Reclaiming the Commons for the Common Good Heather Menzies,2014-04-28 Commoning was a way of life for most of our ancestors In Reclaiming the Commons for the Common Good author Heather Menzies journeys to her roots in the Scottish Highlands where her family lived in direct relation with the land since before recorded time Beginning with an intimate account of unearthing the heritage of the commons and the real tragedy of its loss Menzies offers a detailed description of the self organizing self governing and self informing principles of this nearly forgotten way of life including its spiritual practices and traditions She then identifies pivotal commons practices that could be usefully revived today A final manifesto section pulls these facets together into a unified vision for reclaiming the commons drawing a number of current popular initiatives into the commoning frame such as local food security permaculture and the Occupy Movement An engaging memoir of personal and political discovery Reclaiming the Commons for the Common Good combines moving reflections on our common heritage with a contemporary call to action individually and collectively locally and globally Readers will be inspired by the book s vision of reviving the commons ethos of empathy and mutual respect and energized by her practical suggestions for connection people and place for the common good Heather Menzies is an award winning writer and scholar and member of the Order of Canada She is the author of nine books including Whose Brave New World and No Time Reclaiming the Commons ,1993 Reclaiming the Commons Vandana Shiva,2020-07-14 Authored by world renowned activist and environmental leader Vandana Shiva Reclaiming the Commons presents the history of the struggle to defend biodiversity and traditional practices against corporate biopiracy and details efforts to realize legal rights for Mother Earth and achieve the vision of the universal commons and Earth as Family Whose Common Future? ,1993

Democracy, Markets and the Commons Lukas Peter,2021-01-12 How can we overcome the existing political economic and ecological crises that humanity faces With the notion of the commons Lukas Peter argues that this form of social organization can provide answers to the shortcomings of centralized states and open and competitive markets By building on and going beyond the work of Elinor and Vincent Ostrom he develops an ecological understanding of the commons and human freedom more generally thereby reinterpreting classical thinkers such as John Locke and John Rawls Importantly he does not suggest an end to property states or markets but rather a radical democratization thereof ultimately providing a real alternative for the 21st century The Puppeteer's Strings ,2025-07-05 In an age where technology promises boundless connection yet leaves us feeling lonelier and more divided The Puppeteer's Strings challenges us to confront the invisible forces shaping our minds and lives This profound exploration delves into how ubiquitous technology has transformed human interaction redefined purpose and curated our realities From algorithmic control and digital surveillance to the subtle manipulation of propaganda and the fragmentation of truth the book uncovers the mechanisms that reduce life to metrics and commodify meaning Drawing on timeless wisdom from Aristotle's eudaimonia Stoic resilience Taoist harmony and existentialist freedom Min Hyonu offers a powerful antidote to the Age of Noise It is a journey to reclaim agency break free from digital determinism and redefine what it means to live authentically in a tech driven world The Puppeteer's Strings is not a rejection of technology but an urgent call to examine how we use our tools or how they use us It's for anyone ready to challenge assumptions resist the pull of apathy and reclaim their purpose in a world designed to distract and conform Are you in control of your life or are you being controlled The journey to cut the strings begins here

Law, Social Movements and the Politics of the Commons Veronica Pecile, 2025-02-17 This book reinterprets the notion of the commons by tracing how it has been mobilised in the aftermath of economic crisis In a period of widespread activism against the privatisation of resources and services implemented through austerity policies the reconceptualisation of property as a non absolute and non individualistic institution has attracted a great deal of attention Drawing on the case of the Italian South and in the wake of economic crisis this book offers a critical analysis of the struggle for the commons More specifically as it details how discourses legal tools and policies based on disciplinary ideas of the commons are deployed in the neoliberal restructuring of societies the book considers how conflicting ideas of the commons express different and often clashing visions of urban space In this regard moreover it shows how law plays a central albeit ambivalent role in the struggle for the commons as both a governmental technique to regulate urban space and its residents and as an emancipatory tactic to advance non proprietary visions of ownership This book will be of interest to scholars in socio legal studies property law legal sociology and politics as well as others with more general interests in the critical potential of contemporary social movements

Reclaiming the Commons for the Common Good Heather Menzies, 2014-05-13 An engaging and intimate journey of personal and political discovery

Carving Out the Commons Amanda Huron, 2018-03-13 An investigation of the practice of commoning in urban housing and its necessity for challenging economic injustice in our rapidly gentrifying cities Provoked by mass evictions and the onset of gentrification in the 1970s tenants in Washington D C began forming cooperative organizations to collectively purchase and manage their apartment buildings These tenants were creating a commons taking a resource housing that had been used to extract profit from them and reshaping it as a resource that was collectively owned by them In Carving Out the Commons Amanda Huron theorizes the practice of urban commoning through a close investigation of the city's limited equity housing cooperatives Drawing on feminist and anticapitalist perspectives Huron asks whether a commons can work in a city where land and other resources are scarce and how strangers who may not share a past or future come together to create and maintain commonly held spaces in the midst of capitalism Arguing against the romanticization of the commons she instead positions the urban commons as a pragmatic practice Through the practice of commoning she contends we can learn to build communities to challenge capitalism's totalizing claims over life Accounts and Papers of the House of Commons Great Britain.
