

Our lifesaving work is powered by a workforce of more than 90% volunteers and generous public donations. The breadth of our work is vast, but the human impact is even greater. These are just a few examples of how we alleviate human suffering in the face of emergencies.

Providing Disaster Relief and Comfort

"We thought the whole house was going to go up."

Audra Graham, whose home caught fire while she was cooking for her son and family friends. Everyone escaped safely thanks to smoke alarms installed by Red Cross volunteers just months before. After the fire, the Red Cross provided the family with financial assistance, health services and hope.

Delivering Lifesaving Blood

"He's doing so well, not only because of the care he received, but because some gracious people somewhere out there donated their blood."

Brooke Schmitz, whose son Hunter received multiple blood transfusions during and after open-heart surgery.

Giving Hope Worldwide

"I am extremely grateful for the Red Cross. They gave us education and skills that we use to help our community."

Azucena Lara Castro, whose community in Mexico was devastated by an earthquake, gives thanks to the Red Cross after gaining the knowledge and skills to better protect her neighborhood and loved ones from future disasters.

Serving Those Who Serve our Nation

"Over the 12 years of my military experience, I've heard about Red Cross, saw it work for others. I was skeptical until I had to use it. Someday I hope to give back."

Sergeant Cory Hicks, who, with the help of the Red Cross, was granted emergency leave and arrived by the side of his wife, Sergeant Sharyn France, just one hour before the early birth of their baby, Cory Jr.

Training Caregivers and Lifesavers

"We have to constantly practice to be prepared for anything and everything."

Shamara Golden, who helped save the life of an unconscious high school student. Shamara was awarded the Certificate of Merit, the highest award given by the Red Cross to a person who saves a life using the skills and knowledge learned in a Red Cross training course.
