From Hardtack to Homefries Barbara Haber,2010-05-11 Barbara Haber one of America s most respected authorities on the history of food has spent years excavating fascinating stories of the ways in which meals cooked and served by women have shaped American history As any cook knows every meal and every diet has a story whether it relates to presidents and first ladies or to the poorest of urban immigrants From Hardtack to Home Fries brings together the best and most inspiring of those stories from the 1840s to the present focusing on a remarkable assembly of little known or forgotten Americans who determined what our country ate during some of its most trying periods Haber s secret weapon is the cookbook She unearths cookbooks and menus from rich and poor urban and rural long past and near present and uses them to answer some fascinating puzzles Why was the food in Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt s White House so famously bad Were they trying to keep guests away or did they themselves simply lack the taste to realize the truth It turns out that Eleanor s chef wrote a cookbook which solves the mystery How did food lure settlers to the hardship of the American West Englishman Fred Harvey s Harvey Girls tempted them with good food and good women How did cooking keep alive World War II Army and Navy POWs in the Pacific A remarkable cookbook reveals how recollections of home cooking and cooking resourcefulness helped mend bodies and spirits From Hardtack to Home Fries uses a light touch to survey a deeply important subject Women s work and women s roles in America s past have not always been easy to recover Barbara Haber shows us that a single ubiquitous ordinary yet extraordinary lens can illuminate a great deal of this other half of our past Haber includes sample recipes and rich photographs bringing the food of bygone eras back to life From Hardtack to Home Fries is a feast and a delight

Norman,2009-06-09 Tears in the Darkness is an altogether new look at World War II that exposes the myths of war and shows the extent of suffering and loss on both sides For the first four months of 1942 U S Filipino and Japanese soldiers fought what was America s first major land battle of World War II the battle for the tiny Philippine peninsula of Bataan It ended with the surrender of 76 000 Filipinos and Americans the single largest defeat in American military history The defeat though was only the beginning as Michael and Elizabeth M Norman make dramatically clear in this powerfully original book From then until the Japanese surrendered in August 1945 the prisoners of war suffered an ordeal of unparalleled cruelty and savagery forty one months of captivity starvation rations dehydration hard labor deadly disease and torture far from the machinations of General Douglas MacArthur The Normans bring to the story remarkable feats of reportage and literary empathy Their protagonist Ben Steele is a figure out of Hemingway a young cowboy turned sketch artist from Montana who joined the army to see the world Juxtaposed against Steele s story and the sobering tale of the Death March and its aftermath is the story of a number of Japanese soldiers The Publishers Weekly ,1946
