Con Brio Nat Brandt, 2000-07-26 A 1959 New Yorker profile captured the inspired risk taking and raw creative spark of a Budapest String Quartet rehearsal Sasha leaped from his chair and with violin held aloft played the passage with exaggerated schmalz like a street fiddler in Naples Kroyt stopped playing and started singing a Russian song Mischa Schneider thereupon performed a number of stupendous triads on his cello Only Roisman went quietly on with his part untouched by the pandemonium around him playing Beethoven with his noble tone and elegant bowing Here were four men with personalities as varied as their ways of playing Yet when they played they produced a perfect union of instrumental voices and interpretive nuances that not only created an entirely new audience for chamber music in America but also made the Budapest String Quartet the premier chamber music group of the twentieth century
