Papunya School Of Country And History:

Papunya School Book of Country and History Papunya School, Nadia Wheatley, 2001 Multi award winning The Papunya School Book of Country and History is a unique and fascinating account of the history of Western Desert communities from an Indigenous perspective Just Words? Bernadette M. Brennan, 2008 Over the past decade Australians have witnessed a significant shift to more insular and conservative economic ethical and cultural norms The problems of valuing and achieving justice seem more acute than ever yet the solutions to those problems are not obvious nor are those in power taking the lead In this powerful collection Australian writers including Gail Jones Eva Sallis and Frank Brennan explore the relationship between writing and justice a relationship utterly dependent on informed ethical readers These essays from poets essayists academics playwrights critics and novelists demonstrate how it is possible for writing to articulate concerns of justice enlighten the broader community and move citizens to action BOOK JACKET International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Peter Hunt, 2004-08-02 Children s publishing is a huge international industry and there is ever growing interest from researchers and students in the genre as cultural object of study and tool for education and socialization

Making Waves Marele Day, Fay Knight, Susan Bradley Smith, 2006 This anthology celebrates 10 years of the Byron Bay Writers Festival with contributions from twenty four leading Australian writers who have also appeared at the Festival Writers include Kate Grenville Peter Goldsworthy Christopher Kremmer Anita Heiss Roger McDonald Nick Earls and Thea Astley and topics addressed range from the deeply personal to the powerfully political At a time when discussion can be read as sedition and free expression is increasingly muted writers festivals are important forums for independent intelligent discussion something the Byron Bay Writers Festival has provided from its inception Writers address the things that matter to them as writers and as Australians and contributions range from essays to short stories and a poem Like the Festival itself the anthology is by turns and sometimes all at once passionate considered witty and intellectual and provides a fascinating overview of Australian writers today Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford, 2007-04-26 Children s books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children s Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children s literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures Teaching Literacy in the Visible Learning Classroom, Grades K-5 Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, John Hattie, 2017-01-20 Teach with optimum impact to foster deeper expressions of literacy Whether through direct instruction guided instruction peer led and independent learning every student deserves a great teacher not by chance but by design In this companion to Visible Learning for Literacy Fisher Frey and Hattie show you how to use learning intentions success criteria formative assessment and feedback to achieve profound instructional clarity Chapter by chapter this acclaimed author team helps put a range of learning strategies into practice depending upon whether your K 5 students are ready for surface deep or transfer levels of understanding

Bush, City, Cyberspace John Foster, Ern Finnis, Maureen Nimon, 2005-06-01 Aimed at academic professional and general readers Bush city cyberspace provides a snapshot of the state of Australian children s and adolescent literature in the early twenty first century and an insight into its history In doing so it promotes a sense of where Australian literature for young people may be going and captures a literary and critical mood with which readers in Australia and beyond will identify The title of the work is intended to capture the fact that the field has changed dramatically in the century and a half that Australian children s literature has existed from the bush myths and heroism that inform the past and the present through the recognition that the vast majority of authors and readers live in cities to the third wave of cyberliterature that incorporates multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children s Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work

The House that Was Eureka Nadia Wheatley, 2013-09-25 Winner of the New South Wales Premier s Children s Book Award 1985 It s 1981 and Evie is sixteen She has left school but can t find work and her family has just moved into the run down inner Sydney suburb of Newtown Noel lives in the adjoining terrace house He s fifteen not taking school seriously and fed up with looking after his ancient bed ridden grandmother As a friendship grows between Evie and Noel the past is set back in motion and the events of the 1930s Depression era begin to play out in the high unemployment times of the early 1980s and the house again is the centre of the Sydney anti eviction campaign of 1931 Based on historical fact meticulously researched The House that Was Eureka is a critically acclaimed novel about a history we all share Nadia Wheatley is a long standing fixture of Australian literature having written fiction and non fiction for both children and adults Seven of her books have been Children s Book Council of Australia Honour Books including Five Times Dizzy The House that Was Eureka and My

Place She has won the New South Wales Premier's Children's Book Prize twice for The House that Was Eureka and Five Times Dizzy and is known and respected for her contributions to Indigenous communities and the preservation of environment Nadia is currently the Artist in Residence at The University of Sydney textclassics.com.au A fine piece of work well researched and beautifully plotted around the Depression when people were tipped out of their houses by landlords and unemployed men took to the roads with swags Sydney Morning Herald An absorbing and wholly convincing recreation of the Depression of the 1930s with the traumatic experiences of the Cruise family destitute and threatened with eviction running parallel to the problems of today Australian Book Review Wheatley's book has urgency and a fierce strength The characters from both eras are alive and flying freedom fighters who are aware that they are making history Maurice Saxby

Intercultural Communication Ingrid Piller, 2017-06-27 Combining perspectives from discourse analysis and sociolinguistics the second edition of this popular textbook provides students with an up to date overview of the field of intercultural communication Ingrid Piller explains communication in context using two main approaches The first treats cultural identity difference and similarity as discursive constructions The second informed by bilingualism studies highlights the use and prestige of different languages and language varieties as well as the varying access that speakers have to them

Canon Constitution and Canon Change in Children's Literature Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, Anja Muller, 2016-12-01 This volume focuses on the de canonization processes in children's literature considering the construction and cultural historical changes of canons in different children's literatures Chapters by international experts in the field explore a wide range of different children's literatures from Great Britain Germany Scandinavia the Low Countries Eastern and Central Europe as well as from Non European countries such as Australia Israel and the United States Situating the inquiry within larger literary and cultural studies conversations about canonicity the contributors assess representative authors and works that have encountered changing fates in the course of canon history Particular emphasis is given to sociological canon theories which have so far been under represented in canon research in children's literature The volume therefore relates historical changes in the canon of children's literature not only to historical changes in concepts of childhood but to more encompassing political social economic cultural and ideological shifts This volume's comparative approach takes cognizance of the fact that if canon formation is an important cultural factor in nation building processes a comparative study is essential to assessing transnational processes in canon formation This book thus renders evident the structural similarities between patterns and strategies of canon formation emerging in different children's literatures

