Akih, 2025-05-06 This book offers a conceptual analysis of reason proposing a plausible theory to resolve persistent vagueness in the historical use of the concept The proposed theory leads to the view that reason is fundamentally subjective and dependent on non inferential matters of faith Despite the inherent subjectivity we can arrive at a consensus in reasoning exercises because we all participate in a universal minimum religion that grounds all reasoning True atheism is therefore impossible This analysis bears on debates about the relation between faith and reason as well as the relation between ethics based on reason and ethics based on sentiments The book further shows that this new and original view of religiously constrained reason ought to equally inform our thinking about applied ethics such as politics law and economics

Consciousness Neil Rossman,1991-01-21 A central claim of this book is that the emergence of humanity involves a splitting of consciousness the ability of consciousness to become reflectively aware of itself But the splitting of consciousness is simultaneously the development of the possibility of fragmentation incoherence within consciousness and alienation non unity of consciousness with others and the world Thus through the growth of reflective consciousness separation comes to permeate the whole of human experience So understood it creates the need for integration and Rossman s discussion ultimately centers on its attainment Within this perspective various aspects of consciousness including perception organic sensation desire and belief are explored There is also extensive discussion of personal identity or the experience of being a self Finally the above analyses provide the ground for discussions of freedom morality and being religious

Recollection in the Republics Imogen

Peck,2021-04-28 Following the execution of Charles I in January 1649 England's fledgling republic was faced with a dilemma which parts of the nation's bloody recent past should be remembered and how and which were best consigned to oblivion Across the country the state's opponents local communities and individual citizens were grappling with many of the same questions as calls for remembrance vied with the competing goals of reconciliation security and the peaceful settlement of the state Recollection in the Republics provides the first comprehensive study of the ways Britain's Civil Wars were remembered in the decade between the regicide and the restoration Drawing on a wide ranging and innovative source base it places the national authorities attempts to shape the meaning of the recent past alongside evidence of what the English people lords and labourers men and women veterans and civilians actually were remembering Recollection in the Republics demonstrates that memories of the domestic conflicts were central to the politics and society of England's republican interval inflecting national and local discourses complicating and transforming inter personal relationships and infusing and forging individual and collective identities In so doing it enhances our understanding of the nature of early modern memory and the experience of post civil war states more broadly Memory was a multifaceted dynamic resource and this book emphasises its fecundity the manifold meanings it possessed and the creativity of those who deployed it Further by situating 1650s England in relation to other post conflict societies both within and beyond early modernity it points to a consistency in some of the challenges that have confronted post civil war states across time and space The Late Tang Stephen Owen,2020-03-17

The poetry of the Late Tang often looked backward and many poets of the period distinguished themselves through the intensity of their retrospective gaze Chinese poets had always looked backward to some degree but for many Late Tang poets the echoes and the traces of the past had a singular aura In this work Stephen Owen resumes telling the literary history of the Tang that he began in his works on the Early and High Tang Focusing in particular on Du Mu Li Shangyin and Wen Tingyun he analyzes the redirection of poetry that followed the deaths of the major poets of the High and Mid Tang and the rejection of their poetic styles The Late Tang Owen argues forces us to change our very notion of the history of poetry Poets had always drawn on past poetry but in the Late Tang the poetic past was beginning to assume the form it would have for the next millennium it was becoming a repertoire of available choices styles genres the voices of past poets It was this repertoire that would endure Reading Hegel Robert Lucas Scott,2025-03-14

Retrieves Hegelian speculative experience for literary theory The relationship between Hegel and literary theory has for a long time been both contested and paradoxical On the one hand theory is often skeptical of all that Hegel ostensibly stood for idealism systematicity and identity at the expense of difference Yet in spite of itself literary theory is taken to owe a profound debt to Hegel's philosophy Robert Lucas Scott's book complicates this account and argues that literary theory has made the mistake of abstracting Hegel's thought from its more dynamic presentation in Hegel's writings reducing Hegel to a series of propositions or positions Literary theory Scott argues misses what is perhaps the greatest innovation of Hegel's philosophy a presentation of experience that begins precisely by setting aside all preconceptions or prior assumptions It is on this point that Hegel's philosophy itself approaches literature its content cannot be simply abstracted from the singular experience of reading it Only through a mode of reading alive to speculative experience can literary theory become truly Hegelian Scott's exposition of Hegel offers a model of reading with relevance beyond philosophy one that is critical without pretensions of mastery and detachment and that honors the singularity of the reading experience without succumbing to the subjectivism of the postcritical The book also includes engagements with the work of Luther Kant Marx Gillian Rose Fredric Jameson Robert Brandom Catherine Malabou and more in its recovery of Hegel's thought for a critical understanding of our time      Remembering the Story of Israel Aubrey E. Buster, 2022-05-19 This book investigates the historical summary within the Hebrew Bible and Second Temple Judaism as a strategic mode of commemoration
