Sacred Images and Sacred Power in Byzantium Gary Vikan, 2003 In these studies Gary Vikan has opened new perspectives on the daily life and material culture of Late Antiquity more specifically on icons and relics and on objects revealing of the world of pilgrimage the early cult of saints and marriage He contextualizes these familiar categories of object in the patterns of belief and ritual extracted from contemporary texts and the objects themselves in order to understand their meaning within the everyday lives of those by whom and for whom they were made The studies give a nuanced delineation of the inherently ambiguous boundary between conventional religion and magic noting repeatedly those instances wherein the two are invoked in the same breath and by way of the same art object toward the same end From this historically constructed matrix of art belief and ritual the author derives an anthropologically defined paradigm of charisma and pilgrimage applied in one essay as an intriguing parallel to deconstructing the world of a contemporary secular saint Elvis Presley The Sacred Image East and West Robert G. Ousterhout, Leslie Brubaker, 1995 The essays cover a full range of images including panel paintings altarpieces manuscripts and wall paintings and a rich variety of socioreligious settings private monastic and imperial

Marx and We Sun Zhengyu,2024-08-01 Marxist ideology is the only fully scientific ideology the only one able to guide mankind toward the settlement of fundamental social problems and to point out the royal road for the proletariat to take in its march toward socialism and communism Without Marxism modern people cannot establish true social ideals nor can they engage in the rational pursuit of values Without Marxism modern people cannot choose the correct path of development nor can they build up new forms of civilizations Without Marxism modern people would never base their commitments to schedule the consensus building effort and support the consensus building process on any irrefutably and sufficiently sound theoretical foundations

Anthropomorphism in Christian Theology William C. Hackett, 2023-12-28 William C Hackett provides a renewed reading of Christian theology by evaluating the role of anthropomorphism in shaping negative theology Through this theological history he addresses the fear of anthropomorphism that prompted early philosophers and theologians to adopt abstract understandings of God Hackett charts the wide ranging importance of anthropomorphism to theology through figures including Balthasar Bultmann Dionysius the Areopagite and Cyril of Alexandria He argues that anthropomorphism highlights the unique conceptual problem between divine presence and absence By exploring the turn away from practical and embodied views of God in Scripture this book focuses on anthropomorphic views of God in symbols images and narratives Emphasising these forms promotes an intellectual vision of Christianity that challenges theoretical and conceptual abstraction Anthropomorphism in Christian Theology further traces the nuances between human and angelic intellect modern philosophy and theology negative theology and the concept of transcendence

from an iconic religious tradition voice a kind of invective one might expect from Hebrew prophets Muslim iconoclasts or Calvinists Rammohun was a wealthy Bengali intimately associated with the British Raj and familiar with European languages religion and currents of thought Dayananda was an itinerant Gujarati ascetic who did not speak English and was not integrated into the culture of the colonizers Salmond's examination of Dayananda after Rammohun complicates the easy assumption that nineteenth century Hindu iconoclasm is simply a case of borrowing an attitude from Muslim or Protestant traditions Salmond examines the origins of these reformers' ideas by considering the process of diffusion and independent invention that is whether ideas are borrowed from other cultures or arise spontaneously and without influence from external sources Examining their writings from multiple perspectives Salmond suggests that Hindu iconoclasm was a complex movement whose attitudes may have arisen from independent invention and were then reinforced by diffusion Although idolatry became the symbolic marker of their reformist programs Rammohun's and Dayananda's agendas were broader than the elimination of image worship These Hindu reformers perceived a link between image rejection in religion and the unification and modernization of society part of a process that Max Weber called the disenchantment of the world Focusing on idolatry in nineteenth century India Hindu Iconoclasts investigates the encounter of civilizations an encounter that continues to resonate today The Irish Ecclesiastical Record, 1899 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown, 2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts Church and altar decorations and mosaic pictures John Henry Parker, 1876 Art in Dispute Wietse de Boer, 2021-11-29 The Catholic Church answered Reformation era contestations of the cult of images in a famous decree of the Council of Trent 1563 Art in Dispute revisits this response by focusing on its antecedents rather than its consequences The mid sixteenth century saw besides new scholarship on Byzantine doctrines heated debates about neo scholastic interpretations Disagreement suppressed at Trent but re emerging soon afterwards centered on the question whether religious images were solely signs referring to holy subjects or also sacred objects in their own right It was a debate with major implications for art theory and devotional practice The volume contains editions and translations of texts by Martin P. de Ayala Matthieu Ory Jean Calvin Ambrogio Catarino Politi and Iacopo Nacchianti along with a previously unknown draft of the Tridentine decree The Use of Holy Images. Summary of the Proceedings of the Bombay Catholic Debating Club; Relating to the Late Discussion on the Above Subject by L. Meurin Johann Gabriel Leo Meurin, 1866 Titian's Portraits through Aretino's Lens, 1995 Jesuit Image Theory Walter S. Melion, Karl A.E. Enenkel, Wietse de Boer, 2016-06-10 The Jesuit investment in images whether verbal or visual virtual or actual pictorial or poetic rhetorical or exegetical was strong and sustained and may even be identified as one of the order's defining characteristics Although this interest in images has been richly documented by art historians theatre historians and scholars of the emblem the question of Jesuit image theory has yet to be approached from a multi disciplinary perspective that examines how the image was defined conceived produced and interpreted within the various fields of learning cultivated by the Society sacred oratory pastoral instruction scriptural exegesis theology collegiate pedagogy poetry and poetics etc The papers published in this volume investigate the ways in which Jesuits reflected visually and verbally on the status and functions of the imago between the foundation of the order in 1540 and its suppression in 1773 Part I examines texts that purport explicitly to theorize about the imago and to analyze its various forms and functions Part II examines what one might call expressions of embedded image theory that is various instances where Jesuit authors and artists use images implicitly to explore the status and functions of such images as indices of image making Contributors include Wietse de Boer James Clifton Ralph Dekoninck Karl Enenkel Pierre Antoine Fabre David Graham Agn s Guiderdoni Anna Knaap Walter Melion Jeffrey Muller Hilmar Pabel Aline Smeesters Andrea Torre and Steffen Zierholz
