Red Hot Mamas Coming Into Our Own At Fifty:

Red Hot Mamas Colette Dowling, 2011-06-22 Colette Dowling's uplifting book celebrates the myriad possibilities for women who are now turning 50. Red hot mamas are the dozens of women, some famous, some not, who are defying stereotypes to discover renewed power and vitality at midlife. In honest, empowering language, the women share with readers their energetic approaches to menopause, career changes, family life, and intimacy.

Granny @ Work Karen E. Riggs, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informal company.

Women's Sexuality Across the Life Span Judith C. Daniluk, 2003-06-09 Moving beyond a traditional focus on sexual functioning, this book emphasizes the complex interaction of psychological, social, cultural, and biological influences on women's sense of themselves as sexual beings. Written for practitioners and educators, its goal is to challenge contradictory messages and meanings that cause many women to feel disconnected from their bodies and from their needs and desires. Themes explored include the development of sexual awareness and sexuality in childhood and adolescence, the critical sexual choices of young adulthood, and the multiple transitions characterizing the middle and later years of life. The book features creative exercises and interventions to help girls and women construct more affirming sexual meanings.

Age Becomes Us Leni Marshall, 2015-06-30 In lively, accessible prose, this book expands the reach and depth of age studies. A review of age studies methods in theory, literature, and practice leads readers to see how their own intersectional identities shape their beliefs about age, aging, and old age. This study asks readers to interrogate the texts of menopause self-help books on aging and foundational age studies works. In addition to the study of these nonfiction texts, the poetry and prose of Doris Lessing, Lucille Clifton, and Louise Erdrich serve as vehicles for exploring how age relations work, including how they invoke readers into kinships of reciprocal care as othermothers, otherdaughters, and otherelders. The literary chapters examine how gifted storytellers provide enactments, portrayals, and metaphorical uses of age to create transformative potential.

Lesbian Family Life, Like the Fingers of a Hand Valory Mitchell, 2013-09-13 In this book, an array of approaches, first-person, and theoretical accounts, clinical understandings, qualitative and quantitative research are brought to bear on controversial or under-discussed topics in lesbian family life. From conception all the way to care for elderly parents, this book takes a fresh look at lesbian family relationships. Topics include butch/femme couples, infidelity, the psychological meaning of family for lesbians, age-discrepant couples, lesbian nuns as family, listservs as family, intentional family for aging women, women raising sons, mothers who come out late in life, mothers and children in situations of domestic violence, lack of support for lesbian domestic violence survivors, death of a partner, psychological issues in the use of sperm donors or surrogates, and middle-aged lesbians caring for homophobic elderly parents. Some authors use self-psychology and Jungian psychology to describe aspects of family life. The richness and diversity of topics makes it a text on lesbian lives. Therapists and academics from throughout the U.S. have contributed to this collection. Many lesbian women, as well as teachers, it can be a text and mental health professionals who work with children families couples and elderly will find useful material here This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Lesbian Studies HIV/AIDS and Older Adults Charles A. Emlet, MSW, PhD,2004-03-31 This volume focuses on the ways in which HIV AIDS can affect older adults The chapters in this book discuss the variety of HIV AIDS problems that we face at the individual family and community levels Topics examined include demographics and epidemiological aspects of HIV disease with this population prevention of HIV disease issues impacting individuals in a medical psychological and social context and service needs Originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Mental Health and Aging the volume contains new chapters on demographics HIV prevention and education and effective coalition building among systems of care Contributors include Diane Zablotsky Michael Kennedy Janice Nichols and Timothy Heckman among others For Further Information Please Click Here All Over Elena Ruth Marshall,2007 Making Sense of Women's Lives , Lauri Umansky,Michele Plott,2000-08-01 Making Sense of Women s Lives presents a wide range of writings about women s lives in the United States Michele Plott and Lauri Umansky have drawn on their experiences as both students and professors to assemble the collection Seeking to provide as full a sampling from a diverse and intellectually vibrant field as one volume permits the editors have also chosen writing that makes an enjoyable read A few of the selections here represent the undisputed classics of the field More of them constitute simply the works drawn from academic and nonacademic sources alike that could make a difference in understanding what it means to be female in America Making Sense of Women s Lives is intended as the primary text in Women s Studies courses With that usage in mind Plott and Umansky have provided brief introductions to each article to help students understand the author s perspectives Thought and discussion questions follow each selection The book contains as well numerous Flash Exercises suggestions for class exercises and activities The editors have used these activities in their courses over the past decade in conjunction with readings in this volume and have found that the full complement of materials coalesces into an intellectually powerful introduction to Women s Studies A Collegiate Press book The Publishers Weekly ,1997 Handbook of Stressful Transitions Across the Lifespan Thomas W. Miller,2009-11-28 This volume provides a unique and valuable contribution to our understanding of the impact of stressful life events and mass trauma on the person the culture and society in the course of the life span It provides a comprehensive look at our psychological state of affairs at the beginning of the twenty first century There are several volumes that address some or most of these areas indivi ally but this volume is unique in that it has brought together theoreticians researchers and clinicians who address critical challenges in our lives But we are now several months into the global financial crisis requiring a transition not only for the western world but for the third world How on earth do families in trauma zones from Sri Lanka to Afghanistan New Orleans to Gaza cope with similar declining older relatives with added traumas and zero medical resources attempt to survive In news reports politicians and financiers denying the inevitable and struggling for solutions that cannot be relevant to the new reality that they have yet to discover

