Arbitration Law of Czech Republic: Practice and Procedure Alexander J. Belohlávek, 2013-03-01 A comprehensive review of the arbitration law and practice in the Czech Republic including discussion of arbitration practice and procedure an examination of the jurisdiction of the arbitral tribunal the appointment of arbitrators including the challenge and replacement of arbitrators an analysis of the various types of awards including a discussion on deliberations agreements settlements and the costs of arbitration a discussion on the amendment and challenge of awards including the liability of arbitrators and a review of the enforcement of domestic and foreign arbitration awards International Law for Freshwater Protection Agnes Chong, 2022-04-04 International Law for Freshwater Protection traces the development of international water law on fresh water protection and demonstrates how the regime focuses on the utilisation and rights of sovereign states over the protection and sustainable growth of shared water resources The evolving jurisprudence influenced by environmental law highlights the regime s insufficient focus on the environmental protection of watercourses This book argues that existing rules mechanisms and norms within international law can address the regime s imbalance and establish how these might be applied to improve freshwater protection Rome Convention - Rome I Regulation Alexander J. Belohlávek,2011-01-01 As of 17 December 2010 the Rome I Regulation EU Regulation 593/2008 on the law applicable to contractual obligations is directly applicable in all EU Member States with the exception of Denmark The Rome I Regulation replaces the Rome Convention of 1980 in the EU Member States and will apply to all contracts concluded as of 17 December 2010 However and herein lies the utility and great importance of this work the Rome Convention and the Rome I Regulation will be applied in parallel for a significant time to come the author himself anticipates a ten to fifteen year period in the latter case to contracts made after 17 December 2010 This is why this commentary takes into account both sources of law in their mutual interaction and broader context The comprehensiveness of the Rome Convention Rome I Regulation is clearly apparent but one of the great achievements of the author is his amassing of over 1 800 judicial decisions most of which are furnished with a detailed commentary where these decisions apply national laws the latter are cited both in the original and in translation For a number of rulings the commentary include not only a case summary of the facts and an analysis of the conclusions drawn by the court but also takes them as models to hypothesize what conclusions would be reached if the Rome I Regulation were to be applied Recueil des Cours 2001 M.A. Fitzmaurice,2002-08-30 The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law The contents of this volume consist of International Protection of the Environment by M A FITZMAURICE Professor at Queen Mary University of London To access the abstract texts for this volume please click here Recueil Des Cours, Collected Courses, Tome/Volume 300A (Index Tomes/Volumes 2001-2002) Académie de Droit International Law,2005-05-15 The Academy is a prestigious international institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects The work of the Hague Academy receives the support and recognition of the UN Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law Recueil des Cours Hague Academy of International Law. The Normative Position of International Non-Governmental Organizations Under International Law by Rephael Harel Ben-Ari, 2012-05-07. Exploring contemporary juridical theories regarding the normative position of INGOs vis-à-vis the subjects of international law, this book engages in a thorough contextual, historical, and interdisciplinary evaluation of the potential to generate solutions for the exercise of unregulated authority outside the state system.

Private International Law by Franco Ferrari, Diego P. Fernández Arroyo, 2019-12-27. Is Private International Law (PIL) still fit to serve its function in today's global environment? In light of some calls for radical changes to its very foundations, this timely book investigates the ability of PIL to handle contemporary and international problems and inspires genuine debate on the future of the field.

Third-Party Effects of Arbitral Awards by Maximilian Pika, 2019-07-11. The specialization and financial demand of global business render international transactions inherently multilateral and thus best effected through arbitration agreements. However, it often happens that for various reasons, such as a debtor's failure to pay damages ordered by an arbitral tribunal, third parties who did not consent to the original arbitration enter the scene. This is the first book to examine the binding effects of international commercial arbitral awards in follow-up disputes against third parties. It comprehensively analyses arbitral awards, third-party effects under national arbitration laws, the New York Convention, and private international law. Moreover, it proposes solutions under transnational law before both courts and arbitral tribunals. Applying a continuously comparative methodology that refers to specific statutory, jurisprudential, and scholarly sources, this book explores the nature and implications of such aspects of third-party involvement as the following: the foundations of the doctrine of res judicata and its intrinsic connection to other tools of forum coordination; the distinction between res judicata before courts on the one hand and arbitral tribunals on the other; the application of non-mutual preclusion in favour of third parties; the potential for arbitral awards to constitute a fact in follow-up disputes; a comparison of rules and uncertainties on awards, third-party effects under various national arbitration acts; preclusion agreements; the arbitration agreement's scope and judgments; third-party effects as a shift of the participatory burden. For civil law, the author focuses on France and Switzerland as predominant arbitral seats and on Germany as a Model Law example. Among common law countries, he concentrates on England and Wales and on the United States. Statutory sources with specific wording, leading cases, and summaries of the most important scholarly discussions are all invoked. With its clear guidelines for matters currently not addressed in previous publications and likely to be raised in specific cases, this book will prove to be of immeasurable value.

