Environmental Indicators for Building Design Olivia Guerra Santin,2008 Construction will always be needed and will always consume resources In developing an approach for assessing sustainable building the Three Step Strategy in the Netherlands named Trias Ecologica has proven to be useful This title looks at this Strategy Environmental Indicators for Building Design O. Guerra Santin,2008-07-11 The ultimate goal of building and construction in relation to environmental issues is to construct in an environmentally neutral way or as the Brundtland Report states to consume in such a way that our children have the same choices that we have Construction will always be needed and will always consume resources But in accordance with the conditions of the Brundtland Report we should move construction into a direction that does not deplete resources and does not worsen living circumstances through harmful indoor or outdoor environmental effects Improving our efficiency in resource consumption is the only way in which we will be able to continue our current way of life It has been calculated that in order to only maintain the world average lifestyle a factor 4 of improvement in efficiency of resource consumption is necessary based on global resource availability effects on climate change and coping with growing welfare for developing countries Measuring a factor x improvement heavily relates to the chosen benchmark Building activities will always require some environmental load the mere fact of living already implies use of earthbound resources so it is generally not very efficient to calculate emissions and other effects in an absolute way The ultimate target is not to avoid resource use at all but to use only reproductive resources regrowable renewable and replaceable to create a balanced situation When this is achieved we will still use resources but usage will be sustainable it can be maintained well into the future In developing an approach for assessing sustainable building the Three Step Strategy in the Netherlands named Trias Ecologica has proven to be useful This publication takes a detailed look at this Strategy Ed Begley, Jr.'s Guide to Sustainable Living Ed Begley, Jr.,2009 Begley encourages homeowners to reach for a higher level of eco responsibility with home projects ranging from planting native gardens to installing solar panels and wind turbines 100 b w photos LORD WHAT'S REALLY IMPORTANT,1978 100 Secrets for Living a Life You Love Jonathan Lockwood Huie,2009-11-30 You can live the life you love even in the face of the most challenging circumstances While sometimes it may appear that life throws more obstacles in your path than you can handle you can always choose to be happy Yes you are that powerful Green Living For Dummies Yvonne Jeffery,Liz Barclay,Michael Grosvenor,2008-04-15 Want to do your part to reduce energy consumption waste and pollution clean up the environment and save the planet Green Living For Dummies is packed with practical suggestions you can follow to make your lifestyle greener by doing as little damage as possible to the planet and the animal and plant life that depend on
