Recumbents Poems:

Recumbents Michel Deguy, Jacques Derrida, 2005-03-28 A widely acclaimed collection by one of France's leading poets and thinkers Bilingual first English translation Winner of the PEN Award for Poetry in Translation 2006 Winner of the MLA Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Translation of a Literary Work 2006 Hailed as one of France's most influential living poets Michel Deguy has remained largely inaccessible to English language readers Recumbents is the first English translation of the most critically acclaimed volume of this poet's work The word recumbents refers to funereal sculptures gisants reclining lovers and the literal imprint of those and other figures on the page The collection includes a poem for the dead Procession written by Deguy in the wake of his father's suicide and poems dedicated to all phases of Eros These are interwoven with passages on rhetoric or what Deguy calls poetic reason This bilingual edition also includes a meditation on Deguy's work by deconstructionism's foundational thinker Jacques Derrida

Thinking Poetry J. Acquisto, 2013-02-18 This volume of essays seeks to establish a dialogue between poetry and philosophy where each could be said to read the other and announces important new paths for a reinvigorated study of lyric poetry in the decades to come

Erotics of Deconstruction Lynn Turner, 2024-11-30 Erotics of Deconstruction takes advantage of over a decade of publications from Derrida's seminars to creatively demonstrate the deep material range of deconstruction and emphasise its under recognised erotic nature It activates psychoanalysis without the long embedded philosophical trajectory that forged the human psychic life and sexuality as categorically distinct from the animal inherent to dialectics and psychoanalysis It generates new conversations with Derrida's feminist contemporaries as they encounter pressing questions in current critical thought From the larger frame of life death and the broadest auto affective relation of inside to outside to the difficult to grasp interface of conceptual and sensible Erotics of Deconstruction does not retreat to a reparative life force or erotics of the good but includes the unsettling friction of an originary relation to violence Parsed by means of case studies from literature philosophy and visual culture erotics in this volume lap at every edge

Modern Poetry in Translation, 2005 French XX

Derrida Wordbook Maria-Daniella Dick, 2013-02-27 A glossary of words associated with Jacques Derrida accommodating the far reaching implications of his work This cornucopia of words and definitions intervenes at crucial points of tension across the entire range of Derrida's publications including those published posthumously It offers sustained expository engagement with a series of 67 key words from Aporia to Yes having significance throughout Derrida's thought and writing Touching on the literary as well as on political aesthetic phenomenological and psychoanalytic discourses and tracing how Derrida's own practice of close reading shadows faithfully the texts he reads before producing a breaking point in the logical limits of a given text each word the essays illustrate is not a final word Instead each shows itself through close reading that places the terms figures tropes and motifs in their broader contexts to be a gateway opening on to innumerable interconnected concerns that inform the work of Jacques Derrida The World after the End of the World Kas Saghafi,2020-04-01 Examines themes of loss and mourning in the late work of Derrida In this book Kas Saghafi argues that the notion of the end the world in Derrida s late work is not a theological or cosmological matter but a meditation on mourning and the death of the other He examines this and several other tightly knit motifs in Derrida s work mourning survival the phantasm the event and most significantly the term salut which in French means at once greeting and salvation An underlying concern of The World after the End of the World is whether a discourse on salut saving being saved and salvation can be dissociated from discourse on religion Saghafi compares Derrida s thought along these lines with similar concerns of Jean Luc Nancy s Combining analysis of these themes with reflections on personal loss this book maintains that for Derrida salutation greeting and welcoming is resistant to the economy of salvation This resistance calls for what Derrida refers to as a spectro poetics devoted to and assigned to the other s singularity The A to Z of Postmodernist

Literature and Theater Fran Mason,2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabulations that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates Exercises of a recumbent vacation, 1860-61: with a few of earlier date [by] J.T. [a monogram. Verse]. J. T.,James B. TOMALIN,1861 In the Name of Friendship: Deguy, Derrida and Salut ,2017-11-20 In the Name of Friendship Deguy Derrida and Salut centres on the relationship between poet Michel Deguy and philosopher Jacques Derrida Translations of two essays Of Contemporaneity by Deguy and How to Name by Derrida allow Christopher Elson and Garry Sherbert to develop the implications of this singular intellectual friendship In these thinkers efforts to reinvent secular forms of the sacred such as the singularity of the name and especially poetic naming Deguy by adopting a Derridean programme of the impossible and Derrida by developing Deguy's ethics of naming through the word salut situate themselves at the forefront of contemporary debates over politics and religion alongside figures like Alain Badiou and Jean-Luc Marion John Caputo and Martin Hagglund Learning to Live Finally Jacques Derrida, Jean Birnbaum, 2010-12-06 With death looming Jacques Derrida the world's most famous philosopher known as the father of deconstruction sat down with journalist Jean Birnbaum of the French daily Le Monde They revisited his life's work and his impending death in a long surprisingly accessible and moving final interview Sometimes called obscure and branded abstruse by his critics the Derrida found in this book is open and engaging reflecting on a long career challenging important tenets of European philosophy from Plato to Marx The contemporary meaning of Derrida's work is also examined including a discussion of his many political activities But as Derrida says To philosophize is to learn to die as such this philosophical discussion turns to the realities of his imminent death including life with a fatal cancer In the end this interview remains a touching final look at a long and distinguished career From the Trade Paperback edition Poems of Nation, Anthems of Empire Suvir Kaul, 2000 In Poems of Nation Anthems of Empire Suvir Kaul argues that the aggressive nationalism of James Thomson's ode Rule Britannia 1740 is the condition to which much English poetry of the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries aspires Poets as varied as Marvell Waller and Dryden Defoe Addison John Dyer and Edward Young or Goldsmith Cowper Hannah More and Anna Laetitia Barbauld all wrote poems deeply engaged with the British nation in the making These poets and many others like them recognized that the nation and its values and institutions were being defined by the expansion of overseas trade naval and military control plantations and colonies Their poems both embodied and were concerned about the culture and ideology of Great Britain itself an idea of the nation that developed alongside the formation of a British Empire Poems in this period thus flaunt various images of poetic inspiration that show poetry and culture following triumphantly where mercantile and military ships sail Or sometimes more self-aggrandizingly for the poet they enact the process by which the Muses use their powers to inspire and show the way Even at their most hesitant these poems were written as interventions into public discussion their creativity is tied up with that desire to convince and persuade Finally as Kaul writes it is their encyclopedic desire to incorporate new experiences visions and values that makes these poems such fine guides to the world of poetry in the long years in which Great Britain was consolidated as an empire at home and abroad Twentieth-Century French Poetry Hugues Azérad, Peter Collier, 2010-05-20 Modern French poetry is unique in the boldness and creativity of its experiments in form and genre from classical verse to vers libre from calligrammes to prose poems and poésies sonores This anthology includes 32 poems by French and francophone poets each followed by an accessibly written detailed commentary The different approaches adopted in the close readings by specialists in their field reflect the major trends in current literary criticism and theory A foreword by one of France's foremost poets Yves Bonnefoy