Narrative Life Neil Hooley, 2009-04-29 Indigenous education is one of the great challenges facing humanity in the historic quest for a democratic and peaceful future The 370 million Indigenous peoples of the world demand that the racist and colonial wrongs of the past be rectified and that they stand as equals in confronting the social political and cultural problems that surround us all Education offers a way forward whether concerned with the public good schooling for all citizens including universal primary education and expanding secondary education the education of women regardless of background the inclusion of local cultures literacy and numeracy for all as a democratic right and the provision of comprehensive education that enables both personal aspiration cultural satisfaction and economic pathways What this means is that all children no matter where they live no matter what their background or the colour of their skin should expect to have access to education of the highest quality This does not impose a particular style of education for local communities but respects that educational directions must be decided independently by countries themselves Within this general context there is also something most profound about Indigenous knowing of appreciating Indigenous perspectives and applying these across all knowledge across all subjects of a curriculum Rather than accepting the one often highly conservative and dominant view of knowledge teaching and learning for all schools Indigenous perspectives offer other insights and means of analysis reflection and critique These can open up fields of creative and critical learning for all children including the dispossessed marginalised and disenfranchised Australian Book Review, 2003

Children's Literature in Place Željka Flegar, Jennifer M. Miskec, 2024-02-29 Children's Literature in Place Surveying the Landscapes of Children's Culture is an edited collection dedicated to individual international and interdisciplinary considerations of the places and spaces of children's literature media and culture from content to methodology in fictional virtual and material settings This volume proposes a survey of the changing landscapes of children's culture the expected and unexpected spaces and places that emerge as and because of children's culture The places and spaces of children's literature are varied and diverse By making place studies a guiding principle this book builds on the impressive body of international research on place in children's literature media and culture to bring together and provide a comprehensive overview of how to study place in children's and young adult literature This volume provides a wide range of approaches and international perspectives of place in children's literature media and culture and contributes to this growing and relevant field by showcasing various scholarly aspects and approaches to children's literature and the place of children's literature in the context of international scholarship

Indigenous Language and Social Identity Brett Joseph Baker, Rod Gardner, Mark Harvey, Ilana Mushin, 2010 For almost 40 years Michael Walsh has been working alongside Indigenous people documenting language music and other traditional knowledge acting on behalf of claimants to land in the Northern Territory and making crucial contributions to the revitalisation of Aboriginal languages in NSW This volume with contributions from his colleagues and students celebrates his abiding interest in and commitment to Indigenous society with papers in two broad themes Language identity and country addresses the often complex relations between Aboriginal social groups and countries and linguistic identity In Language identity and social action authors discuss the role that language plays in maintaining social identities in the realms of conversation story telling music language games and in education Language and Social Identity in Australian Indigenous Communities will be of interest to students of linguistics Indigenous studies anthropology and sociology Literacy Gordon Winch,2006 Providing an introduction to the principal literacy theories while maintaining a focus on the practical application of literacy skills to everyday teaching this book is divided into three parts Reading Writing and Children s Literature La sfida dell'arte indigena australiana Franca Tamisari,Francesca Di Blasio,2007 The New McCulloch's Encyclopedia of Australian Art Alan McCulloch,Susan McCulloch,Emily McCulloch Childs,2006 Widely regarded as the authoritative reference on Australian art with its extensive colour plates and 4500 entries Fully illustrated with more than 700 images on 1200 pages Entries include Aboriginal art Abstractionism art links sculptors photographers craft workers and printmakers and much more Time, Religion and History William Gallois,2014-06-11 What is time How does our sense of time lead us to approach the world How did the peoples of the past view time This book answers these questions through an investigation of the cultures of time in Christianity Islam Buddhism Judaism and the Australian Dreamtime It argues that our contemporary world is blind as to the significance and complexity of time preferring to believe that time is natural and unchanging This is of critical importance to historians since the base matter of their study is time yet there is almost no theoretical literature on time in history This book offers the first detailed historiographical study of the centrality of time to human cultures It sets out the complex ways in which ideas of time developed in the major world religions and the manner in which such conceptions led people both to live in ways very different to our contemporary world and to make very different kinds of histories It goes on to argue that modern scientific descriptions of time such as Einsteins Theory of Relativity lie much closer to the complex understandings of time in religions such as Christianity than they do to our common sense notions of time which are centred on progress through a past present and future History of Bilingual Education in the Northern Territory Brian Clive Devlin,Samantha Disbray,Nancy Regine Friedman Devlin,2017-03-07 This book provides the first detailed history of the Bilingual Education Program in the Northern Territory of Australia This ambitious and innovative program began in 1973 and at different times it operated in English and 19 Aboriginal languages in 29 very remote schools The book draws together the grassroots perspectives of Indigenous and non Indigenous practitioners and researchers Each chapter is based on rich practitioner experience capturing bottom up aspirations achievements and reflections on this innovative yet largely undocumented language and education program The volume also makes use of a significant collection of grey literature documents to trace the history of the program An ethnographic approach has been used to integrate practitioner accounts into the contexts of broader social and political forces education policy decisions and on the ground actions Language in education policy is viewed at multiple intersecting levels from the interactions of individuals communities of practice and bureaucracy to national and global forces The book offers valuable insights as it examines in detail the policy settings that helped and hindered bilingual education in the context of minority language rights in Australia and elsewhere Children's Book Review Index Gary C. Tarbert,2002
