Sacred Waters Theodore Graebner,192? Sacred Waters Theodor Gräbner,1924 Learning the Language of the Soul Andrew D. Mayes,2016 How can we describe to others what is happening to us on our spiritual journey How can we depict the spiritual road that we are taking experiences of prayer transitions that we travel through impediments that we face and externalize into words the interior experiences In this spiritual lexicon Andrew Mayes explores creative and inspirational metaphors to equip anyone wanting to communicate effectively about their faith or life of prayer Learning the Language of the Soul is a handbook that will prove indispensable to spiritual directors evangelists and all sharing in the witness of the church today It will loosen our tongues as we discover images from both the classic Christian tradition and contemporary culture that help us express and develop a spiritual literacy by which we share with others the joys and struggles of the inner life Spirituality in Ministerial Formation Andrew Mayes,2009-10-01 This is a ground breaking study into a crucial area of theological education It traces the origin and evolution of the formation model of training and identifies what difference this paradigm makes to present practice It uncovers significant and surprising functions of prayer in the formational and learning process as discovered in empirical research informed by theological and psychological perspectives on prayer among a sample of newly ordained clergy and tutors The practical implications of the research are identified offering creative ideas for a renewed understanding and praxis of the role of prayer in learning This is essential reading for theological students and teachers alike and calls for a clearer articulation of a spirituality of education as needed by our present culture and context The Lutheran Witness ,1924 Spirituality in Ministerial Formation Andrew D. Mayes,2009 In recent years theological education and training for both lay and ordained ministry have been reconceived in terms of ministerial formation But what is the origin of this paradigm and what difference does it actually make to both teachers and learners This study not only addresses these questions but also offering perspectives from the Eastern Christian traditions and from empirical research uncovers a dynamic role for prayer in the learning process It explores how different types of prayer have the potential to be a significant integrative cognitive healing empowering influence in ministerial formation and to enable a transformative process of deep learning It will prove not only to be a reference book for all practitioners in the field of theological education but also a practical workbook for teachers and students as its questions for individual or group use challenge present practice and open up new possibilities for the healing of the historic divide between theology and spirituality The book identifies elements for the development of a rich theology of ministerial formation which will enhance and energize the practice of theological education Seeking to re balance training and formation it invites a rethink of current functionalist approaches to professionalized lay and ordained ministry in terms of discovering creative and surprising functions of spirituality within the learning process The book thus has implications for the teaching of spirituality highlighting the need to articulate an integrated spirituality of education It also addresses important aspects of the Church's mission in society and the imperative of resourcing clergy and lay ministers for their engagement with the rising interest in spirituality in today's culture Book Jacket Sacred streams : the ancient and modern history of the river of the Bible.
