Reconcilable Differences In Eighteenth Century English Literature:

Reconcilable Differences in Eighteenth-century English Literature William Bowman Piper, 1999 In this book Piper thus examines major works by Swift Gay Pope Radcliffe and Austen with the awareness of perceptualism that they must have possessed and describes the connections between their works and this philosophy BOOK JACKET Walking the Streets of Eighteenth-Century London Clare Brant, Susan E. Whyman, 2009-01-15 Walking the Streets of Eighteenth Century London will entertain and inform all who are interested in literature history and the city of London This unique book invites the reader to walk along the dirty crowded and fascinating streets of eighteenth century London in an unusual way Nine leading experts from the fields of literature history classics gender biography geography and costume offer different interpretations of John Gay's poem Trivia or the Art of Walking the Streets of London 1716 The poem a lively funny and thought provoking statement about urban life accompanies the essays in a new edition with comprehensive notes The introduction paints a vibrant picture of London in 1716 depicting Gay's fascinating life and literary world offering an invaluable guide to the poem Together these elements allow the heat grime and smells of the underbelly of eighteenth century London come alive in new ways Pope and Berkeley T. Jones, 2005-09-15 The first study dedicated to the relationship between Alexander Pope and George Berkeley this book undertakes a comparative reading of their work on the visual environment economics and providence challenging current ideas of the relationship between poetry and philosophy in early eighteenth century Britain It shows how Berkeley's idea that the phenomenal world is the language of God learnt through custom and experience can help to explain some of Pope's conservative sceptical arguments and also his virtuoso poetic techniques Modernist Invention Edward Allen, 2020-07-23 Modernist Invention attends to the parallel histories of media technology and modernist American poetry The Best Books for Academic Libraries, 2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers Essay and General Literature Index Minnie Earl Sears, Marian Shaw, Dorothy Herbert West, 2000 Includes List of books indexed published also separately The Invention of Northern Aesthetics in 18th-Century English Literature Yvonne Bezrucka, 2018-06-11 Free romantic and individualistic Britain's self image in the eighteenth century constructs itself in opposition to the dominant power of a southern European aesthetics Offering a fresh understanding of how the British intelligentsia created a Northern aesthetics to challenge the European yoke this book explores the roots of British Romanticism and a newly created past Literature the arts architecture and gardening all contributed to the creation of this national enlightened Northern cultural environment with its emphasis on a home grown legal tradition on a heroic Celtic past and on the imagined democracy of King Arthur and his Roundtable of Knights as a prophetic precursor of Constitutional Monarchy Set against the European Grand Tour the British turned to the Domestic Picturesque Anti Grand Tour and alongside a classical literary heritage championed British authors and British empiricism against continental religion that sanctioned an authoritarian politics that the Gothic Novel mocks However if empiricism and common law were vital to this emerging tradition so too was the other driving force of Britain's medieval inheritance the fantasy world of mythic heroes and a celebration of what would come to be known as the fairy way of writing Swift

Literature Charlotte Sussman, 2013-04-18 This engaging book introduces new readers of eighteenth century texts to some of the major works authors and debates of a key period of literary history Rather than simply providing a chronological survey of the era this book analyzes the impact of significant cultural developments on literary themes and forms including urbanization colonial and mercantile expansion the emergence of the public sphere and changes in sex and gender roles In eighteenth century Britain many of the things we take for granted about modern life were shockingly new women appeared for the first time on stage the novel began to dominate the literary marketplace people entertained the possibility that all human beings were created equal and tentatively proposed that reason could triumph over superstition ministers became more powerful than kings and the consumer emerged as a political force Eighteenth Century English Literature 1660 1789 explores these issues in relation to well known works by such authors as Defoe Swift Pope Richardson Gray and Sterne while also bringing attention to less familiar figures such as Charlotte Smith Mary Leapor and Olaudah Equiano It offers both an ideal introduction for students and a fresh approach for those with research interests in the period Choice, 2000 The Representation of the Ottoman Orient in Eighteenth Century English Literature Hasan Baktir, 2010-08-01 Inspired by the growing interest in oriental countries and cultures Hasan Baktir examines the representation of the Ottoman Orient in 18th century English literature taking a new perspective to achieve a comprehensive understanding and investigating different aspects of the interaction between the Ottoman Orient and 18th century Europe A number of questions continue to arise in the wake of Said's 1978 landmark study Orientalism How monodirectional was the flow of power in such representations To what extent did the travelling observer also participate and become influenced by the phenomena he tried to depict without attachment What variety of motivations lay behind the desire to know and represent the Oriental other was it simply a question of political control Or were there deeper more enigmatic factors at play sexuality existential affirmation even utter idiosyncrasy How various and diverse was the Western response to the East can we discern degrees of sympathy knowledge and difference in the various Orients offered to us by the canonical and non canonical figures of 18th century English letters Baktir's study provides answers to many aspects of these questions through a detailed examination of very different texts Baktir does not completely reject Said's argument that European writers created a separate discourse to represent the Orient rather he shows us that there was also a dialogic and negotiating tendency which did not make a radical distinction between the East and the West Relying his argument on 18th century pseudo oriental letters oriental tales and oriental travelogues Baktir demonstrates that the representation of the Ottoman Orient in 18th century English literature differs essentially from earlier centuries because a developing critical and liberal spirit established a negotiation between the two worlds In this book he indicates how the critical and inquisitive spirit of the age of Enlightenment interanimated Oriental and European cultures The Religious Sublime David B. Morris,2014-07-15 This perceptive carefully documented study challenges the traditional assumption that the supernatural virtually disappeared from eighteenth century poetry as a result of the growing rationalistic temper of the late seventeenth century Mr Morris shows that the religious poetry of eighteenth century England while not equaling the brilliant work of seventeenth century and Romantic writers does reveal a vital and serious effort to create a new kind of sacred poetry which would rival the sublimity of Milton and of the Bible itself Tracing the major varieties of religious poetry written throughout the century by major figures and by their now vanished contemporaries the author explains how later poets and critics made significant departures from the established norms These changes in religious poetry thus become a valuable means of understanding the shift from a neoclassical to a Romantic theory of literature Science, Literature and Rhetoric in Early Modern England Juliet Cummins,David Burchell,2007 These essays throw new light on the complex relations between science literature and rhetoric as avenues to discovery in early modern England Analyzing the contributions of such diverse writers as Shakespeare Bacon Hobbes Milton Cavendish Boyle Pope and Behn to contemporary epistemological debates these essays move us toward a better understanding of interactions between the sciences and the humanities during a seminal phase in the development of modern Western thought
