Recreation and Leisure Programming Christopher R. Edginton,Rodney B. Dieser,Samuel V. Lankford,Christopher L. Kowalski,2018-03-07 In the 21st century recreation and leisure programmers will face many social cultural economic and environmental changes that affect the recreation and leisure needs interests and attitudes of the people they serve These changes require recreation and leisure programmers who are highly skilled knowledgeable and competent in planning organizing implementing and evaluating recreation and leisure programs and services with the goal of creating high quality high impact leisure experiences Recreation and Leisure Programming A 21st Century Perspective provides key insights into the strategies practices procedures and methods for recreation and leisure programmers to employ to fulfill their responsibility successfully Leisure Services ,1970 Programming for Parks, Recreation, and Leisure Services Donald G. DeGraaf,Debra Jean Jordan,Kathy H. DeGraaf,1999 Meeting the needs of customers through effective recreation programs is imperative for leisure service organizations to survive and prosper in the twenty first century The authors of this book break new ground for recreation programming by interpreting it within the servant leadership approach Servant leadership is based on the premise that all recreation providers serve their customers through programs The servant leadership approach simultaneously enhances the personal growth of workers and improves the quality and caring of our many institutions through a combination of teamwork and community personal involvement in decision making and ethical and caring behavior Whether a leisure services professional works for a municipal recreation department providing recreational sports leagues for adults or for a nonprofit organization providing special events or as a commercial tour operator offering wilderness backpacking trips Programming for Parks Recreation and Leisure Services A Servant Leadership Approach provides both cutting edge concepts and practical knowledge for successful programming Leisure Programming Christopher R. Edginton,2004 This comprehensive text addresses all three levels of leisure programming direct service delivery program planning and program management It focuses on issues related to customer service and benefits such as providing leisure experiences assessing customer needs evaluating program impact promoting positive customer and leader