for arbitration practitioners and academics in any jurisdiction Business parties that seek to prevent contradicting decisions in multilateral transactions will appreciate the practically feasible alternatives it presents in the event of follow up disputes involving third parties      State Succession to Responsibility for Internationally Wrongful Acts Grega

Pajnkihar,2023-08-28 Ongoing work of the International Law Commission on State succession with respect to State responsibility begs the question how does this new matter fit into the broader concept of State succession This book presents a detailed analysis of the complete codified field of State succession with new observations and the relevant elements of State responsibility Dr Grega Pajnkihar provides insight into how these two areas of international law are interlinked and why State responsibility should not be treated differently from other matters of succession      Ethics of Human Rights A.

Reis Monteiro,2014-03-11 This volume focuses on the ethical significance of human rights aiming at contributing to a universal culture of human rights with deep roots and wide horizons Its purpose scope and rationale are reflected in the three part structure of the manuscript Part I has a broad introductory historical theoretical and legal character Part II submits that an Ethics of Human Rights is best understood as an Ethics of Recognition of human worth dignity and rights Moreover it is argued that human worth consists in the perfectibility of the human species rooted in its semiotic nature to be accomplished through the perfecting of human beings for which the right to education is key In Part III the main legal and political outcomes of the Human Rights Revolution are described and answers to the most lasting and common criticisms of human rights are provided To conclude the human stature of the Big Five drafters of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights is profiled and the priority that should be recognized to human rights education is highlighted Some appendices supplement the manuscript While making a case for the high value and liberating power of the idea and ideal of human rights objections controversies and uncertainties are not at all overlooked and emerging issues are explored The diversity of content of this volume meets many needs of the typical syllabus for a human rights course      State Immunity in

International Law Xiaodong Yang,2012-09-27 The immunity or exemption enjoyed by States from legal proceedings before foreign national courts is a crucial area of international law On the basis of an exhaustive analysis of judicial decisions international treaties national legislation government statements deliberations in international organisations as well as scholarly opinion Xiaodong Yang traces the historical development of the relevant doctrine and practice critically analyses the rationale for restrictive immunity and closely inspects such important exceptions to immunity as commercial transactions contracts of employment tortious liability separate entities the enforcement of judgments waiver of immunity and the interplay between State immunity and human rights The book draws a full picture of the law of State immunity as it currently stands and endeavours to provide useful information and guidance for practitioners academics and students alike      EC

Law and the Sovereignty of the Member States in Direct Taxation Mathieu Isenbaert,2010 In order to develop a suitable framework for the analysis of the European Court of Justice ECJ case law it is first analysed what significance if any the concept of sovereignty has in the contemporary supranational environment of the European Union All too often tax scholars equate sovereignty with the concepts of competence or jurisdiction It will be established in this thesis that a much more specific and higher level meaning is to be attributed to the sovereignty concept which goes beyond the strictly legal concepts of competence or jurisdiction The cornerstone of this thesis however is an extensive analysis of the case law of the ECJ in direct tax matters including a comparison with its non tax case law A new kind of methodology is used in discussing the cases they are categorized according to whether a discrimination or a restriction based analysis was applied by the ECJ

The Use and Utility of Ultimata in Coercive Diplomacy Tim Sweijs, 2023-05-12 Ultimata feature as a core concept in the coercive diplomacy scholarship Conventional wisdom holds that pursuing an ultimatum strategy is risky This book shows that the conventional wisdom is wrong on the basis of a new dataset of 87 ultimata issued from 1920 2020 It provides a historical examination of ultimata in Western strategic political and legal thought since antiquity until the present and offers a four pronged typology that explains their various purposes and effects 1 the dictate 2 the conditional war declaration 3 the bluff and 4 the brinkmanship ultimatum The book yields a better understanding of interstate threat behaviour at a time of surging competition Background materials can be consulted at www.coercivediplomacy.com The Legacy of H.L.A. Hart Matthew H. Kramer, 2008 This book is the product of a major British Academy Symposium held in 2007 to mark the centenary of the birth of H L A Hart the most important legal philosopher and one of the most important political philosophers of the twentieth century The book brings together contributions from eighteen of the world's foremost legal and political philosophers who explore the many subjects in which Hart produced influential work Each essay engages in an original analysis of philosophical problems that were tackled by Hart some essays including extended critical discussions of his major works The Concept of Law Punishment and Responsibility Causation in the Law and Law Liberty and Morality All the main topics of Hart's philosophical writings are featured general jurisprudence and legal positivism criminal responsibility and punishment theories of rights toleration and liberty theories of justice and causation in the law