Reconstruction of Social Work Through Personalisation Felix. U. A Ugwumadu, 2011-03-15 The growing older people population and their increasing needs for care is now presenting significant difficulties to both national government and local authorities because of constriction of formal caregivers and family units Inevitably a change of this magnitude within the complex system in which older people services operate everywhere attracts a range of responses from the very enthusiastic to the very dismissive and hostile response Thus family directed support care system would provide the possibilities to bridge the gaps within health and social care and the delivery of personalisation for later care for older people in their own home Older people is no longer interested to be cared in an institutional settings but wish their care to be provided by those they know well and who are familiar with their needs and standards they are used to Talking Book Topics, 1998 Includes audio versions and annual title author index The Book of Friendship Ariel Books, 2002-01-18 Next to family and often instead of them friends are the people who keep the world turning round and the sun in the sky The Book of Friendship is a tribute to these special individuals The perfect gift for cherished friends this book combines intimate quotes favorite stories and excerpts from poems and novels with classic nostalgic artwork capturing the magic of these special relationships Letters legends anecdotes and even friend comforting recipes make this an especially appropriate gift book for women Don't Forget Your Umbrella Carlene Ness, 2003-10 Cassette Books Library of Congress. National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, 1997 Creative Practice Research in the Age of Neoliberal Hopelessness Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2020-07-06 In Creative Practice Research in Film and Media creative practitioners discuss their experiences and examine how to retain integrity during times of political and economic battles in higher education and attempts to quantify creative work It uses the notion of tactical compliance to evaluate whether and when creative practitioners compromise their creativity by working within the higher education system It offers a space for reflection for both practitioners and theorists and it presents a much needed intervention which will be of interest to all academics engaged with creative practice as research Women Confronting Retirement Nan Bauer Maglin, Alice Radosh, 2003 In this nontraditional guide the editors showcase the voices of 38 women as they confront the need to redefine who they are when they leave the workplace behind them 34 photos Changing Course Yitta Halberstam, Yitta H Mandelbaum, 2004-08-06 Perimenopause Menopause Midlife For the women in Changing Course these words imply much more than something to get through or even as a silent passage it s a time for great self reflection exciting adventures and new beginnings Compiled by Yitta Halberstam the author of the multimillion selling Small Miracles series Changing Course delivers an entirely new message about menopause and midlife This superlative work features sixty rich stories from women of diverse backgrounds and experience that capture the laughter and joyous tears of this important time in a woman s life This compelling work is divided into four sections Don t Look Back women who find that they must let go of the past Starting the Voyage women who are experiencing the symptoms of perimenopause or menopause The Meditative Journey women who
