experiencia literaria enriquecedora y emocionante que perdure más allá de las páginas del libro Sucker Punch Amanda J Field, 2023-10-16 The 1930s 40s and 50s were the heyday of the boxing film attracting some of the biggest stars of the time including Errol Flynn James Cagney Kirk Douglas and Paul Newman and some of the best directors Yet it is a genre that has received little critical attention apart from a few films singled out because they can be categorised as film noir It would be easy to assume therefore that the typical boxing film of this period was a dark melodrama with the tragic and doomed figure of the boxer at its centre but that gives a false picture of a genre that included comedies and costume dramas among its 130 plus films Sucker Punch invites the reader to take a wider look at the scope and breadth of the genre by providing a detailed discussion of 20 boxing films a selection from each decade from Hollywood and British studios Some such as Body and Soul have become part of the established canon of Film Studies while lighter fare such as Ringside Maisie or Gentleman Jim have been overlooked by the critics but are worthy of re examination not simply because they are enjoyable films in their own right but also because they offer insights into social attitudes of the times The book draws on contemporary sources such as trade paper film reviews as well as modern academic criticism to build a highly readable account of the development of the boxing genre and its narrative conventions The Media in the Network Society Gustavo Cardoso, 2006 In the Network Society the development of a new communicational model has been taking shape A communicational model characterized by the fusion of interpersonal communication and mass communication connecting audiences and broadcasters under a hypertextual matrix linking several media devices The Networked Communication model is the informational societies communication model A model that must be understood also in its needed literacies for building our media diets media matrixes and on how it's changing the way autonomy is managed and citizenship exercised in the Information Age In this book Gustavo Cardoso develops an analysis that focusing on the last decade takes us from Europe to North America and from South America to Asia combining under the framework of the Network Society a broad range of scientific perspectives from Media Studies to Political Science and Social Movements theory to Sociology of Communication The Rise of Pseudo-historical Fiction Horacio Chiong Rivero, 2004 Fray Antonio de Guevara 1482 1545 the most prolific writer of pseudo historical prose in sixteenth century Spain was named official chronicler by Emperor Charles V in 1526 Despite his title Guevara never wrote a conventional history A master of fictional semblance Guevara self fashioned his own literary personae or masks among them those of friar bishop chronicler courtier imperial counselor and court buffoon In his pseudo historical prose Guevara resoundingly uses the voices of both the novelist and the court buffoon entertaining the reader with humor wit satire and irony Artistically manipulating both classical and contemporary history Guevara innovatively creates a vast and labyrinthine web in which history and fiction form an inseparable hybrid a pseudo historical narrative that heralds the essay and the modern novel
