reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses. Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here. Comparative Criticism: Volume 16, Revolutions and Censorship E. S. Shaffer, 1994-10-27. This 1994 book addresses literary theory and criticism comparative studies in terms of theme genre movement and influence and interdisciplinary perspectives. Red Dust Marika Battaglia, 2016. Red Dust 3 Thomas Fallon, Anna Holmes, Bruce Woods, 1979-01-01. Acts of War Karen Malpede, Michael Messina, Bob Shuman, 2011-03-25. As Karen Malpede points out in her introduction to Acts of War drama arose as a complement to perhaps also as an antidote to war. Like the great ancient Greek playwrights Aeschylus Sophocles and Euripides the playwrights in this volume see the theater as an art form uniquely capable of addressing the effects of warfare. Hollywood's Africa after 1994 MaryEllen Higgins, 2012-11-01. Hollywood's Africa after 1994 investigates Hollywood's colonial film legacy in the postapartheid era and contemplates what has changed in the West's representations of Africa. How do we read twenty-first century projections of human rights issues child soldiers genocide the exploitation of the poor by multinational corporations dictatorial rule truth and reconciliation within the contexts of celebrity humanitarianism new military humanitarianism and Western support for regime change in Africa and beyond? A number of films after 1994 such as Black Hawk Down Hotel Rwanda Blood Diamond The Last King of Scotland The Constant Gardener Shake Hands with the Devil Tears of the Sun and District 9 construct explicit and implicit arguments about the effects of Western intervention in Africa. Do the emphases on human rights in the films offer a poignant expression of our shared humanity? Do they echo the colonial tropes of former civilizing missions? Or do human rights violations operate as yet another mine of sensational images for Hollywood's spectacular storytelling? The volume provides analyses by academics and activists in the fields of African studies English film and media studies international relations and sociology across continents. This thoughtful and highly engaging book is a valuable resource for those who seek new and varied approaches to films about Africa. Contributors: Harry Garuba and Natasha Himmelman Margaret R.
