Reconnection Dualism To Holism In Literary Study:

Reconnection Betty Jean Craige, 1988 Reconnection Betty Jean Craige, 2010-11-01 An openly polemical work Reconnection seeks a way of returning the humanities to their place at the center of human life For the past three hundred years to study the humanities has implied an isolation from politics science and society Literary studies in particular have often fallen prey to this isolation by viewing novels plays and poems as impassive verbal icons as texts to be explicated without reference to political context or social significance Seeking a way of ending this self imposed exile of the humanities from the turmoil of social issues and concerns Betty Jean Craige looks to the contextual nondisciplinary thought that began to take hold in academia during the 1960s a development that echoed the rising political awareness brought to the universities by the Vietnam War the civil rights movement and women s liberation Recently this emergent openness in the university has come under attack by conservative critics who have sought to roll back the movement for nontraditional inquiry in academia and to reassert the dominance of hierarchical canonical thought By tracing the ideological history of literary studies Craige shows that this reactionary goal of reimposing canonical thought is in time doomed to failure the age of the discipline is over In its place Craige calls for the creation of a holistic system of learning that will emphasize interdisciplinary and nondisciplinary research reconnecting literary studies with history and philosophy with science and politics restoring literature itself to a central place in our intellectual discourse and social debate The Origins of Literary Studies in America Gerald Graff, Michael Warner, 2024-10-31 Originally published in 1989 The Origins of Literary Studies in America brings together for the first time hard to find speeches reports and other writings by the founders of literary studies in the United States Bliss Perry Woodrow Wilson Irving Babbitt M Carey Thomas and many other scholars between 1874 and 1937 The selections on teaching the MLA and the goals of the discipline are readable accessible often charming and amusing what is most striking about them however is their resemblance to the debates over the crisis of American higher education Gerald Graff and Michael Warner argue against the myth of consensus a naive belief that the academic humanities until quite recently enjoyed a coherent agreement on their goals popularized by such critical voices as Secretary of Education William Bennett E D Hirsch and Allan Bloom This remarkable anthology is a valuable corrective to twentieth century popular views of educational history and a work that broadens our understanding of professionalism within the academy To Mend the World Marjorie Agosín, Betty Jean Craige, 2002 A thought provoking collection of essays written for this anthology

American Patriotism in a Global Society Betty Jean Craige, 1996-07-03 This book argues that the transformation of our world into a global society is causing a resurgence of tribalism at the same time that it is inspiring the ideology of political holism the understanding of human society as an evolving global system of interdependent individuals cultures and nations Betty Jean Craige examines the patriotic resistance to globalization in the United States by examining a number of recent historical events including the Persian Gulf War the 1988 presidential campaign and the Iran Contra scandal A

