Di Leo, 2019-11-14 Antitheory has long been a venerable brand of theory and although seemingly opposite the two impulses have long been intertwined Antitheory is the first book to explore this vexed relationship from the 20th century to the present day examining antitheory both in its historical context and its current state The book brings together leading scholars from a wide range of Humanities disciplines to ask such questions as What is antitheory What does it mean to be against theory in the new millennium What is the current state of post theory the alleged deaths of theory and the critique of critique The Capitalist University Henry Heller, 2016-10-20 Can the ivory tower rise above capitalism Or are the humanities and social sciences merely handmaids to the American imperial order The Capitalist University surveys the history of higher education in the United States over the last century revealing how campuses and classrooms have become battlegrounds in the struggle between liberatory knowledge and commodified learning Henry Heller takes readers from the ideological apparatus of the early Cold War through the revolts of the 1960s and on to the contemporary malaise of postmodernism neoliberalism and the so called knowledge economy of academic capitalism He reveals how American educational institutions have been forced to decide between teaching students to question the dominant order and helping to perpetuate it The Capitalist University presents a comprehensive overview of a topic which affects millions of students in America and increasingly across the globe

A Marxist Critique of the Ruined University Krystian Szadkowski, Jakub Krzeski, 2025-04-21 This book revitalizes the Marxian concept of critique for research into the transformation of universities It consists of a set of comprehensive and interconnected theoretical tools starting from the reflection on the political ontology of higher education through the critique of political economy of the sector to the analysis of activist struggles within the universities and back to the ontological concept of the common a foundation for the university alternative design The tools offered and discussed in context throughout the book allow for a productive use in overcoming the current crisis of the university as well as to avoid the pitfalls present in contemporary debates around it Unlike the dominant discussions on the university in crisis the authors argue that to grasp its nature one has to reach more profound than the level of appearances such as marketization and commodification Szadkowski and Krzeski offer a compelling reappraisal of critique as a mechanism to liberate intellectual work By linking critique to how knowledge is structured and commodified they help us transcend reductionist narratives of a crisis ridden University Prioritising ontological renewal they embrace the political and the common enriching our collective ways of knowing the world as a movement Pivoting around academic and student protests in Poland the book enables us to imagine spaces and times of critical hope that resist the capitalist subjugation of intellectual activity to knowledge production Richard Hall Professor of Education and Technology De Montfort University Leicester UK In the century since Antonio Gramsci new works in the Marxist tradition have made only modest contributions to social thought the combined result of the savage repression in the West of the dangerous revolutionary ideas plus the collapse in the East into jacobin conspiracy and dogmatism If a living vibrant Marxism had been part of the twentieth century mainstream then much catastrophe would have been averted Now the drive for capital accumulation sovereign individualism and rampant nationalism have brought us to the brink of ecological disaster and World War III Into the void step two emerging scholars Krystian Szadkowski and Jakub Krzeski with an original Marxist critique of higher education and the common good There is hope in this development vital resources for reflection discussion and action Simon Marginson Professor of Higher Education at the Universities of Bristol and Oxford UK Honorary Professor at Tsinghua University in China and Joint Editor in Chief of the journal Higher Education
