Sabbath Day Of Eternity:

Me'en 'olam Ha-ba Aryeh Kaplan, 2005      Will and Grace Hune Margulies, 2017-11-13 This book is a poetic reading of the dialogical philosophy of Martin Buber. My reading of Martin Buber takes me to this principal insight: God is not in heaven nor on earth; God is not above nor below, not within and not without, not in the soul or in the flesh; God is not an entity anywhere. God is the between of an I and a Thou. These pages are not an academic study in the strict sense; my meditations in this book are not a literal description of Buber's philosophy, for Buber would never have approved of taking his words in any way other than in dialogue. Buber wrote in dialogue with the reader, and I read Buber in the poetic philosophy of his words. In other words, we can say that the essential thinking in Martin Buber's philosophy is that the presence of God in us is always enacted as the presence of God between us. God like love like poetry is a deed we do; the God deed is actualized not in rituals or temples but in the practices of the sacraments of the neighbor, for there is nothing we can predicate of God but we can still meet God in the embrace of the neighbor. We meet God as we meet with one another in genuine relationship. God is not in the relationship; God is the relationship. God is no thing but there is nothing that isn't God in the between of an I and a Thou.

Swedenborg's Works Emanuel Swedenborg, 1907      Models of Heaven M. Francis Mannion, 2023-08-31 Many people nowadays are confused about the topic of heaven, skeptical about it or think it beyond description. This book argues that without venturing into the esoteric or fanciful, we can know more about heaven than we think. Did you know, for instance, that heavenly rest will be exciting and dynamic? That we will be overwhelmed and transformed by the beauty of God? That we will dance with the Trinity, sing with the angels, and enjoy the delightful company of the saints, including the saints we have known and loved on earth? The book will deal with what we will be doing in the Holy City and in the magnificence of the new creation, and what it means to say that we will feast at the heavenly banquet. If you want answers to these questions at once inspired by Christian tradition and modern insight and presented in a fresh and compelling manner, this book is for you. It is written not only for theologians and specialists but also for inquiring Catholics and other Christians seeking to deepen their understanding of life after death. It will serve theology students, seminarians, clergy, religious educators, and parish study groups. Readers willing to invest time and energy in the book will find their view of heaven deepened and expanded. Jürgen Moltmann Jürgen Moltmann, Margaret Kohl, Richard Bauckham, 2014-08-22 Jürgen Moltmann's life and work have marked the history of theology after the Second World War in Europe and North America like no other. He is the most widely read, quoted, and translated theologian of our time. His systematic work thrives on the cutting edge of Christian theology in the twenty-first century, challenging and stimulating a whole generation of theologians to work at theology in different and more comprehensive ways. Margaret Kohl, a translator of many of Moltmann's volumes, has chosen representative samples of Moltmann's theological writings from eight of the volumes published by Fortress Press and has written brief prefaces to each of the selections. Moltmann scholar Richard Bauckham provides an extended Introduction.      Theological Works: The
