Russian Orthodoxy On The Eve Of Revolution:

Russian Orthodoxy on the Eve of Revolution Vera Shevzov, 2004 Explores sacred community and how it functioned or sometimes did not in Russian Orthodoxy before the fateful historic events of the 1917 Russian Revolution Tolstoy and the Religious Culture of His Time Inessa Medzhibovskaya, 2009-07-15 The first book length study on the subject in any language Tolstoy and the Religious Culture of His Time treats Tolstoy's experience as a massive philosophical and religious project rather than a crisis laden tragedy Inessa Medzhibovskaya explains the evolution of Tolstoy's religious outlook based on his ongoing dialogue with the tradition of conversion in Europe and Russia as well as on the demands of his own heart mind and spirit The author contextualizes Tolstoy's conversion comparing his pattern of religious conversion with that of other notable religious converts Saint Paul Saint Augustine Luther Pascal Rousseau as well with that of Tolstoy's countrymen Pushkin Gogol Chaadaev Stankevich Belinsky Herzen and Dostoevsky Stressing the importance of the religious culture of his time for Tolstoy this study investigates the nineteenth century debates that inspired and repelled Tolstoy as he weighed arguments for or against faith in his dialogues with the culture of his time covering widely differing fields and disciplines of experimental knowledge The author considers German Romantic philosophy the natural sciences pragmatist religious solutions theories of social progress and evolution and the historical school of Christianity Medzhibovskaya stresses the fact that influential intellectual currents were as important to Tolstoy as believers and nonbelievers were from and beyond his immediate environment The author argues that in this sense Tolstoy's conversion emerges as deeply intertextual and this surprising discovery should not diminish our trust in Tolstoy's sincerity during his religious evolution which occurred both spontaneously as well as deliberately The polyphony of discreet spiritual moments that Tolstoy created by fusing in his narratives of conversion religious and artistic realms is arguably his greatest contribution to spiritual autobiography

The Muslim Question and Russian Imperial Governance Elena I. Campbell, 2015-01-26. A major contribution to the history of nationality, religious identity and governance in late imperial Russia. William G. Rosenberg, coauthor of Processing the Past. From the time of the Crimean War through the fall of the Tsar, the question of what to do about the Russian empire's large Muslim population was a highly contested issue among educated Russians both inside and outside the government. As formulated in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, the Muslim Question comprised a complex set of ideas and concerns that centered on the problems of reimagining and governing the tremendously diverse Russian empire in the face of the challenges presented by the modernizing world. Basing her analysis on extensive research in archival and primary sources, Elena I. Campbell reconstructs the issues, debates and personalities that shaped the development of Russian policies toward the empire's Muslims and the impact of the Muslim Question on the modernizing path that Russia would follow. Readable, original and endlessly interesting, Campbell's book deserves the very highest praise. Journal of Islamic Studies. Campbell's book shows how profound official Islamophobia paradoxically led to the preservation of earlier confessional structures, grudging non-interference with the spiritual and social life of most Muslim communities, a

Ministries of Compassion among Russian Evangelicals, 1905-1929 Mary Raber,2016-05-13 The present study fills a gap in the study of the evangelical movement in Russia by presenting a comprehensive picture of their compassionate ministry during their longest stretch of relative freedom before the 1980s Better known for their energetic preaching and literature work Russian evangelicals also gave attention to compassionate ministry although it was never extensive because of their marginal status They established assistance funds organized charitable institutions practiced urban rescue ministry participated in the Russian temperance movement and established economic communities Each area is distinct yet all were supported by the same set of theological convictions The Russian evangelicals were convinced that their witness should consist of good works as well as words and that the gospel had the power to undo human suffering While intentionally cultivating an attitude of concern for the needs of others they taught that compassion was the concern of all members of the community regardless of economic status or age In their publications evangelicals devoted a good deal of teaching to the proper Christian attitude toward money and giving They drew on Western models but also their indigenous sectarian roots
