Yolanda Flores Niemann, Gabriella Gutiérrez y Muhs, Carmen G. González, 2020-04-15 The courageous and inspiring personal narratives and empirical studies in Presumed Incompetent II: Race, Class, Power, and Resistance of Women in Academia name formidable obstacles and systemic biases that all women faculty from diverse intersectional and transnational identities and from tenure track terminal contract and administrative positions encounter in their higher education careers. They provide practical, specific and insightful guidance to fight back, prevail and thrive in challenging work environments. This new volume comes at a crucial historical moment as the United States grapples with a resurgence of white supremacy and misogyny at the forefront of our social and political dialogues that continue to permeate the academic world.
