Aronova,Alexander Ortenberg,2018-10-03 This collection of thirteen vignettes addresses several important episodes in the history of Russian temporary architecture and public art from the royal festivals during the times of Peter the Great up to the recent venues including the Sochi Winter Olympics The forms and the circumstances of their design were drastically different however the projects discussed in the book share a common feature they have been instrumental in the construction of Russia s national identity with its perception of the West simultaneously a foe and a paragon looming high over this process The book offers a history of multidirectional relationships between diplomacy propaganda and architecture Gold in Azure ,1983 Wooden Church Architecture of the Russian North Evgeny Khodakovsky,2015-08-11

The book presents a broad panoramic overview of church architecture in the Russian North between the fourteenth and nineteenth centuries While it is inevitably overshadowed by the imperial splendour of the country s capital cities this unique phenomenon is regarded as the most distinctive national expression of traditional Russian artistic culture and at the same time as a significant part of humanity s worldwide architectural heritage The chief intention of the book is to present the regionally specific features of the wooden churches of the Russian North which vary from area to area for local natural or historical reasons This approach touches upon the very important questions of the typology and classification of the multiplicity of architectural forms The regional view entails giving clear definitions of the ambiguous terms architectural school and tradition explaining the origins and shaping impulses for the different regional clusters of objects Structurally the book presents a history of the development of wooden church architecture in the Russian North and then follows the key points of the mediaeval Russian expansion along the waterways from Novgorod into the North he Svir River Lake Onego the town of Kargopol and the River Onega the White Sea the Rivers Dvina Pinega and Mezen those areas that still retain the most splendid pieces of Russian regional wooden church architecture The study is based on field research and provides an up to date multi faceted view of Russian wooden architecture The Architecture and Planning of Classical Moscow Albert J. Schmidt,1989 Dr Schmidt describes the building planning schemes in Moscow from approx the accession of Catherine the Great in the early 1760s to the mid reign of Nicholas I about 1840 The author maintains that despite the enormous destruction of historic Moscow caused by the reordering of Gorkii the old Tverskaia St the Kalinin Prospect the Arbat under Stalin Khrushchev there still exists a significant remnant of the classical city which rose from the ashes of the great fire in 1812 The architects of the classical city Catherine s builders Vasilii Bazhenov Matvei Kazakov those who rebuilt Moscow after 1812 Osip Bove Domenico Giliardi Afanasii Grigor ev are featured together with their individual architectural creations as well as their broader city planning accomplishments In many respects an atlas of the boulevards thoroughfares of central