More Perfect Union Linda Sargent Wood, 2012-08-01 In 1962 when the Cold War threatened to ignite in the Cuban Missile Crisis when more nuclear test bombs were detonated than in any other year in history Rachel Carson released her own bombshell Silent Spring to challenge society's use of pesticides To counter the use of chemicals and bombs the naturalist articulated a holistic vision She wrote about a web of life that connected humans to the world around them and argued that actions taken in one place had consequences elsewhere Thousands accepted her message joined environmental groups flocked to Earth Day celebrations and lobbied for legislative regulation Carson was not the only intellectual to offer holistic answers to society's problems This book uncovers a sensibility in post World War II American culture that both tested the logic of the Cold War and fed some of the twentieth century's most powerful social movements from civil rights to environmentalism to the counterculture The study examines important leaders and institutions that embraced and put into practice a holistic vision for a peaceful healthful and just world nature writer Rachel Carson structural engineer R Buckminster Fuller civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr Jesuit priest and paleontologist Pierre Teilhard de Chardin humanistic psychologist Abraham Maslow and the Esalen Institute and its founders Michael Murphy and Dick Price Each looked to whole systems instead of parts and focused on connections interdependencies and integration to create a better world Though the 60s dreams of creating a more perfect world were tempered by economic inequalities political corruption and deep social divisions this holistic sensibility continues to influence American culture today Literature, Language, and Politics Betty Jean Craige, 2011-03-01 Literature Language and Politics brings together papers drawn from and inspired by the controversial landmark symposium on Politics and the Discipline held at the 1987 Modern Language Association meeting in San Francisco During the 1980s debates raged both within and outside academe over curriculum with conservatives arguing for a return to an educational philosophy based on the classics of Western civilization and a multi cultural coalition of liberals leftists and feminists seeking to preserve the diversity of educational experience fought for since the 1960s Engaging this crucial debate the contributors to Literature Language and Politics argue that the conservative educational agenda imperils not only scholarship and academic freedom but the very social well being of the nation They call for firm resistance to any attempts to make education conform to the social agenda of one race one gender one language or one ideology for a continuation of attempts to broaden the curriculum until it reflects the experience of women and men of all classes and all cultures Includes essays by Henry Louis Gates Jr Gerald Graff Annette Kolodny Paul Lauter Ellen Messer Davidow Catharine R Stimpson and Ana Celia Zentella Telling the Truth National Endowment for the Humanities, 1992 Relativism in the Arts Betty Jean Craige, 2010-12-01 In a world where the acceptance of relativism has caused erosion in the tradition of Cartesian dualism representationalism in the arts has come under serious questioning The contributors to this book seek new standards for defining and evaluating works of art Relativism in the Arts brings together thinkers in the fields of music art criticism literary criticism philosophy and the history of consciousness to confront the problems of relativist aesthetics Their essays range from theoretical discussions of the definition of art in our times to close examinations of particular artworks or art forms The introduction by Betty Jean Craige presents reasons for the cultural self reflectivity that gives rise to the peculiarities of modern art Humanities ,1992 Authoring A Discipline Maureen Daly Goggin,2000-05 This volume examines the development of the rhetoric composition disciplines through a historical analysis of the journals that published scholarship in these areas For scholars researchers teachers and students of composition rhetoric The Art of Excess Tom LeClair,1989 The Leadership Imperative Scott D. Liebhauser,2018-01-22 The topic of leadership is ubiquitous in today's era of experts scholars and gurus With a host of voices promoting a myriad of views on this topic it is hard for one to determine who or what is correct This book gets to the heart of the issue by providing an unashamed and historic basis for leading others using biblical truth as the standard The postmodern epoch is fraught with confusion relativity and chaos as basic terms are redefined historic truths are maligned and cultural mores are upended Consequently leaders in this time are often just as confused as their followers who are leaving a trail of destruction in their wake Fortunately there are answers for those seeking to lead with confidence based on something much grander than personal opinion or subjective reasoning In this work Dr Liebhauser explains the pitfalls leaders face in these fluid times of resistance to anything authoritative while providing sound principles by which to effectively lead The reader will appreciate learning about the historical dynamic which fueled postmodern thinking and find hope in the time tested remedies this book provides What Holism Can Do for Social Theory Barbara Hanson,2014-06-27 This book reconsiders the nature of positivist philosophy in social science theory based on classical and medieval thought in what later became Europe It argues that social theory is being held back by antagonistic debates over science positivism objectivity and universal law debates which appear unnecessary narrow and acontextual when their origins are examined Positing that solutions to these impasses can be found by moving to alternative holistic epistemology and looking at issues in terms of interrelations rather than parts the book shows the promise of a social theory that provides a unit of analysis that mediates between local and global relations Racism in Contemporary America Meyer Weinberg,1996-05-23 Racism in Contemporary America is the largest and most up to date bibliography available on current research on the topic It has been compiled by award winning researcher Meyer Weinberg who has spent many years writing and researching contemporary and historical aspects of racism Almost 15 000 entries to books articles dissertations and other materials are organized under 87 subject headings In addition there are author and ethnic racial indexes Several aids help the researcher access the materials included In addition to the subject organization of the bibliography entries are annotated whenever the title is not self explanatory An author index is followed by an ethnic racial index which makes it convenient to follow a single group through any or all the subject headings This is a source book for the serious study of America's most enduring problem as such it will be of value to students and researchers at all levels and in most disciplines Transgressive Readings Valerie D. Greenberg,1990 Argues for a critical awareness of language across the boundaries of disciplines The Imperiled Academy Howard Dickman,1993-01-01 A senior editor of Reader s Digest has assembled nine essays by academics who take aim at multiculturalism and political correctness as undermining the free speech and intellectual purity of American universities Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Transformed Thinking Edward M. Curtis,John J. Brugaletta,2011-05-01 In Transformed Thinking Loving God With All Your Mind Dr Edward M Curtis argues that every believer needs to take seriously Paul s exhortation in Romans 12 and avoid assimilating from our world and culture values that are contrary to God s truth revealed in Scripture At the same time Curtis maintains that human perception and the human mind are wonderful gifts from God that he expects us to use to the full There are significant truths to be learned from the study of our world and through human experience It is only as we integrate the knowledge available to us through both general and special revelation that we can transform our thinking by loving God with all our heart soul mind and strength and truly glorify his name Relativism Francis J. Beckwith,Gregory Koukl,1998-10 A critique of moral relativism the belief that there exists no objective moral standards that apply to every place person and time Laying the Ladder Down Betty Jean Craige,1992 This timely and provocative book examines a fundamental shift in contemporary Western thought the replacement of the traditional dualistic and hierarchical model of reality by a holistic one Betty Jean Craige traces the emergence of this new paradigm to Charles Darwin whose evolutionary theory exploded the idea of a fixed natural hierarchy and opened the way for a more egalitarian vision of human society as an evolving system of interdependent individuals and cultures Since Darwin s time Craige argues there has been an ongoing struggle in the West between these two conceptions of order a clash that in recent years has manifested itself in volatile debates over sexual and racial equality censorship multiculturalism political correctness the undergraduate curriculum and the environment Craige analyzes each of these controversies and shows how they are at root reflective of the intellectual revolution that began more than a century ago In one chapter she discusses the fundamentalist assault on Salman Rushdie in another the quarrel involving Robert Mapplethorpe and the National Endowment for the Arts In still another she explores the powerful conservative backlash against the perceived threat to Western values comparing it to the creationist attack on Darwin in the late nineteenth century
