Reclaiming Identity Realist Theory:

Reclaiming Identity Paula M. L. Moya, Michael R. Hames-García, 2000-12-14 Identity is one of the most hotly debated topics in literary theory and cultural studies This bold and groundbreaking collection of ten essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences for how people experience the world Advocating a postpositivist realist approach to identity the essays examine the ways in which theory politics and activism clash with or complement each other providing an alternative to the widely influential postmodernist understandings of identity Although theoretical in orientation this dynamic collection deals with specific social groups Chicanas/os African Americans gay men and lesbians Asian Americans and others and concrete social issues directly related to race ethnicity sexuality epistemology and political resistance Satya Mohanty's brilliant exegesis of Toni Morrison's Beloved serves as a launching pad for the collection The essays that follow written by prominent and up and coming scholars address a range of topics from the writings of Cherrie Moraga Franz Fanon Joy Kogawa and Michael Nava to the controversy surrounding racial program housing on college campuses and work toward a truly interdisciplinary approach to identity

Reclaiming Identity: Realist Theory and the Predicament of Postmodernism Moya, Paula M. L. (ed.), 2001 Identities has become very important in today's world in which globalisation tends to wipe out differences between groups It is one of the most hotly debated topics in many disciplines including literary theory and cultural studies This bold and groundbreaking collection of essays argues that identity is not just socially constructed but has real epistemic and political consequences for how people experience the world

Identity Politics Reconsidered L. Alcoff, M. Hames-García, S. Mohanty, Michael Hames-García, Paula M.L. Moya, 2006-01-09 Based on the ongoing work of the agenda setting Future of Minority Studies national research project Identity Politics Reconsidered reconceptualizes the scholarly and political significance of social identity It focuses on the deployment of identity within ethnic women's disability and gay and lesbian studies in order to stimulate discussion about issues that are simultaneously theoretical and practical ranging from ethics and epistemology to political theory and pedagogical practice This collection of powerful essays by both well known and emerging scholars offers original answers to questions concerning the analytical legitimacy of identity and experience and the relationships among cultural autonomy moral universalism and progressive politics

Identity Politics in Deconstruction Carolyn D'Cruz, 2016-05-13 Identity politics dominates the organisation of liberation movements today This is the case whether fighting over one's birthright to a nation such as in the Palestinian Israeli conflict lobbying for civil rights such as in gay and lesbian campaigns for marriage or struggling for citizenry recognition as currently experienced by asylum seekers In this book Carolyn D Cruz investigates the nexus between what David Birch describes as the seemingly impossible of high theory and the seemingly accessible possibilities of popular discourse as encountered in liberation movements based on identity D Cruz reworks the logic of such movements through the unique combination of Derridean deconstruction Foucauldian discourse and Levinasian ethics Moving both within and between the domains of philosophy politics and postmodern culture this book offers both a clear explication of complex philosophical issues and an understanding of how they relate to the political practicalities of everyday life

Identity in Education S. Sánchez-Casal, 2009-05-25 This volume explores the impact of social identity on teaching and learning The contributors argue from the perspective of diverse disciplinary and educational contexts that mobilizing identities in the classroom is a necessary part of progressive educators efforts to transform knowledge making and to create a more just and democratic society

Metamodernism Robin van den Akker, Alison Gibbons,, Timotheus Vermeulen, 2017-11-29 Metamodernism Historicity Affect Depth brings together many of the most influential voices in the scholarly and critical debate about post postmodernism and twenty first century aesthetics arts and culture By relating cutting edge analyses of contemporary literature the visual arts and film and television to recent social technological and economic developments the volume provides both a map and an itinerary of today s metamodern cultural landscape As its organising principle the book takes Fredric Jameson s canonical arguments about the waning of historicity affect and depth in the postmodern culture of western capitalist societies in the twentieth century and re evaluates and reconceptualises these notions in a twenty first century context In doing so it shows that the contemporary moment should be regarded as a transitional period from the postmodern and into the metamodern cultural moment

Ethnic Studies Research Timothy P. Fong, 2008 Ethnic Studies Research synthesizes and benchmarks ethnic studies methodologies as interdisciplinary modes of inquiry providing state of the art summary chapters on key methods and issues extensive bibliographies and promising new directions for the future The study of ethnic groups and race relations has always existed in academia primarily in the areas of sociology and anthropology However grassroots movements for ethnic studies programs and departments developed with very different agendas for the study of these groups It is surprising then that relatively few books devoted to these methods exist to document and promote this innovation among succeeding generations of graduate students as well as current academics and professional practitioners Ethnic Studies Research is a step toward ending that void Book jacket

The SAGE Handbook of Identities Margaret Wetherell, Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2010-04-14 Increasingly identities are the site for interdisciplinary initiatives and identity research is at the heart of many transdisciplinary research centres around the world No single social science discipline owns identity research which makes it a difficult topic to categorize The SAGE Handbook of Identities systematizes this complex field by incorporating its interdisciplinary character to provide a comprehensive overview of its themes in contemporary research while still acknowledging the historical and philosophical significance of the concept of identity. Drawing on a global scholarship the Handbook has four parts. Part 1 Frameworks presents the main theoretical and methodological perspectives in identities research. Part 2 Formations covers the major formative forces for identities such as culture, globalisation, migratory patterns, biology and so on. Part 3 Categories reviews research on the core social categories which are central to identity such as ethnicity, gender, sexuality, disability and social class and intersections between these. Part 4 Sites and Context develops a series of case studies of crucial sites and contexts where identity is at stake such as social movements, relationships and family life, work places and environments and citizenship.

Borgstrom,2010-07-05 Through close readings of texts by African American and women authors Minority Reports offers a theoretical defense of the use of identity categories in American studies by examining how early American literature not only responds to the social stratification of the nineteenth century but also challenges modern historical conceptions of this era Religion without Belief Jeanne Ellen Petrolle,2008-06-05 In our present cultural moment when God is supposed to be dead and metaphysical speculation unfashionable why does postmodern fiction in a variety of genres make such frequent use of the ancient rhetorical form of allegory In Religion without Belief Jean Ellen Petrolle argues that contrary to popular understandings of postmodernism as an irreligious and amoral climate postmodern allegory remains deeply engaged in the quest for religious insight Examining a range of films and novels this book shows that postmodern fiction despite its posturing about the unverifiable nature of truth and reality routinely offers theological and cosmological speculation Works considered include virtual reality films such as The Matrix and The Truman Show avant garde films and Amerindian and feminist novels
