions and developments across cultures and societies in no context are these more apparent than with regard to gender Chapters explore the role of gender in Graeco

Roman and Judaeo Christian creation myths and their reception traditions demonstrating how perceptions of male and female dating back to antiquity have become embedded in and significantly influenced subsequent perceptions of gender roles Focusing on the figures of Prometheus Pandora Adam and Eve and their instantiations in a broad range of narratives and media from antiquity to the present day they examine how variations on these myths reflect the concerns of the societies producing them and the malleability of the stories as they are recast to fit different contexts and different audiences The Sorcerer of Bayreuth Barry Millington, 2012-10-29 Richard Wagner 1813-1883 is one of the most influential and also one of the most controversial composers in the history of music Over the course of his long career he produced a stream of spellbinding works that challenged musical convention through their richness and tonal experimentation ultimately paving the way for modernism This book presents an in depth but easy to read overview of Wagner's life work and times It considers a wide range of themes including the composer's original sources of inspiration his fetish for exotic silks his relationship with his wife Cosima and with his mistress Mathilde Wesendonck the anti-Semitism that is undeniably present in the operas their proto-cinematic nature and the turbulent legacy both of the Bayreuth Festival and of Wagnerism itself Making use of the very latest scholarship much of it undertaken by the author himself in connection with his editorship of The Wagner Journal Millington reassesses received notions about Wagner and his work demolishing ill-informed opinion in favour of proper critical understanding It is a radical and occasionally controversial reappraisal of this most perplexing of composers The volume's arrangement unique among books on the composer combines an accessible text intriguing images and original documents thus ensuring a consistently fresh approach Bringing new insights to an endlessly fascinating subject The Sorcerer of Bayreuth will charm anyone interested in music and in the wider cultural life of the 19th century and beyond
